From the Desk of Our Associate Pastor

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The readings for the Feast of the Holy Family, Year C, focus on consecration, holiness, and sacred spaces. In the first reading, we hear about God's joy in us. In the second reading, we hear that love is the perfect bond. The Gospel tells the story of the Holy Family's trip to Jerusalem when Jesus lost and then found in the Temple, which He called His "Father's home."

In today's Gospel according to St. Matthew, we hear of one family who practiced patience, obedience, love, and faith in God. This is the Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, whose feast we celebrate today. The Holy Family is a model for us, and we cannot compare ourselves to them. Look at its members: Joseph, "the upright man," Mary, the Virgin Mother, and Jesus, the only Son of God. They had ideal relationships with God and with each other.

In the Holy Family there was no selfishness. All were of one heart and soul. Our families must reflect the spirit of the Holy Family. Children are God's gifts and, as such, we must love and bring them up well. The members of the family should grow in love and be in the favor of God and man, in imitation of the Holy Family.

May God bless you this day and every day! Amen

Desde el Escritorio de nuestro Pastor Asociado

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo Jesús,

Las lecturas de la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia, Año C, se centran en la consagración, la santidad y los espacios sagrados. En la primera lectura, escuchamos sobre el gozo de Dios en nosotros. En la segunda lectura, escuchamos que el amor es el vínculo perfecto. El Evangelio, la historia en la cual nos narra que la Sagrada Familia fue a Jerusalén y Jesús se perdió y luego encontró el Templo, al que llamó el "hogar de su Padre".

En el Evangelio de hoy según San Mateo, escuchamos de una familia que practicó la paciencia, la obediencia, el amor y la fe en Dios. Esta es la Familia de Jesús, María y José, cuya fiesta celebramos hoy. La Sagrada Familia es un modelo para nosotros y no podemos compararnos con ellos. Mire sus miembros: José, "el hombre recto", María, la Virgen Madre y Jesús, el único Hijo de Dios. Tenían una relación ideal con Dios y entre ellos mismos.

En la Sagrada Familia no había egoísmo. Todos eran un solo corazón y una sola alma. Nuestras familias deben reflejar el espíritu de la Sagrada Familia. Los niños son un regalo de Dios y, como tales, debemos amarlos y educarlos bien. Los miembros de la familia deben crecer en el amor y estar a favor de Dios y del hombre, a imitación de la Sagrada Familia.

¡Que Dios les bendiga hoy y todos los días! amén

Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Special Collection

Most Rev. Mark Brennan, Bishop of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, has approved a special collection to be held the weekend of January 1st and 2nd, 2022, in all parishes and missions throughout the diocese to support recovery efforts related to the recent natural disasters that have occurred in Kentucky, leaving severe damage and loss of life. Donations can also be made on the diocesan website at www.dwc.org/disasterrelief.

Proceeds from this collection will support the humanitarian and recovery efforts of Catholic Charities agencies on the ground, working in the communities affected by the tornadoes.

As we hold the victims and first responders in our prayers during these critical days, let us also spend time in prayer and discernment as we prepare for this upcoming collection. Let us come together now to support our brothers and sisters in Christ who are suffering this horrible loss.

Please remember in prayer all those who have lost their lives in the wake of these disasters, as well as all those who have been injured and lost their homes, cars, employment, and access to food and water, especially as we prepare for the Christmas Season.
