THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Beginning of Jesus Priestly Ministry

This Sunday, the Feast of the baptism of the Lord brings the Christmas Season to a formal end. The readings these past weeks about Jesus' birth and infancy are followed rather abruptly by an account that takes place thirty years later. What connects today with the other feasts of this season is that it celebrates another dimension of Jesus' manifestation to the world as "Eternal High Priest". As I mentioned last weekend on the feast of the Epiphany, the gift of Frankincense, the perfume of the temple which was given by Casper, symbolized the important role of Jesus' ministry as teacher, healer and bridge between man and God.

It was not necessary for Jesus to be baptized, for He was free from original sin, but He insisted that He be baptized for other reasons.

- 1) When John baptizes Jesus, it is the first time the two come into direct contact. The Evangelists Matthew, Mark and Luke begin Jesus' public ministry with the preaching of John the Baptist. It is a clear call to repentance. When Jesus encounters John the Baptist at the Jordan, it is as though Jesus received the torch from His fore runner. Jesus begins His preaching with the same theme: "Repent, the kingdom of God is near."
- 2) Jesus' Baptism not only marks the beginning of His priestly ministry but reminds us of the perfect sacrifice in which this ministry would end... In His death. The water of baptism for Jesus as well as for us is a reminder that we die to this world so we can share in the heavenly Kingdom. As Jesus is immersed in the waters of the Jordan He dies to the simple notion that he is just a man. He ascends from the water with the epiphany of which the gift of myrrh calls to mind... He was born to die... to be the perfect and lasting sacrifice for sins... He is more than a man as the words of the Father proclaims: "This is my beloved Son".

These reasons of Jesus baptism calls us to examine more deeply the meaning of our own Baptism. While our baptism is necessary for cleansing of original sin it is only the beginning of what we are called to live. We too are expected to proclaim the Gospel and live as the Father's beloved changed from earthly desires to Hope in the Eternal.

Remember our vocation is sanctified in Baptism. We must find our path through our calling in life. That may be as a single, religious, priest or a married person... but all in all.. In the image of Christ and the hope of sharing forever with Him in Heaven.

BEING STEWARDS OF OUR BAPTISM

When we have died through the waters of Baptism we have died to the mundane things that hold us fast to the worldly desires and concerns. We participate in this truth by exhibiting acts of Faith, Hope and Charity. These virtues are the main-stream of our life in Christ.

FAITH

Faith is a gift that must be nurtured and shared. You are welcomed to share in the ongoing opportunities of devotion, study and prayer that the parish offers weekly.

Consider:

- 1) Tuesday Adoration, Confession and Evening Mass at Immaculate Conception. The 6:30 PM Mass on Tuesday evening is a great way to participate in a more intimate and quiet setting. Treat yourself to another opportunity to be renewed in the Word and Eucharist.
- 2) Sacrament of Anointing is offered at Sacred Mass the first Saturday of the month at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton. The Mass is at 9:30 am and welcome all those who desire to be strengthened under the weight of the Cross of suffering. Suffering comes in many forms: Spiritual, physical and emotional all which hinders us from our mission in Christ. The grace of this sacrament helps us to know the healing power of God and His divine providence for us!
- 3) The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen, a new book of daily meditations that set us on a spiritual journey daily! There, of course are many daily meditation books that can also be used such as the “Magnificat”; “Daily Bread” and “Word Among Us”

HOPE - Being stewards of Hope means that even in the face of difficulties our eyes stay affixed on God.

ABORTION - One of the great difficulties is to see that abortion is still a part of the law and mind set of our Nation. Pray ardently for the end of this tragedy and support those, or join those, who will go to Washington this month for the Pro-Life March. There is a bus available leaving from Saint Agnes for all those who desire to go. The information is in this week’s bulletin.

