THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD, JANUARY 2, 2022, YEAR C

LITURGICAL LESSON

As we continue to study Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, let us look at the Music of Catholic Worship.

1. Different Kinds of Music for the Liturgy (1/2)

67. "Sacred music is to be considered the more holy the more closely connected it is with the liturgical action, whether making prayer more pleasing, promoting unity of minds, or conferring greater solemnity upon the sacred rites." This holiness involves ritual and spiritual dimensions, both of which must be considered within cultural context.

68. The ritual dimension of sacred music refers to those ways in which it is "connected with the liturgical action" so that it accords with the structure of the Liturgy and expresses the shape of the rite. The musical setting must allow the rite to unfold with the proper participation of the assembly and its ministers, without overshadowing the words and actions of the Liturgy.

69. The spiritual dimension of sacred music refers to its inner qualities that enable it to add greater depth to prayer, unity to the assembly, or dignity to the ritual. Sacred music is holy when it mediates the holiness of God and forms the Holy People of God more fully into communion with him and with each other in Christ.

Today, I challenge you to sing one new thing at Mass. Maybe you occasionally skip over the Responsorial psalm...maybe you are too preoccupied with sitting, standing, and kneeling to join in the Mass parts (Holy, Memorial Acclamation, or Amen)...maybe we have selected a new hymn. Be courageous and rely on the rest of the congregation to help you out! We worship together-we sing together!

Happy New Year! May God grant you peace and blessings in abundance throughout 2022!

I found this prayer by Vinita Hampton Wright on the ignatianspirituality.com website offered by Loyola Press:

"God of all time, help us to enter the New Year quietly, thoughtful of who we are to ourselves and to others, mindful that our steps make an impact and our words carry power. May we walk gently, May we speak only after we have listened well. Creator of all life, help us to enter the New Year reverently, aware that you have endowed every creature and plant, every person and habitat with beauty and purpose. May we regard the world with tenderness. May we honor rather than destroy. Lover of all souls, help us to enter the New Year joyfully, willing to laugh and dance and dream, remembering our many gifts with thanks and looking forward to blessings yet to come. May we welcome your lavish love. May we cast off the small, vindictive god our fears have made."

CHRISTMAS 2021

RESPECT LIFE

"Human rights are not a privilege conferred by government. They are every human being's entitlement by virtue of his humanity. The right to life does not depend, and must not be contingent, on the pleasure of anyone else, not even a parent or sovereign... you must weep that your own government, at present, seems blind to this truth."

Mother Teresa of Calcutta

ATTENTION COUPLES WHO BECOME ENGAGED OVER THE HOLIDAY SEASON: The Christmas season is a time when many engagements begin. It is a romantic time of the year to propose for marriage! Please remember that once you become engaged and are ready to choose a date for your wedding, please call the Parish Office and arrange for an in-person meeting with the priest you wish to have as the celebrant of your wedding ceremony. You are strongly encouraged to not make arrangements for a reception venue prior to checking with the priest of your choosing to see if the date and celebrant you desire are available. With so many wedding postponements the past two years due to COVID-19, many dates already have been taken in the 2022 calendar year and even some for the 2023 calendar year.

MINISTRY

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION (PSR) Mandy Hart

Hello!

I hope you had a very Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year! Our PSR students have been on break during the holidays and we are so excited to welcome them back to class on Sunday, January 9. At this class, students will be rewarded with an ice cream treat for meeting our goal with our food collection drive. The students collected 553 items! Thank you so much to all our families for their generous donations.

In PSR our theme is "See the Good in All Things". During the month of December, our students reflected on times when they saw the good, or they decided to do something good. The students wrote this down on a piece of construction paper and each class created their chain of good. The chains were then all strung together and were then hung in the gathering space of the church. It is truly amazing how much good our students are seeing and doing.

I am looking forward to the second half of PSR and can't wait to see what our students will accomplish next.

If you have questions, please contact me at mhart@sjmentor.org or call 255.0600 ext. 224

Important Dates:

Sunday, January 2:	No PSR
Sunday, January 9:	PSR resumes
Tuesday, January 11:	First Communion Parent Meeting 10:00 am and 7:00 pm
Sunday, January 16:	No PSR
Sunday, January 23:	Confirmation Session 5 12:15-1:40

Take care and God bless,

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

I hope that you are continuing to enjoy the Christmas season. Today is the Feast of the Epiphany of our Lord, the day Christ was manifested to the Gentiles as the “revealing light of the nations.” May we all walk in the light of Christ in this new year which lies before us. Be sure to pick up your 2022 parish calendar in the gathering space of the church before or after Mass this weekend. Thank you to Mike Coyne of McMahan-Coyne-Vitantonio Funeral Homes for providing the calendars for us once again. That is a nice service that Mike provides to our parishioners each year.

