ASCENSION THURSDAY THURSDAY, MAY 13: 8:30 AM and 6:30 PM

Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him. Listen to the words of the Apostle: If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth. For just as he remained with us even after his ascension, so we too are already in heaven with him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.

Christ is now exalted above the heavens, but he still suffers on earth all the pain that we, the members of his body, have to bear. He showed this when he cried out from above: Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? and when he said: I was hungry and you gave me food.

Why do we on earth not strive to find rest with him in heaven even now, through the faith, hope and love that unites us to him? While in heaven he is also with us; and we while on earth are with him. He is here with us by his divinity, his power and his love. We cannot be in heaven, as he is on earth, by divinity, but in him, we can be there by love.

He did not leave heaven when he came down to us; nor did he withdraw from us when he went up again into heaven. The fact that he was in heaven even while he was on earth is borne out by his own statement: No one has ever ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.

These words are explained by our oneness with Christ, for he is our head and we are his body. No one ascended into heaven except Christ because we also are Christ: he is the Son of Man by his union with us, and we by our union with him are the sons of God. So the Apostle says: Just as the human body, which has many members, is a unity, because all the different members make one body, so is it also with Christ. He too has many members, but one body.

Out of compassion for us he descended from heaven, and although he ascended alone, we also ascend, because we are in him by grace. Thus, no one but Christ descended and no one but Christ ascended; not because there is no distinction between the head and the body, but because the body as a unity cannot be separated from the head.

The Ascension of the Lord "The Rest of the Story"

Every fairy tale begins with, "Once upon a time" and ends with, "...and they lived happily ever after". No matter how many disastrous situations or evil characters appear to be in the course of the tale, the beginning is read with hope and the end celebrates triumph. But the end is not the end, for "they" live happily ever after. The rest of the story is left to the imagination of the reader. Fairy tales are bed time favorites, for a child can drift off to sleep and allow his/her dreams finish the rest of the story.

The Gospel is a fairy tale come true. It begins Once upon a time in the small town of Bethlehem, and ends with the ascension of Jesus into Heaven leaving the Apostles with the promise of the Holy Spirit... And they lived happily ever after... and longer.

The Ascension is a reminder that Jesus fulfilled his mission of revealing the love of the Father through His words, deeds and His death. The Ascension leaves His believers in awe of all that took place, and the promise of living happily ever after. Hope is given and triumph won!!

What about the rest of the story?

The rest of the story is still being told, not in sleepy children's dreams, but by all who have been carried away in the mystery of Christ through Baptism. The rest of the story is our lives in the Spirit, and the hope of sharing with Christ is eternity. The rest of the story is a happily ever after and beyond life itself.

A time for prayer and reflection

We celebrate the Ascension to highlight the significant event of Jesus returning to the Father to take His place in Glory. The Ascension is seen not as abandonment, but necessary for the final chapter to begin. So on the Feast of the Ascension we begin a ten day prayer vigil, like the apostles, awaiting the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, which will guide us through the Church, writing with our lives the rest of the story....

Happily ever after....

That is how people of faith live awaiting the Kingdom ... In joyful hope for the coming of Jesus Christ!

Additional Neighboring Parish MassesImmaculate Conception*Vigil: Wednesday May 12 6:30 pm*Thurs, May 13: 7:45 am; Noon and 6:30 pm*St. Agnes:*Vigil: Wednesday, May 12: 6:30pm*Thursday, May 13: 7:00am and 6:30pm*May: Mary's MonthFather John*

One of my most vivid memories of the month of May, as a child, was that the big clothes hamper, that handled the endless flow of dirty clothes to the wash room, became the main attraction in our home. The hamper itself, was no longer just a hamper; draped with the finest dining room table cloth, it became our family's MAY ALTAR. This altar stood in the middle of the upstairs hallway, with our family's treasured statue of "Our Lady" enshrined upon it with flowers from the yard's lilac bush and my mom's flower garden. As you walked into the hallway the heavenly scent of these flowers was a constant reminder that it was May and that it was Mary's Month. It seemed to me that everywhere I turned, at home, school and in church, Mary's "Altar" held a special place for 30 days.

It is no surprise honoring Mary as the Mother of the Church and as our Heavenly Mother, that we also Honored our own "mom" that month too.

Mother's day (first celebrated in Spain on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception) often takes on Marian Nuances. In England, since the 17th CE , The annual "Mothering Sunday" was celebrated on the Fourth Sunday of Lent.

Before our country's "Mother's Day" became a "Hallmark Moment" and the one day everyone should take mom to breakfast, or at least phone her, it had links to the Blessed Mother. The tradition began, through the efforts of Anna Jarvis (1864 - 1948) , with church services in Grafton, West Virginia , and Philadelphia Pennsylvania, in honor of Anna's own mother. In 1910, the governor of Oklahoma issued the first Mother's Day proclamation. The following year all the states did so. Congress and the Executive Office cooperated in 1913 in a national resolution establishing the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. Anna Jarvis died, disillusioned that her religious efforts had become almost entirely secular and commercial.

As we approach Mother's Day, we must remember that the best way to honor and respect our own moms, we must first Honor the Mother of Christ, who is the Christian model of motherhood for all today's Mothers.

So, if that simple May altar has disappeared in your Homes, erect one this year. Take time to reflect on the life of the Blessed Mother; bring her flowers; beseech her for motherly care, so that the flowers, the breakfast, or the phone call next Sunday, will be more than a thanks to your mom in her efforts to meet your temporal needs, but will be a sign of your appreciation of her spiritual guidance as well in your life.

Next week: How moms can imitate the virtues of Our Lady as Mother of us all

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GATHERING SONG "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling"

Love divine, all loves excelling,
joy of heav'n, to earth come down,
fix in us your humble dwelling,
all your faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, source of all compassion,
Love unbounded love all pure.
Visit us with your salvation;
Let your love in us endure.

GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1*ACTS 10: 25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being." Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him." While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

READING 21JN 4: 7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

GOSPELJn 15: 9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Song “Sing with All the Saints in Glory”

Sing with all the saints in glory,
Sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking,
Soon the storms of time shall cease;
In God's likeness, people waking,
Know the everlasting peace.

Feast of Our Lady Of Fatima (May 13)

May 13 is the anniversary of the apparition of Our Lady to three shepherd children in the small village of Fatima in Portugal in 1917. She appeared six times to Lucia, 9, and her cousins Francisco, 8, and his sister Jacinta, 6, between May 13, 1917 and October 13, 1917.

The story of Fatima begins in 1916, when, against the backdrop of the First World War which had introduced Europe to the most horrific and powerful forms of warfare yet seen.

On the 13th day of the month of Our Lady, May 1917, an apparition of ‘a woman all in white, more brilliant than the sun’ presented itself to the three children saying “Please don’t be afraid of me, I’m not going to harm you.” Lucia asked her where she came from and she responded, “I come from Heaven.” The woman wore a white mantle edged with gold and held a rosary in her hand. The woman asked them to pray and devote themselves to the Holy Trinity and to “say the Rosary every day, to bring peace to the world and an end to the war.”
