NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

Easter Fifty Days of Awe and Wonder!!!

Thoughts while driving home

As I drove to my family home to celebrate Easter, I reflected, in silence, how blessed I was to have experienced Lent, the Holy Triduum and Easter Sunday with my parish families. I thought how wonderful it was to see so many participate in the conference "The Second Mile" both in person and via our "You Tube channel". Many others took time to participate in the discussion groups at both parishes concerning the seven deadly sins and seven lively virtues. Others faithfully attending daily Mass and the Devotion of the Stations of the Cross. Without the fear of the pandemic hanging over our heads all of the Holy week devotions were well attended again!... I smiled to myself thinking that if we are in pursuit of "the best version of ourselves," we have found the "start here" sign during Lent. I hope that continuing through the Easter Season, we will walk the road with the Risen Christ, leading us to understand that He is the Way, the Truth and Life itself. Easter is so powerful and so overwhelming that it cannot be grasped in one Liturgy! So I thought again... Can we keep it alive in our hearts through the whole season of Easter? Can we look at familiar things that we celebrate as a community and see how it is truly all about the Resurrection? I hoped that we could and I thought that I would share a few thoughts to probe us onward...

The Easter Challenge

Lent is over now and with Easter joy it is hard not to immediately cease our particular Lenten discipline: attending an extra Mass each week, the special hour of prayer or spiritual reading we promised to try to do, being more patient, eating less and giving more of ourselves to others with greater awareness of Christ suffering on the Cross. That is Lent... but what about Easter? What should we do out of Easter Joy?

In readings we hear during the Easter season, it is clear that for the infant Church, Easter was a beginning. Of course, all beginnings are also endings. For the disciples it was the end of a magical time. They didn't all know it but they had been walking, eating and talking with...God! Yet, as magical as that must have been, they hadn't yet consumed God. They hadn't begun the process of taken God in and becoming divine themselves. They didn't yet have "resurrection eyes"... that ability to see things as they really are...to see as God sees...that was later.

On Easter, the disciples stood at the empty tomb and were darned confused. Slowly out of that confusion, fear and sadness grew a little ragtag band of folks from a little ragtag part of the world who just happened to change the course of history. Easter marked the beginning of the Christian community. Easter Joy gave even a greater appreciation in discipline as well as acts of love and charity. Imagine the promise of eternal joy that cannot be interfered by the worries of pain, money, loneliness or SIN!!! Wow!!!! The Christian community is the 'forum' to this new way of selfless living.

The Self-help book that has worked for over 2,000 years!!!

The scriptures, of the New Testament, have been provided to us by the Faith and Tradition of the early Christian Community. All other such "self-help" books are cheap "knock-offs" of this original source and they have lost the effectiveness that Christ gives to the original. Read more carefully the Readings for the upcoming Sunday Liturgies and the ones provided in the "little white book" and see how this forum will reinforce your pursuit for happiness!!!

A Proper Easter Diet that leads to a slimmer You!

The Easter Diet is more than just eggs, chocolate, kielbasa and ham... it is a steady diet of the Sacraments of Eucharist and reconciliation as well! Remember, our Easter Duty is to participate in both these sacraments before Pentecost. I suggest participating in the Eucharist as often as you can... at least twice a week and Reconciliation monthly. This regiment will slim you down around the sin list and firm up your intentions to spread the Good News! Clogged arteries may stop the heart but a clean soul and a giving heart pushes you to the Eternal.

Easter Exercise Regimen that guarantees a loving community of Faith!

Exercising the "Hope", of sharing in the "Eternal Kingdom", will lead to more trust and less suspicion; more companionship and less loneliness; more appreciation for each other and less taking for granted; more forgiveness and less accusation; more true communication and less posturing; more truth-telling and less strategizing; more love and less apathy; more long, leisurely hours with those we love and less hurried hugs thrown at each other as we run out the door.

Remember!

Three things are needed in the pursuit of Happiness and well purposed life...

Being Loved... Jesus provides this with His death and Resurrection

Something to Believe in... The Truth, the Way and the "Eternal Life"

Hope... It only will get better each day and will last forever when we perform the above regiment within our Christian community...

Forever... is a long time...and I want to share it with you!!!

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Easter Sunday, April 17, 2022

SUNDAY'S READINGS —

First Reading:

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or—Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.
For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Col 3:2-3)

Gospel:

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)

Saint Peregrine & Saint John Neumann

St. Peregrine:

April 16-29

Intention for John (KK)

Contact the parish office to schedule a Memorial gift or the Votive candles for St. Peregrine or St. John Neumann. The requested donation is $20 for 7-day memorial gifts, and $25 for St. Peregrine & St. John Neumann 14 day votives.

Little White Easter Books — Thank you once again to our anonymous donors for the Easter meditation books. They will be available after all masses. During the next 50 days of Easter, continue with the 6 minutes a day with the Lord as you start your day. We are physically happier and healthier when we pray. Take one home for a neighbor or friend who can't be here.

SVDP Clothing Collection: the next collection weekends will be April 23/24 and May 7/8. For more info, contact Julie McNamara at 412-310-1505.

Dementia Support Group --- This group is for anyone dealing with a loved one who has dementia. It is an informal, faith-based gathering of caregivers who pray together, share mutual challenges, and learn new ways to cope and know that you are not alone! Dementia Friendly Faith Community Support Group meets on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish Center. The next meeting date is Tuesday, May 3rd. For more information, contact Gail Henderson at 412-848-2076 or email her at gailhend@comcast.net or contact the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish office at 724-864-6364.

