“Thoughts while Distributing Ashes”

As I walked down to the step of the sanctuary to distribute ashes to “mark” the beginning of LENT 2019 I uttered a silent prayer for my patron saint of Ash Wednesday. I say “my” patron saint (with a little “s”) because he is not canonized nor even recognized by any other soul on this day but me. His name is Father Henne and he was the pastor and Chaplain of Saint Joseph High School. Father Henne, suffering from Parkinson’s shook terribly with his hands twitching without control. But on Ash Wednesday, when he was to distribute ashes, by himself (ministers did not help at that time) would surmount a courageous effort to raise his hand and mark the foreheads of all of his parishioners and the entire student body. Resting his four fingers on your temple he would direct his thumb in the form of a cross with ashes while saying:

“REMEMBER THAT YOU ARE DUST AND TO DUST YOU SHALL RETURN”

His voice shook and he perspired profusely through his effort. But you could not help to notice the reality of those words while his eyes were fixed on yours. Lent was officially “open” and for the next forty days, even after the symbolic mark was gone the image of Father Henne remained with me.

The prayer that I whisper is simply: “May I be humble in my ministry, steadfast in my devotion and pure in my intentions as a priest this Lent as your dear priest, oh Lord, Father Henne.

Marking foreheads with ashes is an intimate exchange with the church and each individual who receives it. It is such an important sign of intention to change and the commitment to strive for the mortal nature to be clothed in the immortality as we journey through the physical offering of Christ Jesus on the cross that marked the end of sins power over us and a call to perfection in sharing the resurrection. Even though receiving ashes is just a sacramental and the day is participation in the liturgy it is not obligatory. It is seen and experienced very differently to those who so faithfully make their way to church that day. We are all humbled by the mark of ashes for it takes away the perfectly groomed outward image of our self and “brings” to the surface all of our flaws, weaknesses and sin.

But You are not Alone – Once again the community of the Faithful comforts us in the reality of our humanity as it carries the sign for which we will be cured, forgiven and raised up. I always joke at the end of Mass as I look out at the congregation: “You look marvelous” for smeared in ashes there is no hiding our illness and our need for the great physician. Lent will challenge us to a conversion- a painful realignment to Truth- and bring us the peace of knowing that our mortal nature will be changed to be like His, immortal and perfect, capable of eternal life.

Sharpie markers make a better outward sign – I often teased that we should replace the use of ashes with a sharpie marker. The permanence of the sign may last the forty days of Lent and make our penitential resolve all the more visible. Many people receive the ashes at the end of the day and never have a chance to witness to this mark of Christ in public. I remember in college, after receiving ashes at early morning Mass, people would point to my face and quietly inform me that I had some “dirt” on my forehead. To the gracious inquirers I would simply say: “Oh those are ashes... it’s Ash Wednesday... Lent begins today.” Others would see the ashes and with great grief lament that they had forgotten to stop at church that morning... but for them it was not too late to start the period of Prayer, Fasting and Alms giving. But if the mark was more permanent it would remind not only onlookers but each individual every time they looked in the mirror that Lent is more than a one day promise but a season of perseverance in self-sacrifice. Marked by a permanent sign of Christ’s love through the cross is carried out on many in the sign of a tattoo. The image of the cross is the most expressed tattoo in America.... That should give us all hope!!

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

PAGE 4 | WELCOME TO SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

So just remember that the sacramental sign might be long removed from sight via a wash cloth and soap but the commitment was made. By the Grace of God may your Lent be carried out during these days of Lent so that your Easter joy may be complete!!!

Disciplines of Lent: An Investment in the Theological Virtues of Faith Hope and Love

The disciplines of Prayer, Fasting and Alms Giving have long been the staples of a good and holy Lent. Not only do they help us to become unattached to worldly things and they lead us to an increase of Divine Grace as well. Here is an easy formula to follow this Lent.

PRAYER, intimate and personal communication with God, leads to an increase in the virtue of Faith. To believe in a God can easily be an exercise of the mind. One can be taught about the presence and love of God simply by reading Sacred Scripture and see it in nature. The basic acceptance of God can remain intellectual and impersonal unless one prays. The idea of prayer in Lent is to increase your love quotient of a God that you “know” to a personal and intimate companion. Every type of prayer begs in Faith to share in the life of the God who created us. Jesus’ incarnation is the sign of such a personal friend and a window into the will of God. So praying during Lent should not be a babbling of words but a courtship with God in Faith.

FASTING, the conscious choice to abstain from earthly sustenance and pleasure, can lead to a hunger of the virtue of Hope. The desire to be “filled” in this world via food, power, praise and wealth shows that we place our hope in the here and now. “Eat, Drink and be Merry for Tomorrow we Die” epitomizes our fallen nature’s narrow sightedness and meaning of our existence. Fasting forces us to empty the hold of the worldly things so that we can hope in the heavenly things. To hunger in the absence of human fulfillment and pleasure (poor in spirit) leads to the peace filled reality of the heavenly satisfaction of heaven. Why eat junk food when you have received an invitation to beautiful and luxurious dinner that is prepared and waiting for you to eat?

ALMSGIVING, the act of charity that comes from your heart, leads to an increase in the virtue of Love. Love is the sharing of God’s presence with others who may have doubted their worth as a member of His body. Alms giving is not a surplus giving but a sharing of your blessings and gifts that you attribute to God’s call of stewardship and discipleship. The virtue of love is a sharing in the joy of knowing what is given in Christ name is a gift gained and not lost.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA -Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sharing the Gifts – 2022 Diocesan Lenten Appeal

If the last two years of living through the Covid-19 pandemic has taught anything it is the importance of looking out for those around us. The importance of sharing our gifts with our family, friends and loved ones has become heightened. Hopefully through God's grace we are coming to an end of this difficult time and able to return to normal. Hopefully our new normal includes a continued generosity that will continue and grow.

As we prepare for the season of Lent we also begin the 2022 Diocesan Lenten Appeal in our parish. When we share our gifts, we support the parish mission of sharing the love and mercy of Jesus Christ. We hope you will prayerfully consider a gift to support this mission. In the next few weeks, we will share some of the ways we at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and our Diocese share those gifts with those in need.

You and our fellow parishioners have been generous to this parish, allowing us to maintain our mission of being a place where anyone can come and experience God in meaningful liturgies, teachings, and outreach to those in need.

Respecting the rising costs of purchasing the items we use for those different ministries, we are asking for you to please prayerfully consider making your pledge/donation to the DLA for this year. You should have received your packet in the mail and you can make your donation on-line at DioceseofGreensburg.org/SharingOurGifts, or drop your card in the mail or the basket at Mass. This is a great way to practice almsgiving at a time when your parish needs it. Thank you as always for your generosity. May God Bless you and your family.

Be sure to wish Father Roniel a very HAPPY BIRTHDAY on his special day—

Monday, March 7th.

Have a blessed day, Father!!!!
