PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

History will record that 2020 will be forever remembered as a year of uncertainty, tragedy, perplexing circumstances, and many unknowns still yet to come. Despite the negativity and tragedy this year has created, I have personally witnessed many open hearts and a sense of working together by people to overcome and work together for positive change. For example, some couples I married this year have had to forfeit their wedding receptions. One couple remarked that while a party would have been nice, it was not the essence of their marriage. They eventually decided to put their masks on and get married at St. John Cantius. As for a reception, they decided to put those funds on a new home for their soon to be family. What a fantastic idea.

Just this week, our very own Trinity Council of the Knights of Columbus located here at St. John Cantius have decided to forfeit their annual Christmas Party due to COVID, social distancing, and other social/health concerns. In lieu of their party, they decided to give back to the parish community the total amount that would have been spent on their annual Christmas party as a donation to those who may be in need this holiday season. To that end, it was decided this past week during our meeting (I am the chaplain for the Council) that a total of 20 $50.00 food gift cards would be used to help a needy family this Christmas season. They have asked that I help assist this program with them to find families in our parish that could benefit from their generosity. If you know of anyone or family that has lost a job, homeless or in any way could benefit from a Christmas $50.00 gift card for food, please call me at the rectory and let me know.

I pray that each of us continues to use this time to be as generous and hospitable to anyone in need. It's is a trying time for all of us but for some, it has been a real tragedy. Thank you to our Knights of Columbus Trinity Council for being generous, creative, and thoughtful to those in need. Consider sharing with someone you know this holiday season. I once read a quote that went like this, "Sometimes when things are falling apart, they may actually be falling into place." Think about it!
Fr. Roach

FAMILY PERSPECTIVES

Today Jesus tells us to "Keep awake for you don't know the day or hour". Those special moments in family life can't be put on our calendar like an appointment...they just happen. We must be ready and responsive to family members in need. By responding promptly with faith and hope, God will provide wisdom and strength.

HUMOR: THE CATHOLIC DOG

A farmer named Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside except for a pet dog he for a long time.

The dog finally died and Muldoon went to the parish priest, saying "Father, the dog is dead. Could you possibly be saying a Mass for the poor creature?" Father Patrick told the farmer "No, we can't have services for an animal in the church, but I'll tell you what, there's a new denomination down the road apiece, and no telling what they believe in, but maybe they'll do something for the animal." Muldoon said "I'll go right now. By the way, do you think $5,000.00 is enough to donate for the service?" Father Patrick immediately replied "Why didn't you tell me the dog was Catholic."

ZIARNO SŁOWA BOZEGO

Zbliża się koniec roku kościelnego jak i cywilnego. Liturgia uroczystości Wszystkich Świętych i Dnia Zaduszkiego zwróciła naszą uwagę na śmierć i nieśmiertelność, na koniec życia doczesnego i na początek życia wiecznego. Tę właśnie myśl kontynuują również dzisiejsze czytania. Życie jest oczekiwaniem, a śmierć jest spotkaniem z Panem, który przychodzi. Nie jest to właściwie koniec, ale początek nowego i zupełnie innego życia, podobnego do życia Bożego. Gwarantuje nam je zmartwychwstały Chrystus, który pewnego dnia powróci na tę ziemię, objawi się w widzialny sposób, aby postawić kropkę nad naszą historią i ziemskim życiem, ocenić wypełnienie naszego życiowego zadania i zgromadzić nas na wiecznej uczcie Bożej miłości i nieprzemijającego życia i szczęścia. Dzisiejsza Ewangelia przemawia w sposób obrazowy. W przypowieści o roztropnych i nierozsądnych pannach napomina nas, abysmy nie byli nierozsądni, ale roztropni i czujni oraz w każdej chwili gotowi na wielkie spotkanie z Panem. „Czuwajcie więc, bo nie znacie dnia ani godziny”. Celem przypowieści jest podkreślenie i wyjaśnienie tego poważnego napomnienia. Żadne życiowe troski, żadna bieganina, ani inne, nawet nardzo ważne sprawy nie mogą zaabsorbować nas do tego stopnia, byśmy zaspali i zapomnieli o oczekiwaniu na Pana, na koniec doczesnego i na początek wiecznego życia. Na uczcie weselną trzeba być przygotowanym i czujnym, aby powitać Oblubieńca z zapaloną lampą. My zaś tak często zasypiamy i w trosce o sprawy drugorzędne zapominamy o tych istotnych.
