THE MOST HOLY TRINITY, JUNE 12, 2022, YEAR C TRINITY REFLECTION:

Each of today's readings invites us to contemplate a different aspect of the great mystery we are celebrating: one God in three persons. The Book of Proverbs reveals the power of the Creator in nature and personifies the Creator as pure wisdom who affirms his presence before and after his own creation. In the letter to the Romans, Saint Paul reminds us that through the gift of faith we have been introduced into the world of grace and, thus, we have discovered through Jesus Christ that even suffering can lead us to the glory of God. Finally, Saint John's Gospel places on the lips of Jesus the promise of the Holy Spirit and affirms the unity in love that the Father and the Son intimately share. This communion of love is a Trinitarian community that we must all imitate as Church in our homes and in our neighborhoods, always conscious that Jesus leads us to the Father and that through the Father and the Son we are embraced by the gift of the Spirit, who from the moment of our own baptism puts us on the path of eternal life. Attention all Altar Servers, Lectors and EMEs: The July-September schedule will be run next week. Please submit any time off requests and special schedule requests to me no later than Sunday, June 12. There are less than five weeks before Festival 2022 (July 8-10.). If you have not yet done so, please send in your Volunteer Sign-up Form as soon as possible. Forms are available in the bulletin, online and on the Parish website www.sjvmentor.org. Area Leaders and Game Captains are working on filling in their schedules now. Time is running out to sponsor one of our World Famous St. John Vianney Racing Ducks. Sponsorship forms are available in this bulletin and on the Parish Website. For $20 you may name and sponsor one duck to race in one race. For $100 you may name and sponsor six ducks racing each other in one single race or six ducks each running in six separate races. If your duck wins a race, you win $20 (except for sponsors of entire races.) So get quacking and sign-up to be part of the St. John Vianney Downs. Volunteers are still needed to take wagers and to help with "duck wrangling" for the Area Leader, Patti Hall. Make sure to watch and bet on your favorite, fine, feathered friends on Friday, July 8, 6:00 - 9:00 pm, Saturday, July 9, 6:00 - 9:00 pm and Sunday, July 10, 4:00 - 8:00 pm. To contact me about these or any other volunteer opportunities available, please call 440.255.0600, extension 225.

Have a great week!

Maureen

Transcendent Verse

This World is not Conclusion

BY EMILY DICKINSON

This World is not Conclusion.
A Species stands beyond -
Invisible, as Music -
But positive, as Sound -
It beckons, and it baffles -
Philosophy, don't know -
And through a Riddle, at the last -
Sagacity, must go -
To guess it, puzzles scholars -
To gain it, Men have borne
Contempt of Generations
And Crucifixion, shown -
Faith slips - and laughs, and rallies -
Blushes, if any see -
Plucks at a twig of Evidence -
And asks a Vane, the way -
Much Gesture, from the Pulpit -
Strong Hallelujahs roll -
Narcotics cannot still the Tooth
That nibbles at the soul -

Sometimes when I stop to enjoy the Lake Erie current meet the Ohio flora on a warm day or take a bite of an artisan pizza with bacon and hot honey, I am really impressed with the glory this world has to offer. However, this is barely even a glimpse of the bounty that the Trinity has to offer. The fullness of God is utterly beyond our human experience and understanding; yet, as beings made in God's image and likeness, God graces us with access to the life of the Trinity which our souls crave. To enter into this divine communion, God offers us a few conduits: the beauty of the world, the scriptures, and our personal and public prayer, especially the Eucharist. The problem is that we confuse our hunger for God with a hunger for the world itself, and we neglect to seek God beyond the surface of His creation.

In this poem, Emily Dickinson shows this dynamic of God's glory that peeks through creation yet drastically transcends it with its infinite spiritual reality out of reach from our intellectual and sensory reach. She expresses that while we fixate on our capacities to know and observe, our soul feels the pangs of a desire to instead encounter the supernatural mystery of God.

