EASTER SUNDAY—WORSHIP AID

JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN TODAY

1. Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!
2. Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
Unto Christ, our heavenly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!
3. Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!
Praise him, all ye heavenly host, Alleluia!
Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Sequence (Optional)

1. Let Christians all their voices raise, and offer Easter hymns of praise,
as on the Paschal Lamb they gaze.
O praise the Lamb!

2. Christ, sinless Lamb from heav'n above, saved all creation, sin removed.
Restored us to the Father's love.
O praise the Lamb!

3. When death to life in fearsome strains gives way as Christ his life regains,
The Prince of Life immortal reigns.
O praise the Lamb!

4. What saw you, Mary, on the way?
"I saw the tomb where Jesus lay;
His glory brightens us this day."
O praise the Lamb!

5. "I saw the angels and did hear the witness they did volunteer;
The winding cloths were also near."
O praise the Lamb!

6. "Christ now appears before his own,
in Galilee where he is known.
Hopes are fulfilled; his wounds are shown."
O praise the Lamb!

7. We know that Christ now lives indeed; victorious King, we humbly plead
For mercy in our every need. O praise the Lamb!

Gospel: John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Renewal of Baptismal Promises takes the place of the Creed today.

RIVER OF GLORY

Dan Schutte

1. Fountain of mercy, grace flowing free, streams of salvation, spilling with love from a tree!
2. Here there is haven, healing and health, joy for the asking, love in abundance of wealth!
3. Bread for our journey, God will provide. Hope for all ages, Jesus, companion and guide!
4. Darkness is banished, night turned away. Christ is our sunlight, lifting and leading our way!

REFRAIN:

I have seen the Lord, I have heard his voice,
and I know he lives, and I know he lives.
Death, where is your sting? Fear, where is your grip?
Hearts now free to love; lives now free to give.

VERSES

1. Those who speak the truth may be bound in chains,
But there is no chaining the Word of God.
2. If we die with Christ, we shall rise with him;
If we share his passion, we shall reign with him.

I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE

1. I am the Bread of life.
You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Father beckons.
2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world,
and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.
3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.
4. I am the Resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die,
you shall live for ever.
5. Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, Who has come into the world.

JESUS IS RISEN

1. Jesus is risen! Let us sing! Praise to the ever-living King! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise him in song, ye Seraphim! Praise him with joy, ye Cherubim! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
2. On this most holy day of days, let us together sing his praise! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Raise joyful voices to the sky! Sing out, ye heavens, in reply: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
3. To God the Father let us sing, to God the Son, our risen King! Alleluia! Alleluia!
And equally, let us adore the Holy Spirit evermore! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Our Prayer for Christ the King Parish

Heavenly Father,
our hearts are open to you
as we discover the mystery of your love at work in our lives.
Help us to rediscover each day
the power of that same love through the sacred gift of our Catholic faith.

Jesus our Lord,
in baptism we connect our lives with you
as disciples.
Help us to reconnect each day
and allow our faith life to be nourished by your Word and Sacrament through the prayer
of our weekly attendance at Mass.

Holy Spirit,
breathe into us faith, hope and love
as we commit ourselves to a new and bold Pentecost.
Help us to recommit each day through our energy and resources to the life of our parish community.

Give us the grace
to rediscover,
to reconnect
and to recommit
to all that is good and holy.
You are God forever and ever.
Amen.

Saint Scholastica: For the new members joining the Church this Easter
(Kathleen McAndrews)

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Unrelenting horror. . . unimaginable injustice. Witness the violence, the destruction, the death. Families torn apart and separated. People crying out and asking why. It is all the story of Ukraine, but not Ukraine alone. It is every story in every time and place, as though the cross of Good Friday is without end.

Jesus knows. He suffered the torment, the violence of the human condition, and then bowed his head and died. His lifeless body was laid in a tomb where frightened, desolate friends went to grieve early in the morning on the first day of the week. Suddenly, fear turned to wonder when they found the tomb empty. The rock had been moved from the entrance and the women were told by two men in dazzling garments: “Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised.”

Seeing now with eyes of faith and allowing hope to fill their hearts, the women literally ran from the tomb to tell others. Everyone had to hear the good news. There is an end to the anguish. The ugliness of the cross is laid aside, the seeming finality of the grave is vanquished.

My brothers and sisters, this is our Good News. CHRIST HAS DIED. . .CHRIST IS RISEN. . .CHRIST WILL COME AGAIN. . . ALLELUIA! Without that faith proclamation and conviction, we risk living forever in the shadow of the cross, overwhelmed by the darkness, wondering if the light will ever shine again.

The people of Ukraine must live with the hope of resurrection. Families who are shattered by gun violence must live with the hope of resurrection. Individuals who carry the cross of addiction must live with the hope of resurrection. Persons who live each day with a chronic illness and those with a terminal disease must live with the hope of resurrection. All of us, each with our own story of the cross, must live with the hope of resurrection.

Light shines in the darkness because Jesus Christ is the LIGHT of the world. There is LIFE in abundance because Jesus Christ is risen from the dead. There is HOPE because our better selves long for something more, God’s glory.

