QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Peter speaks about himself and the other apostles as “witnesses” to Jesus’ public ministry as well as his death and resurrection from the dead. What are some ways you could give witness to the risen Jesus this week?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the Christians in Corinth to see themselves as a community defined by sincerity and truth rather than malice and wickedness. Does this describe your circle of friends?

Gospel:

The two women (Mary Magdalene and the other Mary) experience a range of emotions (from fear to being overjoyed) as they encounter first the angel and then the resurrected Jesus. How do you imagine you would react to encountering Jesus risen from the dead?

Pastor Notes

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

I want to express how blessed I was to have experienced Lent, the Holy Triduum and Easter Sunday with my parish families. How wonderful it was to see so many participate in the conference “Veronica’s Veil” both in person and via our “You Tube channel”. Many others took time to participate in the discussion groups for “No Greater Love” and the Lenten Bible Studies. Others faithfully attending daily Mass and the Devotion of the Stations of the Cross. I smile to myself thinking that if we are in pursuit of “the best version of ourselves,” we have found the “start here” sign during Lent. I hope that continuing through the Easter Season; we will walk the road with the Risen Christ, leading us to understand that He is the Way, the Truth and Life itself. Easter is so powerful and so overwhelming that it cannot be grasped in one Liturgy! So, again... Can we keep it alive in our hearts through the whole season of Easter? Can we look at familiar things that we celebrate as a community and see how it is truly all about the Resurrection? I hoped that we could and I thought that I would share a few thoughts to probe us onward...

The Easter Challenge

Lent is over now and with Easter joy it is hard not to immediately cease our particular Lenten discipline: attending an extra Mass each week, the special hour of prayer or spiritual reading we promised to try to do, being more patient, eating less and giving more of ourselves to others with greater awareness of Christ suffering on the Cross. That is Lent... but what about Easter? What should we do out of Easter Joy?

In readings we hear during the Easter season, it is clear that for the infant Church, Easter was a beginning. Of course, all beginnings are also endings. For the disciples it was the end of a magical time. They didn't all know it but they had been walking, eating and talking with...God! Yet, as magical as that must have been, they hadn't yet consumed God. They hadn't begun the process of taken God in and becoming divine themselves. They didn't yet have "resurrection eyes"... that ability to see things as they really are...to see as God sees...that was later.

On Easter, the disciples stood at the empty tomb and were darned confused. Slowly out of that confusion, fear and sadness grew a little ragtag band of folks from a little ragtag part of the world who just happened to change the course of history. Easter marked the beginning of the Christian community. Easter Joy gave even a greater appreciation in discipline as well as acts of love and charity. Imagine the promise of eternal joy that cannot be interfered by the worries of pain, money, loneliness or SIN!!! Wow!!!! The Christian community is the 'forum' to this new way of selfless living.

The Self-help book that has worked for over 2,000 years!!!

The scriptures, of the New Testament, have been provided to us by the Faith and Tradition of the early Christian Community. All other such "self-help" books are cheap "knock-offs" of this original source and they have lost the effectiveness that Christ gives to the original. Read more carefully the Readings for the upcoming Sunday Liturgies and the ones provided in the "little white book" and see how this forum will reinforce your pursuit for happiness!!!

A Proper Easter Diet that leads to a slimmer You!

The Easter Diet is more than just eggs, chocolate, kielbasa and ham... it is a steady diet of the Sacraments of Eucharist and reconciliation as well! Remember, our Easter Duty is to participate in both these sacraments before Pentecost. I suggest participating in the Eucharist as often as you can... at least twice a week and Reconciliation monthly. This regiment will slim you down around the sin list and firm up your intentions to spread the Good News! Clogged arteries may stop the heart but a clean soul and a giving heart pushes you to the Eternal.

Easter Exercise Regimen that guarantees a loving community of Faith!

Exercising the "Hope", of sharing in the "Eternal Kingdom", will lead to more trust and less suspicion; more companionship and less loneliness; more appreciation for each other and less taking for granted; more forgiveness and less accusation; more true communication and less posturing; more truth-telling and less strategizing; more love and less apathy; more long, leisurely hours with those we love and less hurried hugs thrown at each other as we run out the door.

