Sponsorship Forms

To request a sponsor form to be a Godparent or Confirmation sponsor, you must be registered in our parish for six months prior, and have all your sacraments. If married, it must be a Catholic marriage. You should be attending Mass regularly, and support the Church through time, talent & treasure.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY!!

The celebration of Valentine's Day comes to us from a mixed cultural of folklore and truth. Folklore tells us of a love-letter writing imprisoned Christian named Valentine who had a "thing" for the jailer's daughter. He would write letters and sign it....

"From your Valentine". How sweet is that? He also was believed to have been martyred and thus the title of Saint. As we know such stories become intertwined with pagan practices that allow them to gain their promotion and notoriety in the secular form. Take such a story of St.

Valentine and couple it with the "Bad boy-angel" Cupid who playfully shoots his arrows of desire which brings destined hearts to a bond of love.... You have now what we call "Valentine's Day". This of course, because "Hallmark" says so, is the day for lovers to express their love!!!. What started out as a simple sharing of love for another has snowballed into a day of heart break for every male who feels obligated to express that love at great expense and originality. Where a card coupled with candy or flowers used to suffice one must be much more original.

Hallmark has passed the torch to a more sophisticated market such as the jeweler and escape weekend retailers.

But today let us simplify and purify our intentions of loving affection as it comes to us through the greatest expression of commitment and love one could ever share: MARRIAGE!!! Marriage is more real than flowers or candy. Marriage is the gift of love that keeps on giving! So I post here a beautiful expression of the sanctity of marriage and the family that comes to us from the Church's Vatican II council documents. It is here, in the commitment of marriage, that I applaud the great lovers...

From the constitution on the Church in the modern world of The Second Vatican Council

The sanctity of marriage and the family

Husband and wife, by the covenant of marriage, are no longer... two, but one flesh. By their intimate union of persons and of actions they give mutual help and service to each other, experience the meaning of their unity, and gain an ever deeper understanding of it day by day. This intimate union in the mutual self-giving of two persons, as well as the good of the children, demands full fidelity from both, and an indissoluble unity between them.

Christ the Lord has abundantly blessed this richly complex love which springs from the divine source of love and is founded on the model of his union with the Church. In earlier times God met his people in a covenant of love and fidelity. So now the Savior of mankind, the Bridegroom of the Church, meets Christian husbands and wives in the sacrament of matrimony. Further, he remains with them in order that, as he loved the Church and gave himself up for her, so husband and wife may, in mutual self-giving, love each other with perpetual fidelity.

True married love is caught up into God's love; it is guided and enriched by the redeeming power of Christ and the saving action of the Church, in order that the partners may be effectively led to God and receive help and strength in the sublime responsibility of parenthood.

Christian partners are therefore strengthened, and as it were consecrated, by a special sacrament for the duties and the dignity of their state. By the power of this sacrament they fulfill their obligations to each other and to their family and are filled with the spirit of Christ. This spirit pervades their whole lives with faith, hope and love. Thus they promote their own perfection and each other's sanctification, and so contribute together to the greater glory of God.

May each family rediscover family prayer, which helps to bring about mutual understanding and forgiveness.

— Pope Francis —

AZ QUOTES

Hence, with parents leading the way by example and family prayer, their children – indeed, all within the family circle – will find it easier to make progress in natural virtues, in salvation and in holiness. Husband and wife, raised to the dignity and the responsibility of parenthood, will be zealous in fulfilling their task as educators, especially in the sphere of religious education, a task that is primarily their own.

Children, as active members of the family, contribute in their own way to the holiness of their parents. With the love of grateful hearts, with loving respect and trust, they will return the generosity of their parents and will stand by them as true sons and daughters when they meet with hardship and the loneliness of old age.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

World Marriage Day
Sunday February 13th, 2022

The permanent theme for World Marriage Day is “Love One Another” from the commandment given to us by Jesus in John 13:34. This gospel gives us this message of how our Heavenly Father wishes us to live. The basic cell of society is the family, founded upon marriage. One mission of our Catholic faith is to build a culture of life and love that begins with supporting marriage and the family. Loving one another is a daily decision - simple but challenging.

Let us take time to pray for our spouses, all married couples and those preparing for marriage.

*Almighty and eternal God,
You blessed the union of married couples
so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church:
Look with kindness on them.
Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.*
