NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

“The Heart of a Priest”

“It is always springtime in the heart that loves God.”

St. John Marie Vianney

The fall of 2020 I was experiencing some discomfort in my chest, blood pressure was a bit high, and not wanting to ignore these signs I scheduled a rare appointment to see my doctor who immediately sent me to have a nuclear stress test. A nuclear stress test is a study aimed at measuring whether the blood flow to your heart muscle is normal or abnormal. The study utilizes a radioactive tracer to create an image of how well blood is reaching your heart muscle, both during exercise and while at rest. After the test the technician was preparing the images of my heart on a computer screen for the doctor to review. I looked over and saw, for the first time, a picture of my own heart. The tech assured me that it was healthy. I was amazed to think that this small mass of muscle was the very heart that beats within my body. The heart has always been seen as the seat of our passions and the place for which we hold things dear. Many saints have pointed to the heart as the most precious gift we can give to God, especially in prayer. Blessed John Henry Newman said that prayer is heart speaking to heart. Saint Augustine said that his heart could not rest until it rested in God alone. Our prayer to the Sacred heart pleads: “Make my heart unto thine.” So I was a bit overwhelmed with the thought of my heart being the center of what I am as a human person; as a loving person and mostly as a loving priest. I hoped that the size of my heart did not reflect proportionally to the amount I love others for it seemed so small in size. I remembered thinking how I desired my heart to be pure, loving and sacrificially given to Christ. I remembered thinking how many beats have been past and how many did I have yet to give. It was a surreal moment of my humanness and more so a reminder of the call to a faithful priesthood. My heart was healthy!! I could only hope that it was loving and priestly.

The Greatest of all Priestly Hearts- Saint John Marie Vianney

When I think of the purest, humblest and loving heart of the priestly life I always think of Saint John Vianney, patron saint of parish priests! Saint Vianney embodied the sacrifice of love in his priesthood. He longed to fill his heart with God’s presence and love as he prayed before the Blessed Sacrament. He poured forth, from his heart, the love and mercy of the Lord as he spent endless hours in the confessional. He opened this loving heart to the poorest souls among the sick, the impoverished and homeless. He preached and taught from his heart at every Mass and in every catechetical instruction. His heart remained pure against the endless attacks of Satan who despised a heart of a priest that so reflected the heart of Jesus himself. For these reasons St. John Vianney is a model of what a parish priest should aspire to in his call to serve the people of the parish. “The parish priest must be, for his people, Christ’ heart in all ways of charity, sacrifice and hope.”

“The Lord is more anxious to forgive our sins than a woman is to carry her baby out of a burning building.”

A Pilgrimage to Ars France – Ars is a small farming village 275 miles south of the great city of Paris. It is, if you will, the furthest out-post that a priest could be assigned to assure no exposure to souls of great consequence. This was the parish town of the priest (Cure of Ars) with the heart of Christ. While ordination neared, my friends and I set off on a pilgrimage to Ars to visit the place of a saint who we desired to emulate as priest. I remember the town was simple and even the shrine church was modest in stature. The sense of holiness and virtue was encompassing as I spent time in prayer at this saint's kneeler. God's power of mercy weighed heavily on my shoulders as I was privileged to wear his purple stole around my neck as I sat in the seat of his confessional. Nothing was as striking or compelling as reverencing the relic of his heart. It was enshrined at the back altar for all to see from a distance. I prayed there with great fear and humility as I asked for the grace of such a heart! A heart of a priest!

“A priest goes to Heaven or a priest goes to Hell with a thousand people behind.”

Knights of Columbus held a Nationwide Tour of Curé of Ars Heart

Thirty-three years later, within months following the “physical” examination of my heart I had a chance to see the heart I desired to emulate within my priesthood for it was coming to me! The Shrine of Ars, France, had entrusted to the Knights of Columbus the major relic of St. Jean Vianney's incorrupt heart for a national tour in the U.S., from November 2018 through early June 2019. The heart of this great Saint would be less than 85 miles from me to venerate once again!

So I went out on pilgrimage, with my friends, to the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Altoona-Johnston. The incorrupt heart of Saint John Vianney was enshrined in a gold 17th Century reliquary that was displayed before the main altar. The Knights of Columbus, dressed in their formal garb guarded the relic while the pilgrims came forward to venerate.

