Pope Francis: “Lead us not into temptation”

On December 13, 2017, Pope Francis commented that the words of the “Our Father” lead us not into temptation are misleading. God would not lead us into temptation, said Pope Francis, perhaps the words should be changed. The reality of the statement of the prayer, as it is worded, speaks more clearly to the challenge of temptation that can be found when God leads us into the desert of prayer and calls us under the weight of the cross of suffering. These experiences can be frightening and found by a weak soul not as an embrace of spiritual purification, for which God intends, but as an occasion of failure under the strain of a fallen nature. The prayer invokes God’s presence to be with us, hand in hand, to walk through the midst of worldly distractions and the devils lure so we can make it an experience of Love in His name. The following line: “deliver us from evil” clarifies that where God leads us the devil is lurking! God would not lead us into temptation but where He leads us will be tempted, if left to our own strength, and could lead to a sinful choice in the stead of the will of God. This article speaks of those real temptations... Jesus was led by the spirit to be “tempted” so his resolve and nature would be known... So we too are tempted to affirm our resolve and divine nature that lead us to Life Eternal.

The Transfiguration: DESIRING THE LIFE, MISSION AND GLORY OF CHRIST

This week we have been invited to take a look inside the life of heaven. Seeing the Transfigured Lord gives us a sense of the “Fullness of life in union with God.” Peace at last... seeing and hearing and even sensing the magnificence forces us to echo the words of Saint Peter “It is good that we are here. How then do we obtain such an entrance into the Divine Presence? How is it that we enter into the eternal perfection for which we call heaven? The answer comes in our desire to set aside ourselves and battle the temptations against the three fold concupiscence (fallen nature) of our humanity.

FLESH – Entertainment of the Body vs. the Enlightenment of the Soul

Jesus is tempted by the devil to turn small round stones into bread while literally starving from His 40 day fast. While the fast may have weakened His human nature it only strengthened is resolve to give of His Life-Nature and adhere to the life that he would win for us in the resurrection. The beckoning of Satan through our senses distorts our vision as well. We in our hunger, to satisfy our human appetites, can be enticed by his voice to see a stone as “bread of life.” It is when we are starving for self fulfillment that we are most prepared to receive the nourishment of the Soul. The word of Christ in the scriptures, His teaching in the Catechism and profoundly found in the prayers of devotions. This food enlightens the soul and prepares it ever the more for the Eucharistic food that we receive at the Sunday Mass. (ie. The reason we still hold an hour fast before this Holy Communion).

Lent calls us to “give up” or close our ears to cacophony of worldly voices that call out to us in the forms of media, songs, television and idle chat with friends. These things build up the bond between our self-worth in the eyes of the world and distract us from the tender loving voice that dwells within. We need to counter this voice that we have become so familiar to and replace it with acts of devotional love.

CONSIDER fasting from the voice of your favorite distraction and replace it with the voice of Christ using one of the above suggestions.

EGO – Vainglory vs. Eternal Glory

Jesus is tempted by Satan to “buy” into the power of sensationalism to attract worldly fame. To throw himself down from the temple parapet for the angels to sweep him up is in direct contradiction to the Father’s mission for Him: the cross. The abuse of any of our God-given talents to bolster our pride instead of the kingdom of God certainly falls into this temptation of our Ego. Interestingly enough as Jesus did properly dispense of His authority over evil spirits and the effect of sin (death) he was accused of being a sorcerer and in the league with Satan. It was only those who sought, in Faith, to participate in these actions understood His power as merciful love! But Jesus greatest act of sensationalism was the resurrection. Only after all vain-glory was laid aside, through the cross and His death, that true (eternal) glory was exposed!

Lent calls us, through prayer to make our every action, word and deed be the mission of Christ and not a mission of recognition and praise. The last place instead of the first is our approach. A simple prayer of service to the mission of the coming kingdom is simply Mary’s fiat: “Let it be done unto me... I am the handmaiden of the Lord.”

CONSIDER: That you are #3 in importance to the mission of God. God first, neighbor second... Approach through prayer every situation with great humility and act according to glory to come.

Avarice – Fools Gold vs. Heavenly Treasures

Satan tempts Jesus with “fools gold” when he promises him the kingdoms of the world. Bowing to Satan the great deceiver is like trusting a road side huckster or late night infomercial to be the quickest way to health, money and security. These false gods tempt us with false hope. The earthly treasures of heaven have no value in the heavenly kingdom for they only serve the master of fleeting things. Jesus said: The measure for which you measure will be measured out to you. (Matt 7). If we care to measure our wealth in “fools gold” instead of love, kindness, compassion, mercy and virtue the scales of the heavenly treasury will go unaffected by our earthly endeavors.

Lent calls us to give alms to the poor as an act of investment for the kingdom of God. This action allows us not to be measured in our wealth but in our charity. Almsgiving also challenges us to fast from the unnecessary use of our wealth for frivolous comforts so that they may turn into providing the basic needs for those who are seeking “daily bread.”

CONSIDER: Putting a bowl at the door for which you come and go from your home. Empty you change and one dollar bills into the bowl each evening as your return from the world with the intention to donate it to SVDP. Allow the bowl to be a reminder that what we empty from our well deserving wealth into the bowl of the poor we are tipping the scales for which we desire to be measured... “fools gold” to heavenly treasures.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA -Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sharing the Gifts – 2022 Diocesan Lenten Appeal

Lent is a time of year when we realize that everything we have is a gift from God. It is in sharing these gifts we become a gift to others. The 2022 Diocesan Lenten Appeal is offering parishioners throughout the Diocese of Greensburg an opportunity to share some of those gifts with their faith community.

By now you should have received your packet. If you did not, there are extra pledge cards in the back of the church. So far Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton is off to a good start as we have received $12,000.

Please take a few minutes to prayerfully consider a pledge/donation. Even a small donation can make a big difference. You can either drop off your pledge card at church or mail it to the office. Also, donations can be made online at www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/SharingOurGifts. Thank you for your support and prayers.

Thank you!

Dear Father John and Parishioners of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton,

The St. Vincent de Paul Greensburg Store's management and volunteers are so very grateful to the parishioners of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, their families and friends, for their ongoing contributions to our mission of serving those in need in our Greensburg Diocese. Your donations of new, clean and gently worn clothing, household items including bedding and furniture help so very much. Additionally, we want to express our appreciation to your "Sort Team" who carefully goes through all donations, re-bagging, boxing and labeling them according to item type. This is a huge help to our volunteers who worked diligently to get the items hung, priced and displayed for our clientele.

Our store is always looking for new volunteers, men and women, who might give a few hours a week to helping in our endeavor. We are presently working on a modified schedule, open on: Mondays and Wednesdays from 10-3, Saturdays from 10-1. Your willingness to join us as a volunteer would certainly be blessing to both of us. Come in for a visit and check us out! You will be amazed at what you see. You may just be inspired to extend a hand.

Blessings,

Spring for Senior bags

A special thank you to all who donated items for our "Spring for Senior" bags. Our crew assembled the 50 bags which will be distributed to our Seniors who are homebound or just need a little springtime smile! Special thanks to our Faith Formation students who drew greeting cards and to Wren Peters, who used her artistic talent to create special origami which was included with the bags. Our crew of Barb Jackson, Debbie Swartzbeck, Jean Bolga, Gail Henderson, Judy Gazda, Donna Bayless, and Jim Bolga helped to assemble the bags and get them ready to be distributed. Thank you to all—and Happy Spring!!!!
