PENTECOST SUNDAY—WORSHIP AID

COME HOLY GHOST

1. Come Holy Ghost, Creator blest
And in our hearts take up thy rest;
Come with thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made;
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2. O Comforter, to thee we cry,
Thou heavenly gift of God most high;
Thou font of life and fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above;
And sweet anointing from above.

3. Praise be to thee, Father and Son, and Holy Spirit, with them one;
And may the Son on us bestow, the gifts that from the Spirit flow;
The gifts that from the Spirit flow.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, “Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104: Lord, Send Out Your Spirit

Refrain

Lord, send out your Spir-it, and re - new the face of the earth!

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith—

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "the virgin Mary," all bow.)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Prayer for Christ the King Parish

Heavenly Father,
our hearts are open to you
as we discover the mystery of your love
at work in our lives.
Help us to rediscover each day
the power of that same love
through the sacred gift of our Catholic faith.

Jesus our Lord,
in baptism we connect our lives with you
as disciples.
Help us to reconnect each day
and allow our faith life
to be nourished by your Word and Sacrament
through the prayer
of our weekly attendance at Mass.

Holy Spirit,
breathe into us faith, hope and love
as we commit ourselves
to a new and bold Pentecost.
Help us to recommit each day
through our energy and resources to the life of our parish community.

Give us the grace
to rediscover,
to reconnect
and to recommit
to all that is good and holy.
You are God forever and ever.
Amen.

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Giving gifts is what we do. Special occasions or no occasion at all, gift giving is an opportunity to share something special with someone who is special. Birthdays and Christmas are particularly appropriate occasions, but so is Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day or just any ordinary day. We give gifts because we want to express the assurance of our thoughts . . . the warmth of our love . . . the gratitude of our hearts.

Gift giving is all of God. In the act of creation, in the work of redemption, in the certainty of sanctification, we are gifted by the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. But know this: while the gifts given from God are without end, they also invite our response and cooperation.

We are called to take care of this earth as responsible stewards of the gift given to us by our Creator. We are called to participate in the weight of the cross as vigilant disciples of our Redeemer. We are called to bear witness to the Good News as inspired by our Sanctifier.

The gift of the Holy Spirit, the Sanctifier, the One who makes us holy, is the fulfillment of Jesus' promise that the Father would send an Advocate. Thus, despite uncertainty and fear, the first disciples and the Church today wait with wonder and hope. And so it happened: "When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind . . . then there appeared to them tongues as of fire . . . and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim" (Acts 2: 1-2,4).

The Church has been celebrating ever since, and not just on Pentecost. It is during the ritual of the sacraments of baptism and confirmation that we invoke the power of the Holy Spirit to come down upon those initiated into the life of God: to cleanse them through life saving water and to fill them with the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord

Friends, know that the power of the Holy Spirit is not held exclusive to the ritual of sacraments and prayer. The mystery of the Spirit cannot be contained in any place or time. The wonder of the Spirit is without end. The hope of the Spirit never ceases.

My sisters and brothers, I pray that the power of the Holy Spirit will enter into your heart, mind and soul. I pray that the Holy Spirit will shake loose within you anything that is not of God. And I pray that the transforming power of the Holy Spirit will help you to rediscover, reconnect and recommit to all that is good and holy. In that transformation is found wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. I urge you to commit to memory the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit . . . but more, to live them.

Father Dale DeNinno

The Church Is Decked Out in Red: We're showing our red today as a symbolic reminder of the fire of the Holy Spirit. We need to be on fire in our Catholic faith. We need the fire of the Holy Spirit to purify us of anything that is sinful in our personal lives or in our community of faith. We need to be re-ignited with the transforming power of the Holy Spirit in order to light a new fire of faith in Christ the King Parish, the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and the universal Catholic Church.

Missionary Cooperation Sunday: Christ the King Parish has been asked to help support the Sister Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary with their motherhouse in Scranton and their mission work in Peru. The IHM Sisters minister to the people of Peru during political instability, food shortages, the COVID pandemic and natural disasters. They have also established a boarding school for girls from remote villages so that these young women can attend high school, the only educational opportunity available to them.

Realizing that it has been a difficult few years for all of us, please be as generous as possible when the collection basket is passed a second time this weekend, June 4-5 for the missionary efforts of the Sister Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

VENI, SANCTE SPIRITUS

The "Golden Sequence" is a medieval hymn associated with Pentecost.

*Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.
You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.
O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away;
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end.
Amen. Alleluia.*

NEWS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our final Family Faith Formation sessions for the year were held in May! Thank you to all of the families who participated this year as we learned all about the Sacraments. As we learned, the Sacraments help us to more fully experience God's grace in our lives. In addition to sharing their time and talents, our incredible team of Catechists and Aides were shining examples of what it means to share in the mission of Christ and share God's love with the world. THANK YOU, Catechists and Aides, for all you do to help others grow in their relationship with God!

Congratulations to all the Christ the King youth who are graduating from high school this spring. We are so proud of you and wish you the very best as you move on to the next stage of your journey. Remember, you will always have a home here!

Around the Diocese . . .

What is evangelization? Jesus loves every single one of us more than we can possibly imagine. An encounter with that love changes who we are and the way we see the world. It also gives us the desire to tell others about this love. That is what evangelization is: sharing the good news of Jesus' love with others. To learn more about evangelization in our Diocese and to read reflections from Bishop William Waltersheid, the diocesan Vicar for Evangelization, go to <https://diopitt.org/evangelization>.

Did you know, the Diocese offers resources for families through all stages of life at <https://diopitt.org/marriage-family?> You will find resources for dating and engaged couples, married couples seeking to strengthen their relationship or dealing with difficulties, Catholic teaching on sexuality, and end of life and grief support.

What does Pentecost have to do with the worldwide Synod process? Everything! In the Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke relates how the assembly of disciples numbered about one hundred and twenty (1:15). "When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together" when the Holy Spirit came upon them (2:1). The Spirit was given to the whole community, not just to a few leaders. In our turn, at baptism, we were given "the power to live and act under the prompting of the Holy Spirit" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1266). Because of this power, the Spirit can speak through the diverse voices of the community, if we listen carefully to each other. "The path of synodality seeks to make pastoral decisions that reflect the will of God as closely as possible, grounding them in the living voice of the People of God." (Synod Handbook, 1.3) "The hope is that the experience of the Synodal Process will bring about a new springtime for listening, discernment, dialogue, and decision-making, so that the whole People of God can better journey together with one another and the entire human family, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit." (Handbook, 3.5)