My dear parishioners, I pray that in this season of Easter, you will be filled with light and life and hope that comes to us from Christ Jesus our Risen Lord.

Father Dale DeNinno

Pastor, Christ the King Parish

Divine Mercy

Saint Maria Faustina Kowalksa (1905-1938) was born in Central Poland, the daughter of a peasant family. She was a nun with the Congregation of Our Lady of Mercy to whom it was revealed that she was to spread devotion to the boundless mercy of God. Today she is known as “the apostle of mercy.”

Saint Faustina was canonized a saint by Pope Saint John Paul II in the Great Jubilee Year of 2000. He also promulgated that the first Sunday after Easter be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday with the devotion of the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Christ the King Parish will honor Divine Mercy Sunday on April 24th with the devotional prayers offered in Saint Edward Church at the 3:00 o’clock hour. All parishioners are welcome to attend and participate, praying that the Divine Mercy of God be showered upon our world.

NEWS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Beauty of Easter Flowers adorn the sacred space in each of the churches of Christ the King Parish. A special word of thanks is extended to the parishioners who made a donation for the purchase of the flowers. We also remember in prayer the intentions and names of their loved ones, both living and deceased, in whose memory the donations were made. May the Lord show the goodness of His love to all of them. May those who have died now shine in glory before the heavenly throne of God.

Supporting the Mission Trip to Appalachia: The “houses” located in the churches of Christ the King Parish have envelopes attached, each one marked with a specific dollar amount. In order to help support the June mission trip of our high school students, you are asked to take one of the envelopes, include your donation, and place the sealed envelope in the collection basket passed during Mass. Please make your donation no later than Sunday, May 1ST.

St. Joseph Preschool is seeking to hire a Preschool Director/Teacher to start in August, 2022. The position is approximately 20 hours per week, 10 months a year. Experience with 2 – 5 year olds is preferred, and a Bachelor’s Degree is required. For details please contact Nancy Whistler at 412-963-8885 ext. 107 or tweir@christthekingpgh.org.

If you ordered Soup to Support Education, sponsored by the Hope for Haiti Committee, pickup will be at Saint Scholastica on April 24 between 9:30-11:30 am.

HOAGIES and Gift Basket Raffle: The Knights of Columbus along with a local Scouts BSA troop are selling hoagies the weekend of April 24 and 25 after all Masses at Saint Joseph Church and after the 9:30am Mass at Saint Scholastica Church. Proceeds support Scouts BSA and the KOC charitable programs.

Christ the King Respect Life Committee will meet on Thursday, April 21, at 7:30 pm in Saint Scholastica Hall. All are invited. We welcome your ideas. If you cannot come but have a suggestion please call Cathy 412-784-9403 or Mary Catherine 412-781-6550.

NEWS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

FAITH FORMATION

This month, our Formation Families learned all about the Easter Triduum, the summit of our Liturgical Year. Through demonstrations, games, and crafts we discovered what makes the three days between Holy Thursday evening and Easter Sunday evening the single most important “day,” of our year! In May, we will return to our regular 5-session schedule as we conclude our year with a review of all of the Sacraments.

2022 Youth Conferences: Calling all high schoolers! Throughout the Bible, the Lord tells us over and over again, “Be not afraid,” and he continues to speak these words to us today. Join hundreds of Catholic teens at Steubenville Main Campus in Ohio on June 10-12 to experience the peace of Jesus Christ, who is always faithful and will never abandon us. All rising freshmen in high school through rising freshmen in college are invited to attend this retreat with our group. Learn more at: ChristtheKingpgh.org/youth-ministry or by contacting Meredith Troyan at mtroyan@ChristtheKingpgh.org or 412-963-8885 x 106.

Pre-School and Kindergarten OPEN HOUSE:

Tuesday, April 26, from 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm. We offer Pre-School programs for 3 and 4 year olds and all-day kindergarten for 5 year olds. Come and meet our teachers and discover the Catholic School difference!

Families made palm crosses and Paschal candles and learned about the meaning and significance of the Triduum liturgies.

EASTER JOY!

The Paschal Homily of St. John Chrysostom is read on Easter morning in the Eastern Orthodox Church and Eastern Catholic Churches. An excerpt follows:

If anyone is devout and a lover of God, let him enjoy this beautiful and radiant festival. If anyone is a wise servant, let him, rejoicing, enter into the joy of his Lord. If anyone has wearied himself in fasting, let him now receive his recompense.

If anyone has labored from the first hour, let him today receive his just reward. If anyone has come at the third hour, with thanksgiving let him keep the feast. If anyone has arrived at the sixth hour, let him have no misgivings; for he shall suffer no loss. If anyone has delayed until the ninth hour, let him draw near without hesitation. If anyone has arrived even at the eleventh hour, let him not fear on account of his delay. For the Master is gracious and receives the last, even as the first; he gives rest to him that comes at the eleventh hour, just as to him who has labored from the first. He has mercy upon the last and cares for the first; to the one he gives, and to the other he is gracious. He both honors the work and praises the intention.

