QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

Second Reading:

Peter acknowledges that you may suffer insults and ridicule for being a Christian. Has this ever happened to you?

Gospel:

Jesus tells his disciples that "eternal life" belongs to those who know the one true God and Jesus Christ. Is the idea of "eternal life" impacting how you live your life here on earth?

REST IN PEACE

Home with the Lord - Please pray for all of our faithful departed. May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Next Sunday, May 28 is Pentecost Sunday, the birthday of our church. Pentecost reminds us how Jesus' promise that God would send the Holy Spirit was fulfilled.

It is the official end of the Easter Season, and we celebrate the moment that Jesus' apostles received the Holy Spirit.

Remember to wear RED, which recalls the fiery tongues that descended upon the Apostles when they received the Holy Spirit.

Pastor Notes

Mother Seton Embraced the Gift of Mary, the Mother of God!

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton grew up longing for a mother's love. Her own mother died when she was just three-years-old. So, when Elizabeth entered the Catholic Church, God gave her his own mother, Mary. For the rest of her life, she clung to the Blessed Mother. And just as she urged her Sisters to sing Mary's praises, she urges us to do the same.

Not every woman is blessed to have a good mother here on earth to guide her. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton lost her own mother when she was just three years old. By the time she married, had five children of her own, and took on the care of her husband's six half brothers and sisters, she must have felt the lack of an earthly mother's guidance and example most acutely. She didn't have the luxury of daily phone calls to a loving woman who could talk her through the trials she faced. Especially when her husband eventually died, leaving her alone to manage her family's affairs, she must have felt more alone than ever.

Facing what seemed like impossibly difficult circumstances, some women might despair. St. Elizabeth Ann, however, turned to a heavenly mother in her time of need – Mary, the mother of God, and the mother of us all. Elizabeth turned to the Blessed Virgin Mary for guidance in her faith journey, especially when she was discerning her conversion from the Episcopal to the Catholic Church, but also for day-to-day support in the trials and sorrows of caring for others.

For some of us, a relationship with Mary comes naturally, but for others it can be challenging. Her perfection can make her seem somehow unapproachable, like a pristine statue that knows little about the real struggles of the real world we must live in. What can Mary, wife of a saint, mother of a single Divine Son, and conceived without original sin, know about the messiness we face in a world of sin and failure?

The answer is “lots.” Mary knows lots about messiness. She knows the ugly truth about the consequences of sin better than any of us because she witnessed it firsthand. Mary's example, her silent, suffering witness to the torture and death of her son Jesus during his crucifixion, is a perfect example of motherly compassion – a gift she offers to us all.

The root of the word “compassion” is the Latin “compati,” meaning “suffer with.” And this is what Mary does. Mary suffered with Jesus during his passion and death, and she suffers with us today. She suffers beside us and offers love and encouragement in every trial we might face. Whether we face serious woes, like the deadly illnesses and dire financial circumstances that St. Elizabeth Ann endured, or small frustrations like dirty dishes, piles of laundry, or a potty-training toddler who has given up naps, Mary is there with us.

And because she knows what is good for us, Mary never fails to meet us in our suffering and nudge us closer to God. I love to reflect on the Gospel story of the Wedding at Cana and Mary's simple words to the servants: “Do whatever He tells you” (John 2:5). This is Mary's nudging reminder to us all: Do whatever He tells you. Go wherever He calls you. And even if the way He calls you is difficult, I am right here beside you.

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton tells us: “We know certainly that our God calls us to a holy life. We know that he gives us every grace, every abundant grace; and though we are so weak of ourselves, this grace is able to carry us through every obstacle and difficulty.”

Mary is part of that abundant grace that God gives us. Mary was a gift of grace to the “barren” St. Anne and her husband St. Joachim, born after years of their longing for a child. Mary, steadfast and loving, was a gift of grace to Jesus in his suffering and death. Mary, truth-seeking, gentle, and compassionate, was a gift of grace to Elizabeth Ann Seton as she searched for the truth about her faith and sought consolation in all the messiness and struggles of her earthly life.