During the month of June the pantry volunteers would like to treat our families to something a little different. This month we would like to be able to provide picnic items to families coming in to the pantry. Some suggestions are cookies, the makings for s'mores, a box of brownies, cookie mix or ice pops, condiments (ketchup, mustard, relish), etc. Who doesn't like a picnic?

ADDITIONAL NOTE REGARDING ROOF

PROJECT: The plan is to have all church and office roof top a/c units removed on June 17 and reinstalled about June 27 - 30. As a result, a cooling unit will be placed in the handicap parking spaces by the choir doors to moderate temperatures in the church. Please be patient as we continue to make progress. We also are stopping visitations in the church prior to funeral Masses. Workers are not able to get work done when there are too many visitations.

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

As I mentioned last week in the bulletin, I decided to close the Parish Office for a day, on this Monday, June 13, so that the staff can do some “spring cleaning.” As is the case with your homes, things accumulate in our space over time and decisions need to be made as to what to keep and what to toss. Monday will be our day to do so. Masses will be celebrated that day as usual at 8:00 and at 11:00 but we hope to eliminate any office or phone calls that day other than emergency ones. Thanks for your anticipated cooperation and understanding. The parish Finance Council will still have their meeting in the evening on Monday.

Thank you to Elaine Guy and her committee of “Adopt-a-Garden” volunteers for the work they have done in the past two weeks to beautify our property with flowers. Thank you as well to John Palumbo and his sons from Summerscapes Landscaping who did such a good job cleaning up our property and spreading mulch in the flower beds. The property looks so nice as we enter into these summer months, and I know many people from the community enjoy walking around our property or praying at one or more of our shrines. All of these are some of the sacred spaces we seek to protect and maintain with the Rays of Mercy Campaign. Thank you for your continued support of this campaign and know that I am grateful for any support you give to the parish, especially during these difficult days of inflation when gas, groceries and just about everything increases in cost daily. I am especially grateful for the tremendous support you have given to the sale of your share of raffle tickets for the Summer Festival.

Our bookkeeper told me last week, on June 3, that our raffle ticket sales are continuing to outpace last year's sales. As of that day, we have sold $45,456—an increase of $11,571 over last year at this same time. The Summer Festival is one month from now, on July 8, 9, & 10. It should be a lot of fun, and please call Maureen Kraizel to volunteer to help if you have not yet done so.

Saint Gabriel Parish, 9925 Johnnycake Ridge Road, Concord, is hosting a Night of Healing Prayer on this Friday, June 17, 7:00-9:00 pm. It is sponsored by Gabriel's Messengers (St. Gabriel Healing Prayer Ministry) and Heart of Jesus (St. Helen Healing Prayer Ministry), and the night of prayer will be lead by Father Jacob Bearer and Father David Stavarz. All are welcome to join them in this night of prayer, praise and healing. For more information, contact Father Dave at 440-352-8282.

Father Bob Stec asked me to remind you to save the date of Sunday, August 7 to attend the FEST. It will be a "homecoming" as the FEST returns to the Center for Pastoral Leadership in Wickliffe and brings together 40,000+ from across our Diocese and region. This inspiring day of faith, family and fun will again be free so that everyone can come together and enjoy the live music of Crowder, Phil Wickham, We The Kingdom, Micah Talyer, and Rhett Walker. Check www.TheFest.us for more information.

Father Mark Latkovich asked me to let you know that the annual Borromeo Seminary Challenge Scholarship Golf Outing will take place on Monday, August 1, at Silver Lake Country Club, 1325 Graham Road, Silver Lake, Ohio. Check at CLEpriesthood.org for more information. The funds raised at this golf outing allow the seminary to provide room and board scholarships for diocesan students during their first year at Borromeo Seminary.

If you are feeling overwhelmed by a loved one's incarceration, there is help at Saint Noel Church on the third Monday of every month at 7:00 pm. Meetings are anonymous and you are able to join in conversation and fellowship with others who will listen, encourage and assist. It is called LEAF Ministry: Listening, Encouraging, and Assisting Families of the Incarcerated. Check out www.leafministry.org.