Enter all of you, therefore, into the joy of our Lord, and, whether first or last, receive your reward. O rich and poor, one with another, dance for joy! O you ascetics and you negligent, celebrate the day! You that have fasted and you that have disregarded the fast, rejoice today! The table is rich-laden; feast royally, all of you! The calf is fatted; let no one go forth hungry!

Let all partake of the feast of faith. Let all receive the riches of goodness. Let no one lament his poverty, for the universal kingdom has been revealed. Let no one mourn his transgressions, for pardon has dawned from the grave. Let no one fear death, for the Savior's death has set us free.

SOCIAL OUTREACH

Members of our community who are in need of short-term assistance can contact the CTK Saint Vincent de Paul Society at svdp@ChristtheKingpgh.org or 412-254-4446.

The St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry serves local families in need every month. We are always in need of non-perishable food items. We are also in need of: paper towels, Kleenex, and single-serve packages of cookies and crackers. Please use the bins in the churches or drop off at the pantry on Tuesday morning from 8:30 – 11:00 am at Saint Mary Church, Almayer Way, Sharpsburg.

The Aspinwall Homeless Ministry is not currently accepting donations of clothing. However, they are very much in need of macaroni and cheese, individual foil packets of tuna or chicken; jello, pudding or fruit cups; and bags of salty snacks such as chips or pretzels. Please leave donations in plastic bags in the gray bins at the Saint Scholastica church entrance. They are also in need of wristwatches (used is fine as long as they are in working order). Donations of Giant Eagle gift cards are also gratefully accepted. These items can be brought to the Saint Scholastica church office.

Christ the King Parish provides a hot meal for the women's shelter at Bethlehem Haven on the first Sunday of each month and the men's shelter at Community House on the fourth Saturday of each month. For details on how you can participate in this ministry, go to ChristtheKingpgh.org/shelter-meals.

Creation Care Corner

Here's a good way to observe Earth Day! Dr. Cybelle Shattuck will speak on "Caring for Our Common Home: Inspiration & Lessons from 'Green' Congregations," on Thursday, April 21, at 7pm via Zoom. Dr. Shattuck will describe the experiences of faith communities where people have adopted earth care as part of their religious practice. These congregations undertake diverse actions such as conserving resources, installing solar panels, planting gardens, and advocating for climate justice. Dr. Shattuck is an Associate Professor at Western Michigan University. Her research focuses on the intersection of religion and environmental sustainability. Sponsored by the Association of Pittsburgh Priests. Register for this free event at www.associationofpittsburghpriests.com.

Easter Table Prayer

Creator God and Lord of Life,
You who call forth from the darkness of death
all those who love You,
we rejoice, on this Easter Sunday,
in the resurrection from the dead
of our Lord, Jesus Christ.
Visit our home and this table
with Your bright blessing of peace and life.
We pause in the midst of this prayer to remember all the holy dead of our family who live now in You and who await the final and glorious resurrection of the dead.

May they and we,
because of our faith in You, our God,
taste in the victory of life over death.
May the Risen Christ, our Lord and Savior, be our guest as we celebrate His resurrection with this Easter Sunday dinner.
Bless those whose work to prepare this meal has truly been a work of prayer, and bless all of us who shall share it with Easter love and joy.

May You, then, bless this table and this food,
and each of us
in Your holy name. Amen.

SACRAMENTS and MORE

BAPTISMS: Celebrated during any of the weekend liturgies or after the last Sunday liturgy (11:00am at Saint Joseph, 11:30am at Saint Mary, 12:00pm at Saint Scholastica). First-time parents must complete a baptism preparation class. Contact the parish office for details.

WEDDINGS: Celebrated at 2:00pm on Saturdays. Contact the parish office to set up a meeting with a priest at least six months before the desired date.

FUNERALS: Offered at 10:00am, Monday through Saturday. The funeral home will contact the parish office.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK: Available to those who are chronically ill. Please contact the parish office to request an appointment.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: See the bulletin schedule for times and locations.

MASS INTENTIONS: Offered at each Mass for deceased loved ones or for other special intentions. Please call the parish office to schedule or visit our website at ChristtheKingpgh.org/forms-and-downloads.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION: Offered for grades K-8 on Sunday afternoons and Wednesday evenings at Saint Joseph Church, September through April. Contact the Faith Formation Office at 412-963-8885 for details or to register.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES: All parishioners are encouraged to contribute their time and talents to the church. We have opportunities to serve at Mass as lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion, ushers, music ministers and altar servers. Please contact the parish office for information on all our volunteer opportunities. All staff and volunteers in the Diocese of Pittsburgh are required to obtain clearances and training to comply with the Safe Environment Policy. See diopitt.org/compliance or contact the parish office for details.

MEMBERSHIP: To register at Christ the King Parish, update your contact information, or let us know if you or a family member is homebound or has moved to a nursing home, please use the form below, contact the parish office, or visit our website at: ChristtheKingpgh.org/join-our-parish.
