LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God. On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth."

The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

BECAUSE THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

Responsorial
Psalm:

you are my shep-herd, you are my friend.

I want to fol-low you al - ways, just to fol-low my friend.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.

Then one of the elders said to me, “These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

“For this reason they stand before God’s throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.” The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Alternate: Alleluia! Alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord; Alleluia! Alleluia! Give praise to his name.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus said: “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.” The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith—The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including “the virgin Mary,” all bow.)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

SHEPHERD OF MY HEART

Refrain

Guide me, O shep-herd of my heart; lead me home-ward through the dark, in-to ev-er-last-ing, day.
Show me the way of truth and light; keep me al-ways in your sight. May my life nev-er part from the shep-herd of my heart.

Heart of a Shepherd

Refrain

If you love me, feed my lambs; Be my heart, my voice, my hands. If you love me, feed my sheep. And for my part, I give you the heart of a shep - herd.

VERSES

- Lord, you are my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where you give me repose,
Near restful waters you lead me,
to revive my drooping spirit.
- You guide me along the right path;
you are true to your name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness,
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort.
- You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.
- Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell,
forever and ever.
- To the Father and Son give glory, give glory to the Spirit.
To God who is, who was, and who will be forever and ever.

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

In a Time of Tribulation

Today's Gospel sounds so simple. "My sheep hear my voice. I know them and they follow me." There are times when it does feel just that clear and easy.

On the other hand, the Book of Revelation tells us that discipleship develops by passing through a time of great "tribulation," and the Acts of the Apostles is full of warnings that faith communities will be tested by internal divisions even as their very character seems to be challenged by new members from every land.

This sounds a whole lot like today's world!

As we celebrate the Easter season, current events may be the signs of the times we need to help us understand these mysteries more deeply than ever before. Let us think about this Easter in the light of the past few years of our history.

First, the country was ravaged by bitter political divisions. While these were raging, we had COVID-19, the pandemic that forced us to realize what it means to be part of a truly global world in which the fate of each affects all. Then, a few months ago, we saw the invasion of Ukraine, a situation many have interpreted through biblical images such as David and Goliath, the massacre of the innocents, or the epic attempt of evil to dominate the world.

Those violent, apocalyptic images make for an interesting contrast with the image of Christ, the Good Shepherd. So, what are these Scriptures telling us today?

First, let's look to Paul and Barnabas on their mission in Greek territory. Their preaching seemed to start innocently enough, urging the mixed crowd of ethnic Jews and converts to remain faithful to God's grace. Ah, but what does faithfulness entail?

For Paul, the Pharisee-convert to Christ, faithfulness implied being open to new revelation, including the revelation that God's choice of people could go beyond Israel. But when the traditional group saw the enthusiasm of the Gentile converts, the warning bells went off. They were sure to be outnumbered and their traditions would be challenged. That could not be right!

In the end, after some bitter exchanges, Paul and Barnabas were exiled, a fate that they construed as a share in the rejection of Christ and an opportunity to continue their mission in a place that might accept it.

After seeing how the apostles contended with rejection, we hear details of John's apocalypse, his vision of the end times. Writing for a people suffering serious persecution and speaking to the others who share their fate throughout history, John used spectacular imagery to assure them that, just as for Jesus, faithfulness will win out in the end.

To depict his hope, John describes the immeasurable multitude of people from every time, place and tongue who have remained faithful. There are no limits to who can participate in this victory celebration. No matter what they have been through, they now wave peace palms as signs that suffering and conflict have been redeemed and God is there, wiping the tears from their eyes.

John further leads us to understand that washing our robes in the blood of the lamb means joining in Christ's death and resurrection. That's rather easy to say when we think of it as the baptismal ritual of dying and rising with Christ. It's far more challenging when participation in Christ's passion stops being symbolic when the people are not just baptized, but persecuted innocents. Under these circumstances, participating in Christ's sacrifice implies believing in God's goodness so much that in the midst of torment we still strive to forgive and love our oppressors.

This offers us a new image of Christ the shepherd who says, "My sheep hear my voice. . .and they follow me." The shepherd John depicts gave his life in faithfulness, even when he could not envision the final result. He is the one who, as he was dying on the cross, continued to bear witness that no one could take him away from the Father and this no one could put an end to his mission.

Today, in this moment of history, these readings take on a radical character and describe the demanding depth of our Christian vocation. We remember that following our Shepherd will lead us where he goes: into the heart of conflict and suffering. No one would seek that, but in the end, it's that simple and not at all easy.

Thank you for your generosity!*

Celebrating the Sacraments: The month of May will be full of sacred moments as our children and young people continue their journey into the Catholic faith.

Soon the second grade students will come to the altar of God to receive their First Holy Communion. Three Mass times have been scheduled: Saturday, May 21ST at 10:00 am in Saint Joseph Church and at 1:00 pm in Saint Scholastica Church; and Sunday, May 22ND at 1:00 pm in Saint Joseph Church.