Thank you also to the many parishioners who helped us to celebrate our holiday Masses the past two weekends: the musicians, cantors, choirs, other liturgical ministers, and the church cleaners and decorators. The church looked great for the Masses and I received some nice compliments from visitors regarding how welcoming we are and how well we celebrate our Masses. Thank you also to the many parishioners who sent cards or gifts to us during this holiday season. The kitchen in the Parish Office has been filled with special treats for the past ten days and the items came in handy as we entertained so many family and friends. Guests and staff members enjoyed the gifts and wanted me to express their gratitude to you. It was a rough Advent and Christmas season for me because of a persistent case of bronchitis I had. Nothing seemed to help take care of the cough and the fatigue other than time. I hope I am done with it now. I am also glad that Katie Cooper, our music director, is also feeling better. She tested positive for COVID a few days before Christmas and had to scramble in a short time to get all the funerals and holiday Masses covered. Thanks, Katie, for doing that, and thanks to all the musicians who pitched in to help at the last minute. We even brought Barb out of retirement!

I am hoping and praying that COVID will soon be behind us. I own a cottage in Vermilion with four other priests—three of them tested positive for COVID right before the holiday. I am hoping all will be well soon and that I can rejoin them for my day-off in the new year. I am sure everyone is getting tired of COVID but we need to hang in there, stay focused doing what we need to do, and trust that God is with us to help us get through this. The Bishop has strongly encouraged all of us to wear our masks in the church when in close proximity to others, especially during this holiday season. Hopefully we can stay healthy in the New Year!

The second graders at All Saints did a nice job telling the story of Christmas to the rest of the student body before going home for Christmas vacation. The children participated in an Advent paraliturgy and a Christmas sing-a-long, before returning to their classrooms for a holiday party. I am sure these vacation days went by quickly for them and they may not be too eager to return to the classrooms this week. May God bless their efforts in this New Year and help them to have a good school year. Parish School of Religion classes resume next Sunday, January 9, at Lake Catholic High School. May God also bless those students and help them to have a good year. Mass will be celebrated at Salida Woods Assisted Living this week on Wednesday at 3:00. Parishioners are welcome to attend the Mass and visit with residents after Mass.

Salida Woods is one of the four local nursing facilities where our priests assist with a monthly Mass. We are also blessed with a number of communion ministers who visit these facilities and some others to distribute Holy Communion on a regular basis to the residents. I know that these visits are appreciated by the residents and their families. Remember that there will be coffee and donuts served this weekend in the John Paul II Room after each of the Sunday Masses.

Father Dober has been training a new group of altar servers to assist the priest at our weekend liturgies. Their ministry is greatly appreciated. Pictured above are three sisters who will now serve together at Mass: Casey, Jenna and Molly Heil, the daughters of Joe and Courtney Heil. It will be great to have them assist at Mass and I am sure parents and grandparents are so very proud of them! If your children wish to be an altar server, give Maureen Kraizel a phone call and she will be happy to set up training for them. Maureen is our Director of Volunteers and she is happy to meet with any of you if you wish to become involved in some parish activities in the New Year. We could always use your help. God bless you and be assured of my prayers. Father Johns

This weekend we begin a New Year, and we leave behind the memories of a year past. The Year of St. Joseph 2021, as proclaimed by Pope Francis, has been a year of various happenings that have impacted all our lives. It is comforting for us to have a Sanctuary, our Church, to escape within and to feel the Love of Jesus whether at Mass, Confession, or times of self-reflection, prayer or meditation. Programs are made available to bring us closer to God as well as to one another. It is a blessing to have these programs as well as the technology to share them with one another.

This year's papal theme is listening. Listening not just to God's words, but the words of our friends and neighbors and people worldwide on the how the Church can be better incorporated into our daily lives. This theme relates to our Rays of Mercy Campaign which seeks to increase our parish programs to include more people in and outside our parish community, including those who are at home, in a nursing facilities or in some special need. We seek to bring our Catholic Faith to all who desire to worship and to live our faith daily.

The Rays of Mercy Campaign has received many pledges and donations in November and December. The campaign officially begins for the whole parish this month, January of 2022. We will continue to keep you updated regarding our progress. Thank you for your support and, if you have any questions, you can email me at raysofmercy@sjvmentor.org.

Wishing everyone of you a happy and healthy New Year.

Kent A. Caserta,
Chairperson of Rays of Mercy Campaign

EDUCATION & FORMATION

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Third grade students in Miss Jack's class at All Saints School have been busy during the season of Advent preparing for Christmas. Each third grade student was able to make an advent wreath so that they could light their own candles for each Sunday in Advent.

Third graders also learned about the Jesse Tree. Decorating a Jesse Tree is a way of preparing for Advent by journeying through stories about Jesus's ancestral family. During Advent, students read a Bible story about someone on Jesus's family tree. They then colored ornaments symbolizing each story on their own Jesse Tree. As the tree is decorated, they see how God prepared for Jesus to be born through many generations.

We read The Legend of the Poinsettia by Tomie dePaola. This story is about a Mexican legend that tells of a poor girl who could only offer weeds as a gift to Jesus on Christmas Eve. When she brought the weeds into church, they blossomed into the beautiful red plants we know as poinsettias, known as Flores de Noche Buena in Mexico (Spanish for "flowers of the Holy Night"). Students wrote a summary of the story and made their own Poinsettia plants complete with glitter.

The students took part in Grinch Day. All of their work for the day was Grinch themed. They were able to watch the movie together with their new Grinch Friends!

The children and staff at All Saints wish you and your loved ones a very happy New Year.