Some parishioners and I continue to explore the possibility of doing a fundraiser in the fall for the people of Ukraine. Our next planning meeting will take place on Thursday, June 23, in the Parish Office Center, at 7:00 pm. Please continue to pray for peace in our world and an end to violence. FTJ

Matthew Fritz joined our staff last week for the new position of Property Manager. Matthew has worked as Director of Facilities and Information Systems at Providence House in Cleveland, Assistant Director of Venues and Events for the Cleveland Orchestra, and Director of Facilities at Cleveland Racquet Club and Cleveland Skating Club. He was a parishioner of Saint Gabriel Parish in Concord and is a 2005 graduate of Lake Catholic High School. He studied at Lakeland College and Kent State University and came highly recommended to us by those who know him. He enjoys outdoor activities like boating and hiking, visiting parks and spending time with family and friends. He joins our staff at a time when we need a knowledgeable person like him who can help us to maintain our many buildings, oversee our roof replacement project, and prepare for the future of the parish as we approach our 53rd anniversary of founding.

Thank you to the parishioners who responded to Father Johns' request a few weeks ago to join in making a pledge or donation to the Rays of Mercy Campaign. Several individuals came forward in the past two weeks to help us come closer to meeting our goal of $3.75 million. We soon will reach a total of $2.8 million, and every donation helps us come closer to the goal. By now the cross on the top of the church should be completely painted to return to its original color, and work on the east side of the roof should be near to completion. Then work begins on the west side of the roof, the roof facing the parking lot. 50% of the wood on the east side had to be replaced due to moisture. Continue to pray for safety of all.

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Congratulations to the All Saints School 8th grade graduates!
We are so proud of you!

My name is Justin Brenneman, and I have just finished eighth grade at All Saints School. I am starting high school at Lake Catholic in the fall. My two brothers and sister also went to All Saints. My sister graduated from The Ohio State University. I started at All Saints in kindergarten, and this school has really made me improve as a student and as a person. My family and I love this school. I hope to play soccer and basketball as a Cougar at Lake Catholic. I can't wait to make new friends in my new school.

My name is Graham Bryant, and I attended All Saints School. My time at All Saints has been great. I have made so many friends. I have recently graduated and will be attending University School in the fall. I have played hockey and lacrosse for the past ten years, and I plan on playing these sports in high school. All Saints has taught me so many life skills that will help me through my high school experience and beyond. This school is full of many great people who will continue to teach and spread God's word.

My name is Sophia Cicerini. I have been at All Saints School from kindergarten to eighth grade. I will be attending Hawken High School this upcoming 2022-2023 school year. My two older sisters also went to All Saints School and Hawken. In my free time, I enjoy playing video games, soccer, basketball, and hanging out with my friends. I hope to continue these activities next year. I am looking forward to trying new things such as Hawken's girls flag football, learning Spanish, and taking part in the various intensives Hawken offers. I will miss all the memories I made at All Saints, but I hope to continue to make new memories in the next four years at Hawken.

Good Luck in high school, Justin, Graham and Sophia!

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

Do you have a desire to pray for priests? Are you feeling called to pray for them on a regular basis? Then this ministry may be for you!

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop.

We started this women's prayer ministry at the parish last July. Today, almost 30 dedicated women are committed to ensuring that a Holy Hour is offered each day of the week for Fr. Johns, Fr. Dober, Fr. Clark, and Bishop Malesic. Next, we would like to form another group of seven women to pray for Bishop-elect Michael Woost. We are in need of more substitutes too.

If you are interested in joining a group, being a substitute, or learning more, you're invited to an informational meeting on Wednesday, June 22 at 6:30 pm in the JP11 room. Brook Roberts, the Cleveland Diocesan Coordinator for Seven Sisters, will be our guest along with some of the women who are already part of this prayer ministry. Please RSVP to the parish office no later than Monday, June 20.