Like thousands of others that day I took my turn too, once again, and knelt before the uncorrupt heart of my hero Saint John Vianney. As I knelt before the reliquary tears streamed from my eyes as I was overwhelmed with seeing, up close and personal, the heart of the patron of parish priests. I could not help to think that every beat of his heart was in time and unison with the love of the Christ! Every beat represented his humanity that was transformed by grace to become the vessel of the sacred mysteries entrusted to the priest alone! I was overwhelmed with humility that after 30 some years I still needed to pray the same prayer of being given the grace for such a heart. I still wanted and needed that grace to transform my healthy human heart into one of great selfless love.

“The priest continues the work of redemption on earth. . . . If we really understood the priest on earth, we would die not of fright but of love. . . . The Priesthood is the love of the heart of Jesus.” Prayer of Total Devotion to God by St. Jean Vianney: I love you, O my God, and my only desire is to love you until the last breath of my life. I love you, O my infinitely lovable God, and I would rather die loving you, than live without loving you. I love you, Lord, and the only grace I ask is to love you eternally. . . . My God, if my tongue cannot say in every moment that I love you, I want my heart to repeat it to you as often as I draw breath. Amen

St. Jean Vianney on the Priesthood

The Brevity of our Human Lives – Saint John Vianney was a priest less than fifty years but he converted so many lives through his simple and loving heart. A brief time that heart, transformed by the grace of his soul, animated the body of a simple priest whose one goal was to show everyone the way to heaven. The closing prayer that I offered at the end of the general petition speaks to such a heart and life: “Eternal Father help me to realize the brevity of my human life so that I may be disposed to the transforming grace that allows me to further your glorious kingdom on earth!” Saint John Vianney, Pray for me!!

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GATHERING SONG “Sing of Mary”

Sing of Mary, pure and lowly,
Virgin mother undefiled,
Sing of God's own Son most holy,
Who became her little child.
Fairest child of fairest mother,
God the Lord who came to earth,
Word made flesh, our very brother,
Takes our nature by his birth.

GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 Rv 11:19a; 12:1-6a,10ab

God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple. A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadems. Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth, to devour her child when she gave birth. She gave birth to a son, a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and his throne. The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:
“Now have salvation and power come, and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 45: THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY: AT THE MASS DURING THE DAY, ALL YEARS

R. The queen stands at your right hand, ar-rayed in gold.

READING 2

1 COR 15: 20-27

Brothers and sisters:
Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for “he subjected everything under his feet.”

GOSPEL

Lk 1: 39-56

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.”
And Mary said:
“My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.”
Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
 and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead
 and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Song “Hail, Holy Queen”
 Hail, holy Queen enthroned above, O Maria.
 Hail, Mother of mercy and of love, O Maria.
 Triumph, all ye Cherubim;
 Sing with us, ye Seraphim.
 Heav'n and earth resound the hymn:
 Salve, Salve, Salve Regina.

Eucharistic Procession - August 15th at 2 pm

Together, Immaculate Conception Parish and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton are sponsoring a Eucharistic procession at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton this year. To participate as a community makes a statement of welcoming back God into our parish families after a year of just personal devotion. It is a time of reverence and awe to be shared with each other.

While this is being sponsored by both parishes all are welcome to participate. We will begin in the church in silent prayer and the ten icons of saints and will be presented and all will process out followed by Fr. John as he carries the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance. At each tent we will stop and pray asking healing and strengthening for ourselves, our parishes and our nation. We will then process back into the church to be blessed and sent forth.

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the whole Christian life. A Eucharistic procession, therefore, is a public witness of the veneration toward the most holy Eucharist. It takes place in this way: A consecrated host – that is, the real and substantial presence of Jesus Christ: body, blood, soul and divinity – is placed within a monstrance, which is then lifted and carried by a priest who leads the faithful in procession. Like a pilgrimage, a Eucharistic procession normally starts at one holy place and ends at another. This earthly journey reminds the Catholic faithful of their spiritual journey toward eternal life with God. It is customary to show respect for what we are doing by dressing in appropriate clothing, i.e., Sunday best-dresses, skirts, dress slacks for women with modest tops and full coverage shoes-No sandals or flip-flops. Men are to wear dress trousers, dress shirts, and ties. Casual clothing is not considered appropriate for this demonstration of our Catholic faith.
