LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial: Psalm 22

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

(Alternate) Gospel Acclamation: Glory to you, O Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel: Luke 22:14—23:56

Please listen prayerfully to the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Profession of Faith—The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (At the words that follow, up to and including "the virgin Mary," all bow.)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

1. Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble; Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

2. Were you there when they nailed him to tremble, tremble, tremble! Were you there when they pierced him in the side?

4. Were you there when the sun refused to

Were you there when the sun refused to shine?

5. Were you there when they laid him in the tomb? Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble! Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

Our Prayer for Christ the King Parish

Heavenly Father,
our hearts are open to you
as we discover the mystery of your love at work in our lives.
Help us to rediscover each day
the power of that same love through the sacred gift of our Catholic faith.

Jesus our Lord,
in baptism we connect our lives with you
as disciples.
Help us to reconnect each day
and allow our faith life to be nourished by your Word and Sacrament through the prayer of our weekly attendance at Mass.

Holy Spirit,
breathe into us faith, hope and love
as we commit ourselves to a new and bold Pentecost.
Help us to recommit each day through our energy and resources to the life of our parish community.

Give us the grace
to rediscover,
to reconnect
and to recommit
to all that is good and holy.
You are God forever and ever.
Amen.

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This is the week that is . . . a week that is called holy . . . a week that is filled with sacred drama . . . a week of liturgies, services and Masses that point to mystery . . . a week of commemorating a Last Supper, a crucifixion, an empty grave.

Palm Sunday: The crowds wave their branches, sing hosanna, and proclaim: “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.” Just as quickly the crowds seem to evaporate and the mood turns ugly.

Tenebrae: A symbolic descent into the darkness of suffering and death. The ultimate crushing reality of crucifixion, told in the haunting shadows of a darkened church.

Holy Thursday: A last supper with friends that becomes so much more: “Do this in remembrance of me,” a lesson to learn about service, a prediction of denial and betrayal, a fearful night in the garden, the arrest.

Good Friday: The trial, the weight of the cross, the torment on a mother’s face, the horrified looks of those passing by, the harsh and bitter words shouted, the pounding of nails, the desolation that is expressed: “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

Holy Saturday: Quiet waiting, hopeful expectation

Easter and its glory: The tomb is empty, rejoicing finds expression, the message is clear: “Why do you seek the living One among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised.”

My dear sisters and brothers, I urge your presence and active participation in the services, liturgies and Masses throughout this Holy Week. Present yourself before our Crucified and Risen Lord. Suffer and die with him so as to rejoice in the new life he assures us.

Please God, bless this Holy Week journey for all the people of Christ the King Parish.

Father Dale DeNinno

The liturgies during Holy Week are unique and rich in symbolism.

The Mass for Palm Sunday follows the pattern of the day 2,000 years ago when Jesus entered Jerusalem. It includes a Gospel reading outside the church building and the entrance of the priest into the sanctuary while the congregation waves palms. It was during the fourth century in Jerusalem that Christians first starting using palm branches in commemoration of Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem. Today, we continue to use palms in most churches on this Sunday, Catholic and Protestant alike. It is one of those traditions of worship that, no matter how far apart we may seem at times, we continue to share due to our common heritage. Palm Sunday is also known as Passion Sunday, because we hear an account of the passion of Jesus Christ during the liturgy.

The Holy Thursday Mass also follows the rhythm of the ancient Last Supper. The presider washes the feet of members of the congregation, like Jesus washed the feet of the disciples. After Mass, all remaining hosts are taken to an altar of repose, where adoration of the Blessed Sacrament occurs late into the night. Parishioners can remain like the disciples in Gethsemane, asked to “watch and pray.”

On Good Friday, we celebrate another special liturgical service. Following the Liturgy of the Word, there is a communal reverencing of the cross. The intercessions are solemn and include prayers for many different groups of people, reminding us that Jesus' passion is for the whole world. There is no Liturgy of the Eucharist. Hosts consecrated on Holy Thursday are distributed, after which the tabernacle is empty.

The tabernacle remains empty through Holy Saturday — just as Jesus departed from this earthly world in death. Between death and life, the time holds its breath. For the first disciples, Holy Saturday was a day of silence, sorrow, and waiting. But redemption is already beginning! Jesus descends to the dead and frees righteous souls awaiting eternal life. On our own Holy Saturdays, we too wait in silence. But it is not the silence of disappointment and confusion. It is the silence of anticipation. Soon and very soon, dawn will alight on the horizon, and the stone will be rolled back. Until then, we wait in stillness. and we wait in hope for Easter Sunday!