Ministry to the Homebound— We are in need of volunteers who are willing to take communion to the homebound. You do not have to be a Eucharistic Minister - training is provided and clearances are required. Our homebound parishioners truly appreciate staying in touch with their parish family and being able to receive our Lord in Holy Communion. If you are interested, contact Julie at the Parish Office.

NATR 2022 — A special thank you to all who attended, volunteered, donated or contributed in any way to our 2022 Night at the Races on April 2nd. The evening was a huge success and great fun was had by all. The preliminary profit figures show that the parish made over $10,500 on the event. Thanks to Julie McNamara and her committee for a job well done. Hope to see you all next year!!!!

Keeping Easter joy alive throughout the year

Easter Sunday celebrates Jesus' victory over death, sin, and Satan. In fact, it is the most important event in human history. This joy Easter inspires can't be contained to just one day; the Church gives us a whole season to celebrate. Try these ideas to prolong the joy of Easter:

Keep a Lenten practice that helped you grow closer to God – a small sacrifice to honor His sacrifice. For example, attend an extra Mass during the week, or perform an act of charity to share God's love.

Decorate the house. Celebrate the victory Christ won for you. Display an image of the Risen Christ in your home. Decorate crosses and statues with white sashes. Put out bouquets of flowers (real or silk) for the garden in which Jesus rose (John 19:41).

Proclaim the Good News. Mary Magdalene was the first to share the news of the Resurrection (John 20:17). Share it, too, by wearing a cross or crucifix, saying grace in public, talking about His grace, imitating His forgiveness.

Q&A:

Why do Catholics display crucifixes?

Catholics display the Crucifix because it reminds us of Jesus' sacrifice, His victory, and His love for us.

His sacrifice. Jesus willingly sacrificed Himself for us on the Cross. At every Mass, the moment of Jesus' sacrifice is made mysteriously present again in the sacrifice of the Eucharist in an unbloody manner. The Crucifix indicates that the sacrifice of the Cross and the Mass are one sacrifice (CCC #1545).

His victory. The Crucifix looks like defeat, but in fact, it's a sign of victory. Jesus' sacrifice reconciled us with God, reopened Heaven to us, and broke the grip of death. Jesus took on death, sin, and evil, and rose again triumph.

His love. "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). The Crucifix reveals how precious we are to God. Jesus taught us that true love seeks the good of the other. Jesus put our good first. He endured the crucifixion so we be with Him forever in Heaven.

From Scripture:

John 20:19-31, "Jesus, I trust in You"

The two Resurrection appearances of Jesus to His disciples in this passage highlight God's merciful love. The first appearance was on Easter Sunday. Jesus could have abandoned His Apostles, just as they had abandoned Him in the Garden of Gethsemane, but He didn't. Instead, Jesus appeared to them and gave them His peace, His Spirit, and the power to forgive sins in His name.

The second visit was for "Doubting" Thomas, who wasn't present for the first appearance. Thomas couldn't believe that Jesus was really risen, despite the accounts of eyewitnesses. He demanded physical proof. Jesus appeared in the Upper Room and invited Thomas to investigate. St. Thomas, moved to faith, cried out, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28).

This passage reminds us we can always bring our doubts, fears, and need for forgiveness to God, especially on the Sunday after Easter — Divine Mercy Sunday. To the disciples who abandoned Him, Jesus extended His peace and forgiveness. For St. Thomas who had been struggling with doubt, Jesus came in person to strengthen his faith. "Jesus, I trust in You!"

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA -Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Baptism

*With the joy of Baptism, we welcome
into the family of God,
Olivia Lorena Gutierrez, daughter of Juan & Ariana, who was baptized on April 3rd. We offer our love and best wishes to Olivia and her family.*

THANK YOU!!! With Easter upon us, we are most grateful to all who have made this Lent and Holy Week a time of grace.

~To ALL of our Liturgical Ministers and decorators,
~To our organist Rita and her cantors,
~To those who attended extra services & daily Mass,
~To the office staff and those who contributed to the welfare of the parish
~To those who called and checked on our shuts in and those not able to attend Mass,
~To Father John, Father Roniel, & Deacon Jeff
~And to the Lord for His deep love!

God Bless you all!!!

One-Minute Meditations:

Healthy worship

Recent medical studies revealed that people who attend church at least weekly have longer life expectancies and fewer complications from illnesses or surgeries than non-churchgoers. Going to church may not protect us from health crises, but it does help us cope with them.

Empty and fill

There are times in our lives when we have to empty our minds of negativity so God can replace it with peace and joy. Each day, take time to rid yourself of anger, fear, self-pity, jealousy, and bitterness. Then look for God's gifts of peace, wisdom, friendship, forgiveness, and love.

Speak the truth

Do you have the courage to speak out against injustice or sin? Yes, when you do, you may be called "intolerant" for sharing Gospel truths, but tolerance doesn't render truth untrue. In fact, saying nothing can be worse. Christ is clear: "When your brother sins, rebuke him and when he repents, forgive him" (Luke 17:3).

Bishop to Celebrate Divine Mercy April 24 at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Greensburg

Bishop Larry J. Kulick welcomes all of the faithful, along with the clergy of the Diocese, to join him for a liturgical celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday, April 24, at 1:30 p.m. in St. Joseph Chapel at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Greensburg.

Weather permitting, the Eucharistic procession will be outdoors. Divine Mercy celebrates the love that Christ has for all of us, despite our sins that separate us from Him. Always celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter, the liturgy commemorates the Divine Mercy of Christ, as revealed to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun.
