NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

Trinity Sunday

The western Church observes the feast of the Most Holy Trinity on the first Sunday after Pentecost. Every Sunday, and every day, being dedicated to God. Therefore, in a measure a feast of the Trinity, a special feast did not become general until the 14th century, and it is still unknown in Eastern rites. It was first used in the church of Canterbury under Saint Thomas Becket and spread from thence.

Light, Radiance and Grace are in the Trinity and from the Trinity A letter by St Athanasius

It will not be out of place to consider the ancient tradition, teaching and faith of the Catholic Church, which was revealed by the Lord, proclaimed by the apostles and guarded by the fathers. For upon this faith the Church is built, and if anyone were to lapse from it, he would no longer be a Christian either in fact or in name.

We acknowledge the Trinity, holy and perfect, to consist of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In this Trinity there is no intrusion of any alien element or of anything from outside, nor is the Trinity a blend of creative and created being. It is a wholly creative and energizing reality, self-consistent and undivided in its active power, for the Father makes all things through the Word and in the Holy Spirit, and in this way the unity of the holy Trinity is preserved. Accordingly, in the Church, one God is preached, one God who is above all things and through all things and in all things. God is above all things as Father, for he is principle and source; he is through all things through the Word; and he is in all things in the Holy Spirit.

Writing to the Corinthians about spiritual matters, Paul traces all reality back to one God, the Father, saying: Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of service but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.

Even the gifts that the Spirit dispenses to individuals are given by the Father through the Word. For all that belongs to the Father belongs also to the Son, and so the graces given by the Son in the Spirit are true gifts of the Father.

Similarly, when the Spirit dwells in us, the Word who bestows the Spirit is in us too, and the Father is present in the Word. This is the meaning of the text; My Father and I will come to him and make our home with him. For where the light is, there also is the radiance; and where the radiance is, there too are its power and its resplendent grace.

This is also Paul's teaching in his second letter to the Corinthians: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. For grace and the gift of the Trinity are given by the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit. Just as grace is given from the Father through the Son, so there could be no communication of the gift to us except in the Holy Spirit. But when we share in the Spirit, we possess the love of the Father, the grace of the Son and the fellowship of the Spirit himself.

FROM THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH— THE HOLY TRINITY

IN BRIEF

261 The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of Christian life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

262 The Incarnation of God's Son reveals that God is the eternal Father and that the Son is consubstantial with the Father, which means that, in the Father and with the Father the Son is one and the same God.

263 The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son (Jn 14:26) and by the Son "from the Father" (Jn 15:26), reveals that, with them, the Spirit is one and the same God. "With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified" (Nicene Creed).

264 "The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father as the first principle and, by the eternal gift of this to the Son, from the communion of both the Father and the Son" (St. Augustine, De Trin., 15, 26, 47; Pt. 42, 1095).

265 By the grace of Baptism "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal light (cf. Paul VI, CPG § 9).

266 "Now this is the Catholic faith: We worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity, without either confusing the persons or dividing the substance; for the person of the Father is one, the Son's is another, the Holy Spirit's another; but the Godhead of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is one, their glory equal, their majesty coeternal" (Athanasian Creed: DS 75; ND 16).

267 Inseparable in what they are, the divine persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GATHERING SONG "All Hail, Adored Trinity"

All hail, adored Trinity!
All hail, eternal Unity!
O God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, ever One.

GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1*DT 4: 32-34, 39-40

Moses said to the people:
"Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of?
Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other.
You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

RESPONSORIALPSALM

R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

READING 2*ROM 8: 14-17

Brothers and sisters:
For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

GOSPELMt 28: 16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and
invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Song “All Praise and Glad Thanksgiving ”

All praise and glad thanksgiving
To God the Father be:
The Font of all things living,
Who reigns eternally.

Praise to God forever be,
One in life, in Person three:
Mighty God, Saving God,
God eternal Trinity!

‘Be the Light’ with 2021 Diocesan Lenten Appeal

Today we enter “Ordinary Time” of the church year. We are excited that we are seeing more things open, less requirements regarding masks, while anticipating the end of the school year... and maybe a vacation! Our 2021 Diocesan Lenten Appeal is drawing to a close. It is not too late to donate if you have not already! Any money we would receive now will be put directly toward the resurfacing of our parking lot. If you haven’t made your gift and would like to do so, please place your pledge card in the collection basket or make your gift online at www.DiocesefofGreensburg.org/BeTheLight this week. Even a small gift can make a big difference.

Dementia Support Group --- The Dementia Friendly Faith Community Support Group meets on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the Parish Center. The next meeting date is Tuesday, June 1st. For more information, contact Gail Henderson at 412-848-2076 or email her at gailhend@comcast.net or contact the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish office at 724-864-6364.

Congrats to our 2021 Graduates!!!!

In the most tumultuous year of a pandemic, our seniors persevered through many things and have managed to come out all "smiles."

I am privileged to have shared this moment with them in church at Sacred Mass! We had a beautiful celebration! Four students were able to attend just as the church was lifting COVID restrictions.

I am a proud "SPIRITUAL Father" to all of these great young men and women of the Class of 2021...a true reflection of their loving parents!! ~ ~ Father John

All Aboard!

Vacation Bible School Registration is now open! Vacation Bible School returns this June 21–23 from 8:30AM– 12:00 PM at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton. You won't want to miss this week full of fun games, crafts, snacks, and worship! Registration forms for kids Pre K4-5th grade can be found on the parish website and in the back of church.

ADULT & YOUTH VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED.

Anyone wanting to volunteer (grades 6th and up) please contact Jen Henry Wilson at JNWilson@dioceseofgreensburg.org. We are in need of several adults to assist the teen leaders and if you are able to give your help, even if not all 3 days, please contact Jen. An in-person VBS Volunteer meeting will be held on Sat, June 5th at 10:00 am in the parish center if you would like to learn more about helping at this fun-filled event.

CPSL—now that some of the restrictions have been lifted and we are able to once again sponsor events, reminder that all volunteers 18+ will need to complete their Child Protection clearances (CPSL). Avoid the rush of trying to renew your clearances before an event, and take care of that now. For more information, see our parish website www.seasnh.org.

Angel's Corner

Are you looking for a Pre-Kindergarten class for your 3-4-5 year old? Queen of Angels Catholic School is now accepting registration for the 2021-2022 school year. Pre-Kindergarten programs include: 3 Yr. Pre-K: 2 Days/week; 4 Yr. Pre-K: 3 Days/week; 4 Yr. Pre-K "Express" Class 5 afternoons/week and Pre-K "Zoom" Class (5 by Jan 1) 5 mornings/week. Half-day and full-day kindergarten options are available. Grades 1-8 are also available. Our school offers a wonderfully warm, faith-based environment staffed with dedicated and highly qualified faculty who educate the whole child. High expectations and high support help to develop each child's unique gifts. Parents like the extended family created by the school community and the personal attention each child receives. We invite parents to be an active part of the home/school team. Call the school office at 724-978-0144 or check out our website www.queenofangelsch.org/. Come and discover more about Queen of Angels ...where all the pieces come together.
