THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD, JANUARY 9, 2022, YEAR C

LITURGICAL LESSON

As we continue to study Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, let us look at the Music of Catholic Worship.

1. Different Kinds of Music for the Liturgy (2/2)

[67. "Sacred music is to be considered the more holy the more closely connected it is with the liturgical action, whether making prayer more pleasing, promoting unity of minds, or conferring greater solemnity upon the sacred rites." This holiness involves ritual and spiritual dimensions, both of which must be considered within cultural context.]

70. The cultural context refers to the setting in which the ritual and spiritual dimensions come into play. Factors such as the age, spiritual heritage, and cultural and ethnic background of a given liturgical assembly must be considered. The choice of individual compositions for congregational participation will often depend on those ways in which a particular group finds it best to join their hearts and minds to the liturgical action.

71. With gratitude to the Creator for giving humanity such a rich diversity of musical styles, the Church seeks to employ only that which, in a given style, meets the ritual-spiritual demands of the Liturgy. In discerning the sacred quality of liturgical music, liturgical musicians will find guidance in music from the Church's treasury of sacred music, which is of inestimable value and which past generations have found suitable for worship. They also should strive to promote a fruitful dialogue between the Church and the modern world.

Paragraph 71 talks about the Church's treasury of sacred music...you guessed it! Next week, we will take a look at Gregorian Chant!

All healthcare professionals are invited and encouraged to attend our annual White Mass to be held on Sunday, February 6 at the 12:15 pm Mass. The past two years have been especially challenging and for many, both physically and emotionally fatiguing. Your dedication and compassion is most appreciated. Please come to the Mass held in your honor and receive the "Blessing of Hands."

Even with limited activities in the church during the pandemic, many volunteers stepped forward to help when possible to make the programs which could be held succeed. Here are some of the ways that volunteers made a difference this past year: sanitizing after every Mass, especially weddings and funerals, helping with curbside dinners and fish fries, the Festival, liturgical ministries, PSR, Youth Ministry, Art and Environment Ministry, Cleaning Crew, St. Vincent DePaul food pantry and furniture bank. We will celebrate our volunteers on Saturday, February 19 following the 4:00 pm Mass with a Volunteer Appreciation Party. All volunteers are invited to join us in the Social Center for food, drink, table discussions about the Synod process and entertainment by Mentor's Top 25. RSVP is requested by Friday, February 11.

Have a great week!

Maureen

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION (PSR) Mandy Hart

Hello!

On Sunday, December 19 our PSR students attended the 9:00 Mass at Saint John Vianney. The students attended Mass as a class and sat in the front of the Church. I was so impressed watching our students attend Mass. They were so well behaved and so very attentive as well! Pictured below is our students bringing forward their baby Jesus from home to be blessed by Father Marty. This was such a special time for our students!

As we head into the second half of the PSR year, we are looking forward for more opportunities to attend Mass together!

On January 11 we will have meetings at 10:00 am and 7:00 pm for our second grade parents whose children are preparing to make their First Communion in May. Parents only need to attend one of the meetings.

If you have questions, please contact me at mhart@sjmentor.org or call 255-0600 ext. 224

Our St. John Vianney Food Pantry volunteers were extremely grateful and again overwhelmed by the support and generosity you showed our clients during this holiday season. With your help, 163 families (477 individuals) were helped in November and 175 families (480 individuals) were helped in December.

November families received turkeys and December families received hams. Senior gift bags were gifted to 130 Seniors. Thank you, thank you, thank you to the many schools, businesses, and families that contributed food, financial support and extras.

As we begin a new year, we find our pantry in need of paper products. Please consider donating kleenex, toilet paper, and paper towels. May your new year be filled with joy and thank you for the joy you share!

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Now that the holiday season is coming to an end, you will see that a number of activities will be taking place at the parish as we enter into this new year of 2022. On pages eight, nine and ten of this bulletin you will find a detailed summary of the pastoral plan we will implement at the parish in the coming years. Thank you to Father Dober for coordinating the work of the committee who developed this plan after many conversations and after reviewing the extensive amount of data that was generated by the 600+ parishioners who completed the Disciple Maker Index survey last year. Check out the STRENGTHS and OPPORTUNITIES which were identified and some of the specific ways we can improve parish life at Saint John Vianney. Please continue to pray that the Lord will bless these efforts.

You will see on page eleven that the parish will host ALPHA at 6:30 on Monday evenings in the Father Kline Social Center from February 7 to April 11. ALPHA is a wonderful program for those who might have questions about life, our purpose, Christianity and God. All of us know individuals in our families or circle of friends who ask questions about these and other important topics. Encourage them to sign up for ALPHA. Watch the bulletin in the coming weeks for more information.

You may have heard some conversations recently regarding "Synod 2021-2023: For a Synodal Church—Communion, Participation and Mission." Pope Francis has invited Catholics throughout the world to participate in a dialogue with one another and with the worldwide Catholic Church. Our Bishop in Cleveland is asking all Catholics in our parishes, schools and organizations to gather, listen and discern what it means to them to be Church and where the Holy Spirit may be calling us. Representatives from our parish have been trained to facilitate this process. You are invited to gather with some of your fellow parishioners at the Social Center on Wednesday, January 19, from 6:30-8:00, to pray, to listen and to share some ideas regarding how we can walk together as a Church with the Holy Spirit. Call the Parish Office if you plan to attend. Refreshments will be served. You can find a lot more information about this process on the Cleveland Diocesan website.

