Pastor Notes

WHAT DID PETER AND CHRIST TEACH US ABOUT PAST SINS?

One of the hardest things for us to overcome is the residual stain of past sins. No matter how long ago or how uncharacteristic it may have been there is that one sin we remember forever. It could have been something we did as a teenager under peer pressure or as a young adult in midst of greater fears or in a moment of weakness that we chose ourselves over the love of God. Sure, we have confessed that sin, in fact we probably have mourned the day we participated in it and wish that the hands of time could be turned back to erase it from our existence. These are typical feelings that follow sin which we may call “guilt”. Guilt however is good, for it moves us to contrition and contrition to confessing and confessing to forgiveness. All is good and right in Jesus’ Mercy when we confess, however, the consequences can still remain and the ever temptation of Satan to wallow in it can paralyze our trust and of God. Perhaps making us feel unworthy to be His disciple.

This is the case in which we find St. Peter after denying Jesus three times and knowing that He was chosen to be the leader of the Church. No sin could have been more devastating and no sin could have left a greater resolve to love the one who forgives all our sins and calls us yet to come closer. So, let us look at the story and how Christ teaches to move faithfully from past sins into a life of service and Grace!

We all know that Peter was the first pope. What we often forget is that Peter was also a sinner. I can think of at least five times in the Gospels where Peter messed up; but the time that he denied Jesus was the absolute worst.

St. Matthew tells us that it was a maid who first approached Peter in the courtyard. The maid recognized Peter as a friend of Jesus, but Peter denied knowing Him. Then, another girl—not a woman, but a girl—saw Peter and said, “This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.” Again, Peter denied it. The third time St. Matthew tells us that it was some bystanders who recognized Peter as a friend of Jesus by his speech. And once more, Peter denied knowing Jesus.

That’s about as bad as it gets. Just when your best friend needs you most, you deny even knowing him. It’s not as if those questioning him were all that intimidating - a maid, a girl, and a group of bystanders - people who wouldn’t seem to be much of a threat to a future pope. Peter knew it. St. Matthew tells us that upon the cock’s crow, “Peter went out and began to weep bitterly” (Matt. 26:75). Earlier that night, Peter promised Jesus that his faith would never be shaken, yet there it was, a crumbled mess and there he was, the one who Jesus had handpicked to be the fearless leader of the Apostles, off in the corner weeping.

Of course, we know that there is more to the story. After Jesus suffers, dies, and rises from the dead, He has another encounter with Peter. This time, it’s on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, where St. John tells us that Jesus invites the disciples to breakfast. It’s also the place where Jesus asks Peter if he loves Him—three times. Three times Peter responds that he loves Jesus, and in doing so, Peter experiences Jesus’ love, forgiveness, healing, and mercy. Jesus makes all things new, and in that moment, he makes Peter new too.

Yet a question remains. How in the world can Peter ever forget that moment in the courtyard when he committed the terrible sin of denying that he even knew Jesus? Surely if we know about his terrible and cowardly act two thousand years later, people also knew well about it back then. I'm sure that some even reminded him of it from time to time, saying, "Come on man, you're the coward who denied even knowing Jesus, and now you're telling me that I should believe in him? Please." How in the world did Peter ever forget his terrible sin and move forward?

Here's the truth: Peter never forgot the fact that he denied Jesus. That cowardly act was something that he could never take back. What's done is done. Peter couldn't go back in time and make things right again. So, what happened? How did Peter do it? How did the worst coward turn into one of the most courageous men in Christianity, eventually requesting to be crucified upside down because he thought himself unworthy to die in the same manner as his Lord Jesus?

What happened to Peter, was that although he knew he was a great sinner, he also knew that Jesus loved him completely, as he was... a sinner. To paraphrase St. John Vianney, Peter knew that his sins were but a grain of sand in the ocean of God's great mercy. It was the merciful love of Jesus that re-created Peter and made him new. Peter couldn't do anything about his sins other than confess them. Jesus could; and He did. Peter denied Jesus three times, so in His love, Jesus offered Peter an opportunity to tell Jesus that he loved him—three times and with that, Peter was forgiven and made new. From that point on, whenever Peter thought back about the time he denied Jesus, he didn't think about it as sin committed, but sin confessed and forgiven.

One of the greatest lessons that Peter teaches us is how to deal with past sin, especially if it's something big, nasty, and outright embarrassing. The devil's great trick is to make us think that God couldn't possibly forgive certain sins, because they're just too severe. Even if we've confessed certain sins, and in our heads we know that God is merciful and has forgiven us, sometimes just thinking back to those embarrassing moments makes us doubt the power of God's mercy and the fact that he can really make all things new. But Peter's story reminds us that those kinds of thoughts are from the Evil One. God is not a liar and He truly does make all things new for those who accept His merciful love.

When Peter looked back and thought about that time he denied Jesus, or the time he couldn't walk on water, or the time Jesus told him, "Get behind me Satan," he looked back on those sins not as sins committed, but as sins confessed and forgiven. When we sin, we need to admit it and ask for the Lord's forgiveness. As Pope Francis likes to say, "The Lord never tires of forgiving." But once our sins are forgiven, we have to remember them precisely as that—as sins forgiven.

One reason that Peter was so credible and remains so credible to this very day is that we can all somehow relate to his story. He screwed up, and he screwed up bad. There was nothing he could do to fix himself except throw himself at the mercy of Jesus, which is exactly what he did. Jesus forgave his sin, and from that point on, Peter looked back at those dark moments as bright ones, not because of anything that he did, but because of what the Lord did for him. Peter experienced a healing of memory. He no longer remembered his sins as sins committed, but as sins confessed and forgiven. It made all the difference in the world. And it still does.

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead

This new initiative is funded by the same anonymous donor who funded the TOP Student program in the Diocese of Greensburg. To date, the TOP Student program has provided tuition assistance to 800 families in Catholic schools across the four counties of the Diocese and has helped to increase enrollment in Diocesan Catholic schools by 20% in just two years; that is one of the largest Catholic school enrollment increases in North America.
