3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, “We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man’s blood upon us.” But Peter and the apostles said in reply, “We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.”

The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial: Psalm 30: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Alternative Psalm 30: I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me, I will praise you Lord for your mercy;
 I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me: I will praise you, Lord.

Second Reading: Revelation 5:11-14

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: “Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing.”

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: “To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever.” The four living creatures answered, “Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 21:1-19

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "the virgin Mary," all bow.)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Prayer for Christ the King Parish

Heavenly Father,
our hearts are open to you
as we discover the mystery of your love
at work in our lives.
Help us to rediscover each day
the power of that same love through the sacred gift of our Catholic faith.

Jesus our Lord,
in baptism we connect our lives with you
as disciples.
Help us to reconnect each day
and allow our faith life
to be nourished by your Word and Sacrament through the prayer
of our weekly attendance at Mass.

Holy Spirit,
breathe into us faith, hope and love
as we commit ourselves to a new and bold Pentecost.
Help us to recommit each day
through our energy and resources to the life of our parish community.

Give us the grace
to rediscover,
to reconnect
and to recommit
to all that is good and holy.
You are God forever and ever.
Amen.

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The reputation that quickly grew around Jesus and led to crowds of people gathering in the places where He visited was initially based on the persuasiveness of His word and the challenge of His message. A masterful storyteller, He spoke in ways that inspired His listeners. And unlike other teachers, He spoke with authority and power.

The evangelist John puts it succinctly: “the Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us” (John 1: 14). Thus, the Word of the Lord is eternal. It is timeless. It is meant for every age and to be heard by every ear. The Word has something to say to everyone who dares to listen.

The followers of Jesus listen to Him and their lives are changed. Hear, again, the words of Thomas when standing before the risen Lord Jesus: “My Lord and my God” (John 20: 28). Seeing and hearing Jesus brought Thomas to a deeper FAITH. What was the answer of Simon Peter to the question of Jesus? “Lord, you know everything, you know that I love you” (John 21: 17). Seeing and hearing Jesus brought Simon Peter to a stronger LOVE. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, assures His sheep: “I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish” (John 10: 28). Seeing and hearing Jesus brings His followers to an enduring HOPE.

My brothers and sisters, FAITH, HOPE and LOVE are at the very center of our spiritual journey that is intended to lead us to God, but these theological virtues must be fed. How better to feed our hunger for God than through the Word spoken, proclaimed and living in our midst.

I urge you to listen attentively to the Word of the Lord proclaimed at every Mass. And more, read your Bible in the privacy of your home. Guaranteed, God will speak to you, the message of the Word will change your life, and your FAITH, HOPE and LOVE will lead you home to heaven.

Father Dale DeNinno

The Beauty of Sacred Song helps us to raise our hearts, minds and voices before God in grateful praise and worship. The Ministers of Music who serve the churches of Christ the King Parish provide us an amazing service in our weekly gathering at Mass, but especially so during the days of Holy Week and Easter. From the solemnity of the Tenebrae Service to the glory of Easter, the music was outstanding. Special words of thanks are extended to Ginny Ambrose, Celeste Callahan, Tom Octave and David Volcheck, as well as all of our cantors and the members of the magnificent Tenebrae choir. The Divine Ears of God must surely be pleased!

Celebrating the Sacraments: The month of May will be full of sacred moments as our children and young people continue their journey into the Catholic faith.

Soon the second grade students will come to the altar of God to receive their First Holy Communion. Three Mass times have been scheduled: Saturday, May 21ST at 10:00 am in Saint Joseph Church and at 1:00 pm in Saint Scholastica Church; and Sunday, May 22ND at 1:00 pm in Saint Joseph Church.

The candidates for Confirmation will be fully initiated into the Catholic faith at the hands of Bishop David A. Zubik on Thursday evening, May 12TH at 7:00 o'clock in Saint Joseph Church.

May the Holy Spirit lead and guide our youngsters and young people as they receive the Lord in the Eucharist and live out the seven-fold gifts of the Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord.

Appalachia Mission Trip: The “houses” located in the churches of Christ the King Parish have envelopes attached, each one marked with a specific dollar amount. In order to help support the June mission trip of our high school students, you are asked to take one of the envelopes, include your donation, and place the sealed envelope in the collection basket passed during Mass. by May 1ST.

Items still needed for the Light of Life lunches are chewing gum and lunch in box.

May 8 events: Father Michael will hold a Holy Hour on Sunday, May 8, at 1:30 pm in St. Francis Church, followed by a CALIX meeting at 2:30 pm.

Grief Support Group: Anyone who has ever lost a child knows how helpful others can be who have spent time in the club that no one wants to join. Those who have lost a family member or friend because of an addiction have a uniqueness to their grief and thus far, not many groups have been created for this specific pain.

Addiction Recovery Ministry is sponsoring a grief group for family members or friends who have lost a loved one because of overdose or addiction. Our discussion will be framed by the video "Among the Many." We will strive to offer hope to anyone grieving such a tragic loss.

Our weekly meetings will begin on Tuesday, May 24, and will run for seven consecutive weeks. We will begin each meeting at 7:00 pm and they will be held at Addiction Recovery Ministry located at 2599 Freeport Road in Harmar.

If you have this experienced this tragedy, please feel welcome. If you know of someone who has experienced this tragedy, please invite them. If you would like more information, please contact Deacon Tim Noca at 412-456-3165 or by email at tnoca@diopitt.org.