On Wednesday, February 16, at 7:00 in the evening, you are also invited to gather in the Father Kline Social Center to learn more about the Rays of Mercy campaign we are currently undertaking and to have any of your questions answered. I spoke about the campaign last year several times and we are off to a great start in raising the funds needed to keep our parish a vibrant and good one for many more years to come. We were able to raise one million dollars in donations or pledges in December and the past two weeks of January. Thanks, FTJ

PARISH PASTORAL PLAN

After a period of discernment and discussion with the Saint John Vianney pastoral staff and a committee of parishioners, we are excited to present our pastoral plan for the next several years. Our conversations about the state of our parish and our vision for the future were largely guided by the Disciple Maker Index, the parish-wide survey that so many of you participated in last year. We were glad to see that the survey supported what we have felt in our hearts to be true: we are a richly blessed community of Catholic disciples who, in the words of our Mission Statement, are “on a Christ-centered journey.”

The survey revealed to us that our parish has many strengths. Almost everyone who took the survey recommended or strongly recommended our parish. As you can see from the “Strengths and Opportunities” graphic included in the bulletin, we learned that the following are some of our greatest strengths: our weekend Masses are vibrant and welcoming, we excel at serving those in need, and we have good communication. We are so grateful for the many members of our community who contribute to these strengths.

In addition to making us grateful for our areas of strength, the Disciple Maker Index helped us to have good conversations about the areas where we need to improve. One of the areas where parishioners and staff see the most need for improvement is in ensuring our parish has a Missionary Focus. To have a missionary focus--or to “evangelize”--means to share the Good News that Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death and has opened for us the pathway to Life.

We realized that there are many ways that we already do share that Good News with one another and with our community. But we also admitted that we have room to grow in this aspect of our parish life. Although we have almost 10,000 registered parishioners at our parish, only about 2,000 come to Mass every weekend. A missionary focus requires us to ask why 8,000 of our parishioners have not been convinced to prioritize Sunday Eucharist.

OPPORTUNITIES

In addition to the people in our parish who are not active in their Catholic faith, we also must consider those in our area who have never truly encountered Christ. Reaching them with the Good News about Jesus is an essential part of our mission as a Catholic parish.

So, here are several ways we will deepen our missionary focus:

1. Educate parish youth and adults about our missionary vocation
2. Inaugurate a “Year of Evangelization” in the fall of 2022 for the parish, the PSR program, and All Saints School
3. Explore the possibility of hiring a Director of Evangelization and Communication
4. Offer the Alpha program and other similar programs that help people enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ

Capitalize on the opportunity our summer festival gives us to present our faith to those visiting our campus

5. Capitalize on the opportunity our summer festival gives us to present our faith to those visiting our campus

Connected to this need to deepen our missionary focus, we learned that we need to improve youth faith formation and adult faith formation. We cannot share the Good News unless we have all been formed to know Christ deeply and to love him with our entire being.

Our youth programs already excel in a number of ways, thanks to the stellar faith formation offered by the teachers at All Saints School and our team of dedicated and passionate PSR teachers. In addition to these essential educators, our youth ministry communities, which also form our young people in the faith, continue to develop and grow. So, among the following steps we will take to improve youth formation, our first step is to remain committed to the good we are already doing.

PARISH PASTORAL PLAN

Ways we will improve youth faith formation:

1. Continue to form vibrant communities of youth and young adults
2. Improve and update our sacramental programs to reach the youth of today
3. Offer quality opportunities for faith formation to our PSR teachers and All Saints teachers
4. Ensure that our PSR teachers are professionally certified
5. Emphasize vocational discernment in our youth ministry programs

Whenever we discuss the importance of youth formation we are reminded that it is not only our youngest members who seek Christ. All of us, no matter how old we are, can learn more about our faith and continue to grow in our spirituality.

So, here are some ways we will improve adult faith formation:

1. Offer an adult education series every Advent to deepen our understanding of the faith
2. Offer a spirituality series every Lent to deepen our lives of prayer
3. Facilitate the formation of more small church communities
4. Provide retreats and times of reflection for men, women, and married couples
5. Offer parents the tools they need to teach their children about our faith

As you can see, we have big dreams for our parish! And we are excited to pursue them! You will be hearing more soon about some of the practical ways we plan to do so. And we are hopeful that your generosity in responding to the Rays of Mercy campaign will be one way that we will be provided with what we need to achieve these goals.

While we have numerous ideas about how to put our pastoral plan in action, we are eager for suggestions as well! Feel free to let us know any feedback you have about this pastoral plan.

Suggestions or questions can be directed to Fr. Marty Dober by calling the parish office or emailing him at: frdober@sjvmentor.org.

When we celebrated our 50th anniversary as a parish in 2019, our theme was “Celebrating God’s triumphs and graces.” And there are truly many graces we can thank God for bestowing upon our parish throughout our history. Now, standing on the solid foundation of the graces he has given us in the past and which he continues to give us today, we look forward with great joy and hope to the future. We are confident that we can lend our hands and our hearts to His goal of bestowing upon us countless graces in the years to come. May he bless the work of our hands.