Remember!

Three things are needed in the pursuit of Happiness and well purposed life...

Being Loved... Jesus provides this with His death and Resurrection

Something to Believe in... The Truth, the Way and the "Eternal Life"

Hope... It only will get better each day and will last forever when we perform the above regiment within our Christian community...

Forever... is a long time... and I want to share it with you!!!

REST IN PEACE

Home with the Lord - Please pray for all of our faithful departed. May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Easter Message from Father Roniel

“They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him (John 20:2).”

The very first impression by the very first person who saw the empty tomb was probably confusion, crushing pain, and unimaginable disbelief. In the gospel of John, the story was presented in a manner that Mary Magdalene must have been upset over the idea that people must have hated Jesus so much so that they had to take his body out of the tomb and put it somewhere instead of just being kept there to be pay respect at a later time when they were allowed. In her mind, it was absolutely an insult to injury.

However, the disciples never had the slightest idea what was coming. Never did it occur to any of them in their minds that Jesus would reveal to them what would become the source of joy and hope for all ages. Yes, the Lord would like to take them out of the crushing pain—His resurrection would shine to the darkest corners of our lives. And now for his disciples, when confusion had finally found answers, the empty tomb became a source of great consolation.

Here we will know the difference: For those who do not know Christ, the empty tomb would mean the absence of God, His nonexistence and total disability. But for those who are close to Him, the empty tomb was a message of hope—because when the tomb was found empty, the dead is no longer there! He is alive! And now they finally understood what Jesus meant when He said that on the third day He will rise. But, let us remember: there was an empty tomb because someone was raised from the dead! Not the other way around.

The resurrection event was unprecedented! It was NOVEL, a totally new reality. Jesus was making a once-and-for-all history! But this historical event is something that we all look forward to on the last day because we know that resurrection is a gift from God to be shared among those who faithfully follow and love Him to the end. It’s the most incredible of all gifts, because it answers the deepest longing of every human soul—to live in the presence of God, to be reunited with our loved ones, and to experience the fullness of peace and freedom.

Death, diseases, plague, darkness, slavery all things such as these, no matter how NOVEL you call them, like the NOVEL corona virus, are a thing of the past, already conquered by the power of light, healing, and life. Of course, Satan will always make new tactics. He can create an impression that may deceive us into believing that he is invincible. But we already know the ending! Know that since the event of resurrection, Satan has never done something new. Death has always been on the losing end in an endless fight.

The Holy Father Pope Francis in one of his Easter addresses beautifully tells us this message of hope:

The Church throughout the world echoes the angel’s message to the women. [And I was wondering why to the women? The woman was Mary, who was in deep sorrow and pain for losing a dear Son. The woman was also Mary Magdalene who was crushed for losing someone who truly loves, cares, and saves. They were also the women of Jerusalem who wept for losing someone who fought for their dignity and worth. The ‘women’ is humanity herself who is vulnerable to illness, old-age, and all forms of atrocities; ‘She’ is humanity preyed to sin and death.] And so, to the women, the angel proclaimed these words of consolation: “Do not be afraid! I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised... Come, see the place where he lay (Mt 28:5-6).”

This is the culmination of the Gospel, it is the Good News par excellence: Jesus, who was crucified, is risen! And this event is the basis of our faith and our hope. If Christ were not raised, Christianity would lose its very meaning; the whole mission of the Church would lose its impulse, for this is the point from which it first set out and continues to set out ever anew.

That is why we tell everyone: “Come and see!” In every human situation, marked by frailty, sin and death, the Good News is no mere matter of words, but a testimony to unconditional and faithful love: it is about leaving ourselves behind and encountering others, being close to those crushed by life’s troubles, sharing with the needy, standing at the side of the sick, elderly and the outcast... “Come and see!”: Love is more powerful, love gives life, love makes hope blossom in the wilderness.

The story of Jesus’s resurrection is the greatest inspirational and love story of all time. The best part is: this story has a happy ending. And it teaches us two things; good things never end and true love never dies.