The young people of the parish who are candidates for the sacrament of Confirmation will be fully initiated into the Catholic faith at the hands of Bishop David A. Zubik on Thursday evening, May 12TH at 7:00 o'clock in Saint Joseph Church.

May the Holy Spirit lead and guide our youngsters and young people as they receive the Lord in the Eucharist and live out the seven-fold gifts of the Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord.

A Baby Bottle campaign benefiting Genesis of Pittsburgh—which provides life-affirming programs to pregnant women, children and adoptive families including counseling, shelter, supplies, classes and adoption help—will be held by the CTK Respect Life Committee. Bottles will be passed out at Mass on Mother's Day, May 8, to be taken home and filled with your loose change. Bring them back on Father's Day, June 19, and put them in the bassinet or other container which will be in the vestibule of each church. Thank you for your generous support of these organizations which help women choose life for their children.

Resisting Happiness: Are you overwhelmed? Do you procrastinate? Do you sometimes feel like you are your own worst enemy? Are you ignoring your dreams? Breaking through resistance, author Matthew Kelly tells us, is essential to becoming the-best-version-of-ourselves and living with passion and purpose.

Join Tom Octave or Andy Bechman for a 3-session study of Matthew Kelly's book Resisting Happiness. Tom will lead in-person sessions after 9:00 am Mass at Saint Joseph Church on May 15, May 22, and May 29. Andy will lead virtual sessions via Zoom beginning at 7:30 pm on May 19 & 26 and June 2. Each session will last approximately 50 minutes. The CDTCA Panther Prowl Walk-a-Thon is on Friday, May 13, at the Allegheny RiverTrail Park. Students will be walking or running laps to raise money for the school. There's still time to sponsor a student! Call the office for details: 412-781-7927.

The Catholic Relief Services Collection next weekend is an opportunity for you to help improve the lives of the most vulnerable people around the world and here in the United States. Your support helps fund organizations dedicated to aiding people affected by war and natural disasters, migrants and refugees in need of material and legal assistance, and people worldwide whose livelihoods are impacted by changing political and environmental conditions. When you support The Catholic Relief Services Collection, you provide emergency relief to those affected by disasters as well as long-term solutions that improve the lives of families.

SOCIAL OUTREACH

Members of our community who are in need of short-term assistance can contact the CTK Saint Vincent de Paul Society at svdp@ChristtheKingpgh.org or 412-254-4446.

The St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry serves local families in need every month. We are always in need of non-perishable food items. We are also in need of: paper towels, Kleenex, and single-serve packages of cookies and crackers. Please use the bins in the churches or drop off at the pantry on Tuesday morning from 8:30 – 11:00 am at Saint Mary Church, Almayer Way, Sharpsburg.

The Aspinwall Homeless Ministry is not currently accepting donations of clothing. However, they are very much in need of macaroni and cheese, individual foil packets of tuna or chicken; jello, pudding or fruit cups; and bags of salty snacks such as chips or pretzels. Please leave donations in plastic bags in the gray bins at the Saint Scholastica church entrance. Donations of Giant Eagle gift cards are also gratefully accepted. They can be brought to the Saint Scholastica church office.

Christ the King Parish provides a hot meal for the women's shelter at Bethlehem Haven on the first Sunday of each month and the men's shelter at Community House on the fourth Saturday of each month. For details on how you can participate in this ministry, go to ChristtheKingpgh.org/shelter-meals.

Vagabond Ministry: Our teens will continue to meet every Tuesday evening throughout the summer. We are in need of volunteers to provide a meal for 15-20 teens each Tuesday. If interested please contact Pam Susi 412-781-5696 or psusi15@aol.com.

Around the Diocese . . .

Do you want to learn how to share your faith in a non-confrontational, joyous way? St. Paul Street Evangelization has mobilized thousands of Catholics to fully participate in the work of the New Evangelization through its workshops. That doesn't mean you have to become a street evangelist. The workshop focuses on basic methods for evangelization that anyone can use. The Diocese of Pittsburgh Office for Evangelization has invited St. Paul Street Evangelization to lead their one-day workshop for all active parishioners on Saturday, May 28, 2022, 8:00am-4:00pm, at Assumption Parish Hall in Bellevue. The cost of the workshop is $25, which includes both lunch and materials. To register, visit stpaulse.com/pittsburgh-bet or contact: adam@stpaulse.com

PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father,
from the beginning you have chosen to entrust
the human person to mothers in a special way.
We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers;
for their tenderness, care, and compassion,
for their intuition and encouragement,
for commitment and sacrifice.
Bless all mothers this day.
Keep, strengthen, and refresh them in your loving care.
May they be blessed by our open-hearted
love and gratitude.
Amen.
