There will be another collection to support the Hurricane Ida recovery in October.

FAITH FORMATION

Dear Parents, It is my great delight to be accompanying you as we begin a new year of faith formation. Over the past year I have developed a great admiration for our faith formation program here at St. Brendan’s, and I appreciate how last year, despite numerous obstacles, we managed to have a full year of in-person learning. This was a sign of tremendous dedication shared by the director, teachers, parents, and students, and I am confident that this spirit of dedication will make for another very productive year. Although we never know exactly how public health matters may affect us, it is my hope that we can continue to administer faith formation as safely and effectively as possible.

Looking back over the past year, one unfortunate matter that impacted all Catholics was the difficulty in gathering as members of Christ’s body around the Eucharistic table. Of course, those with health risks always have a duty protect themselves, but it is important for all of us to understand and maintain the centrality of the Eucharist in our lives. This is especially important for our young people as they must develop their faith with the proper focus. Therefore,

I wish to emphasize how crucial it is for our young parishioners and their families to attend Sunday Mass and share in the family life of our parish. Faith formation in the classroom is meant to strengthen and guide what can only be obtained through participation in the sacramental life of the church. That being said, I implore all parents make their best efforts to make participation in Sunday Mass the priority that it ought to be. I understand that there can be host of reasons, either past or present, why some of us may find it difficult to maintain attendance in Mass. Please know that I am willing to speak with you and to help facilitate reconciliation or anything that might assist you in upholding this important commitment. Hopefully, we can become more closely acquainted through Sunday Mass as well.

I am very much looking forward to this year ahead, and I hope to get to know and work with our faith formation program more closely. Please join me in praying for another successful year—one that will bring all of us closer to God and to each other. Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Andrew Lauricella

NEW MASK REQUIREMENT

Wear a mask

Due to some new public health concerns, the Diocese of Buffalo has updated it's requirements for Covid-19 safety, and is asking that, regardless of vaccination status, we wear our masks whenever we are in close proximity to people of other households. This would include when gathered near the doors and the Communion line. Masks can however be relaxed when seated in the pew. Please use your best judgment, and be courteous to our more concerned parishioners who may prefer more space when seated. The complete update is posted in the entrances

Thank you for your cooperation and generosity!

COLLECTION

Contributions from Retirement Funds: You may recall seeing a message regarding a new means of supporting St. Brendan's with your surplus retirement funds. This was in planning, when it was discovered that the Diocese of Buffalo's decision to file Chapter XI bankruptcy would impact such an arrangement. This possibility is still being explored, and any new development will be announced.