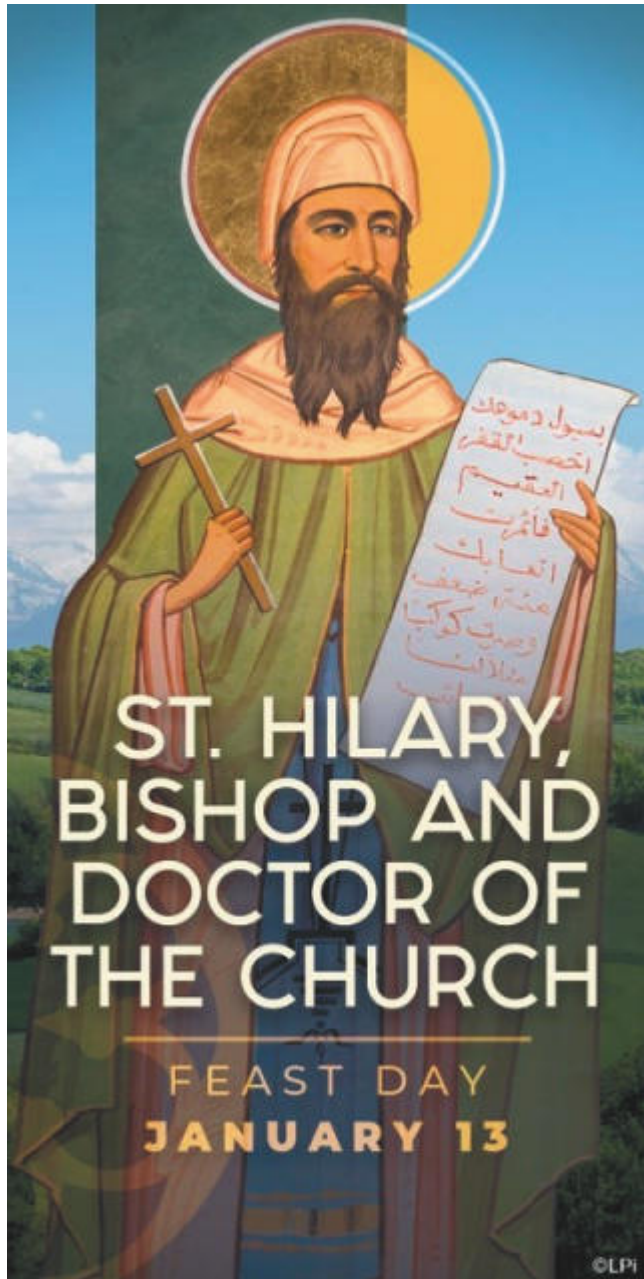

POVERTY - Jesus said that we will always have the poor among us and this is a sign of our call to reach out to others in their need. Those who we serve in their poverty build the Kingdom of God on the Virtue of Hope. We cannot end the worldly needs of others but we can instill in them the trust of God’s love.

MATERIALISM - Worldly desires and pursuits distract us from the greater gifts. Jesus said “what does a man profit if he gains the whole world but loses his soul.” This reminds us to instill hope in what is not obtainable through worldly pursuits but through discipleship in the Kingdom of God.

APOSTACY - Hope comes in not fulfilling our Ego or following our own decrees but to follow the truth of the Gospel. Many, who call themselves Christians, have forgotten the call to obedience and self sacrifice. Let us always be mindful, in our own pursuits, not to substitute what “works for us” for what Truth leads to the kingdom. The call to discipleship means accepting the way of the cross and following Christ’s example.

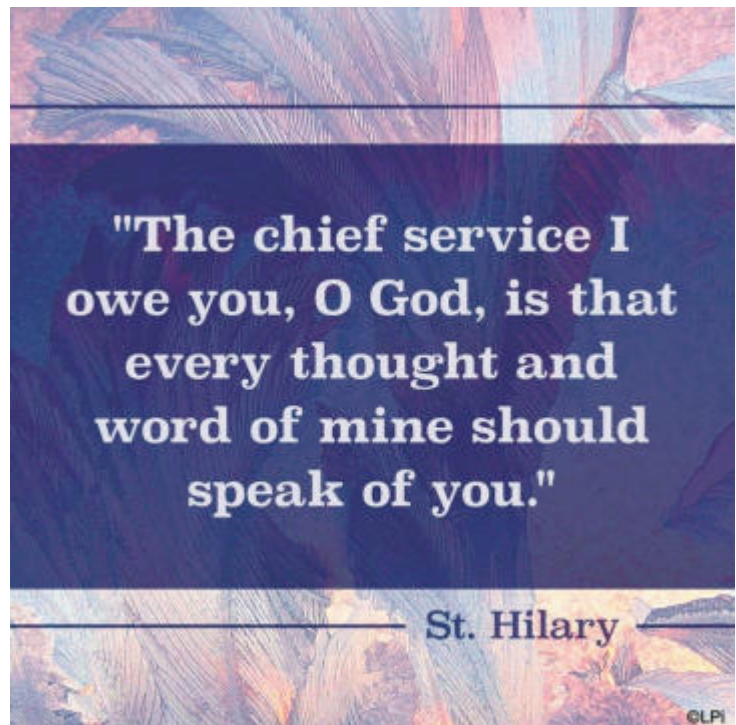

St. Hilary of Poitiers

Bishop and Doctor of the Church

Feast day— January 13

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
