Pastor Notes

Your Friend? Or Somebody You know?

When I was in college at IUP my true friends and I shared lunch and dinner together every day. It is strange to think back to how we accomplished this task without cell phones and texting. Lunch was at noon and dinner (4:30pm) followed the end of an episode of “MASH” that we watched together in Scott and Danny’s room. We were a true “band of brothers” sharing the same plight of college challenges and small dorm rooms. Living in close quarters on the first floor of Lawrence Hall forced us to reveal our true selves and vulnerabilities as we learned to trust each other and become friends.

Friends vs. Acquaintances

If, while at meals, someone unknown to the group would stop to say hello to me (or to another for that matter) and continue on their way the question was always: “Is that your friend or someone you know?” The deeper meaning behind such a saying was have you invested time into that relationship? Do you even know their last name, where they are from? Or are they just someone in your class, study group or (if a girl) a hopeful relationship.

Friends are more than people you know... they share time and common experiences that mold and form you into the person that you are becoming and realize that you desire to be. Sure, some acquaintances may become friends over time and some friends fade away as interest and time dictates.

Friends in the Social Media Generation

I watch my students and their fascination with popularity based on Social Media post and followers of their account.

I worry that they will believe that virtual is real and go onto the important part of their lives wondering: Is this person my Friend or just somebody I know?

Sara Teaches Me Again!

Of course, you all know Sara, the little angel in the Christmas Story that I shared during advent, and how she taught me some 10 years ago the simplicity of the Nativity story. She helped me to remember that the Angel required a “yes” from the participants Mary, Joseph, the Shepherds and the Magi in the story that gave them a chance to befriend the Savior and to receive the greatest love a friend could ever give to a willing participant.

This time Sara has taught me, or at least reminded me, of the difference between a “Friend” and someone you might just “know.” In a short essay written for class she writes about the plight of making authentic friends in the age of social media. Her insight is fascinating and has led me to realize that times have changed but the problems/challenges remain the same.

Sara’s Essay:

The simplicity and effortless ability of categorizing an acquaintance under the status of “Friend” on social media platform has undermined the sincerity of who we claim to be our Friends. Social media’s “one click step to becoming friends,” has replaced the awkward “getting to know someone stage,” or the awful first impression questions like “So what do you like to do?” or “What brings you here?” that are followed by short uneasy chuckles from both parties until eventually you both feel comfortable and conversation flows effortlessly. The “in person” and genuine experience of becoming someone’s friend has been wrapped up, silenced, and shoved under the box labeled “friend” on your social media page. Clicking “friend” or “Follow” of someone’s account may seem like you have gained a new life long companion, but in reality, there is no authentic relationship established-just a shared status. And as the shared status of our friends pile up into a number plastered on our account page, the more ingénue and insignificant the “Friendships” become. The ability to remain connected with life long friends through social media is a nice thought to harbor, but is someone really your life-long friend if all they do is sit in a long list amongst the rest of your life-long friends?” Your real friends will not be found by clicking a button on a screen. Your real friends will be found in life, where awkward silence, shared experiences, and contagious laughter will bring you together more than a status change ever will, and you’ll be sure to remember those memories for a lifetime-much longer than a social media status will last.

Jesus: “Friend” or Somebody you “know?”

Do we treat Jesus like a true friend or is he more like the virtual friends we have in this social media era? This was my first thought while Sara was reading her essay to me. I thought how easy it is to “claim” Jesus as a friend to boost our own social “status” or comfort level with a relationship that really calls for time and commitment. To “know” about someone does not make them a friend but an acquaintance.

Jesus says: ‘If you are to be my friend you must lay down your life, pick up your cross and follow me’. Now that’s a true face to face reality! If you talk about awkward conversations that takes the cake!

The depth of friendship Jesus wants us to have with Him demands a desire to “know” Him; understand Him and love Him. The easiness of the relationship can be found in that He became like us (our human nature) so that we could become like Him! The advantage of beginning a friendship with Jesus is that He already knows us! He already loves us! So, the awkward conversations will become comfortable when we simply rest in that fact and just tell Him everything that is on our hearts! Jesus doesn’t want to be a friend on some social media page but an active part of your day to day life!

To Know Him – Knowing someone leads to desiring to share in their life. Reading the Sacred Scriptures (Bible) helps us to come to know who He is as the son of God. To know what His mission is as the healer, forgiver, sanctifier and redeemer. These things show us immediately that He is fully invested in us and a friendship with us! Knowing Him leads to understanding Him.

To understand Him – Jesus came for us! A true friend always has the other’s best interest at heart! Jesus shows us how to love; how to deal with our fears and vulnerabilities by showing us the bigger picture of His mission of perfection and eternal life! He wants us to know what it is to be loved unconditionally. To turn awkward conversations into that contagious laughter! He wants you to understand that you are so precious that no weakness, sin or fault will chase Him away! This kind of self-giving companionship will lead you to love Him!

To love Him – This relationship of love is nurtured through prayer. Prayer is an intimate conversation with your beloved where you find total abandonment of self-desire and embrace what ever is His plan for you to reach perfection and eternal life. These conversations with Jesus are where one comes to say with great confidence: Jesus is my friend... not just someone I “know” He is my life and love!

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Faithful Challenges

Challenge Yourself to Be an Intentional Disciple!

Commit to offering up a small part of yourself each week to bring your heart closer to Christ.

January Challenges focus on ways to become a pro-life example in our community:

- Reach out to someone who is sick or homebound. Send a card, call or text them. It's an opportunity for you to show them the mercy and compassion of Christ by letting them know that they are not forgotten.
- Say a prayer for the most vulnerable in our community. Ask the Lord to provide them with his abundance as they face their daily struggles.
- Say a prayer for a world where every life is celebrated, valued and protected.
- Reach out to our parish office and learn how you can use your gifts to serve as a minister to the homebound, or donate to a parish ministry that serves a need in your faith community.

January Prayer

God of all life,
Help us to appreciate the great gift that is human life formed in your image, a reflection of your holiness.
Help us to recognize you in all whom you have created: children not yet born, families affected by poverty and war, people of different abilities, people from other lands, and all who are victims of hatred and racism.
Help us to bear witness to the dignity of all whom you have created, regardless of stage of life, or wealth, or ability, or color, or creed, for every person is fully equal in your loving eyes.
Share with us your holy knowledge that we are all your children, each bestowed with inherent dignity.
May your justice reign forever!
Amen.

—USCCB

Eucharistic Revival is a three-year process initiated by the USCCB to invite the faithful to reflect upon the mystery and meaning of the sacrament of the Eucharist in our lives. While much of year one involves providing devotional and formational opportunities for parish and Diocesan staff, you, too, can be a part of Eucharistic Revival right now! Visit the Diocese of Greensburg Facebook page every Thursday to participate in a Faithful Challenge, and hopefully you will feel yourself growing in a relationship with Christ. Visit the Eucharistic Revival resource page at DioceseofGreensburg.org/EucharisticRevival for videos, prayers and gathering dates. Consider Bishop Kulick's invitation to become an intentional disciple this year!

In honor of the 250th anniversary of the song “Amazing Grace”, this Bible study for Lent looks at how God’s amazing grace touched the lives of those who encountered Christ or pointed to his suffering, death, and resurrection. Study and discussion questions, prayers and reflections help to remind us that our lives, too, have been touched by grace so amazing that God sent his Son to save us.