In the holy life to which He calls us, God might allow us to face trials, but He always gives us the grace we need to endure them. Especially on the feast of her birth, let us remember that Mary, the mother of God, is part of that gift – the abundant gift of grace we need today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton’s MEMORARE

*Remember, O most pious Virgin Mary,
That no one ever had recourse to you,
Implored your help or sought your mediation,
Without obtaining relief.
Confiding then on your goodness and mercy,
I cast myself at your sacred feet,
And do most humbly supplicate you,
O, Mother of the Eternal Word,
To adopt me as your child and take upon yourself
The care of my eternal salvation.
O, let it not be said, my dearest Mother,
That I have perished, where no one ever found but grace and Eternal Salvation. Love me, my Mother!*

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GLORIA -Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

JUNE 19-22ND, 2023

8:30 AM - 12:00 PM

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON CHURCH

This year we take a more "Catholic" spin to our VBS to explore various Marian apparitions from Lourdes, to Guadalupe, to Fatima, to Knock, to Carmel! Campers and volunteers will hop aboard the Marian Express to learn all about the Rosary, exploring the mysteries and wonders of our Catholic faith!

We need volunteers to help with games, snacks, crafts, Bible drama, and more!

Not sure if you want to help with VBS?
We have two volunteer interest meetings in our Parish Center:
Saturday, May 20th at 9 AM
Thursday, May 25th at 6:30 PM

Join us to hear all about what happens at VBS!

Grief Share Program -Monday Evenings 6:30 pm

The Grief Share program continues each Monday evening at 6:30 pm at Immaculate Conception in the Gathering Room in the church. Please note change of room location.

You are welcome to begin attending our GriefShare group at any point. Each session is "self-contained" so you do not have to attend in sequence. The program will run weekly up to middle of July. Please register by emailing Gerri Dornin at gdornin@comcast.net or by calling the IC parish office at 724-863-9550.

Baptism: With the Joy of Baptism, we welcome into the family of God, Alijah & Noah Gilliam, sons of Andrew Gilliam & Nicole Sich, who were baptized on Saturday, May 13. We offer our love and best wishes to the brothers, Alijah & Noah and their family.

Memorial Day Mass at the Cemetery Monday, May 29 8:00 am

Out of love for those who defended our country in the Armed Forces or here at home, we remember them in a special Mass at 8:00 am on Monday, May 30 at IC cemetery. Start your day with us in the midst of our faithfully departed.

Please Note: Please bring your own chairs. In case of rain, Mass will be celebrated in the church. There will NOT be a morning mass here at SEAS on Monday, May 29th.

Let us remember in our prayers the men and women who serve in the Armed Services, especially those from our parish.

Confirmation Class of 2023

May Faithful Challenge:
Serve the poor & spend time
in prayer to the Blessed Mother

Bishop Kulick's May Faithful Challenge is to serve the poor and spend time in prayer to the Blessed Mother. From the very beginning, the Gospels tell the story of Mary, a person who embraces both material and spiritual poverty. First, we can pray to the Blessed Mother for a National Eucharistic Revival!

Diocesan Prayer for Eucharistic Revival

Lord Jesus, You are the living bread who satisfies the hunger of the human heart. In the Eucharist, the bread and wine become Your Body and Blood, the gift of Yourself to the Church. Deepen our faith in Your Eucharistic presence and strengthen us as members of the Church, the Body of Christ.

As we encounter and revere Your Eucharistic presence, open us to the needs of our brothers and sisters here and everywhere throughout the world. Help us to reveal Your love, Your promise, Your presence to them by our lives, and in all we say and do.

Amen

+ Larry J. Kulick

The Most Reverend Larry J. Kulick, J.C.L.
 Bishop of the Diocese of Greensburg

Another way we can accept Bishop's Kulick's May Faithful Challenge is to serve the poor. Consider donating to Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Greensburg. Last year, Catholic Charities provided nearly $400,000 in material assistance to those in need. Visit CCharitiesGreensburg.org to learn more! Or, we could accept the challenge to become a volunteer with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, one of the largest charitable organizations in the world serving those in need. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international, nonprofit, Catholic lay organization of more than 850,000 men and women, in 150 countries worldwide.
