DIOCESAN EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL: The Diocesan Vicar for Evangelization, Fr. Damian Ference, is requesting that the official Diocesan Eucharistic Revival hymn (Lord, I Am Not Worthy) be sung during Communion in the parishes of the Diocese of Cleveland on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi for the opening of the Eucharistic Revival. The song was written by newly ordained Fr Joe Menkhaus, Fr Connor Hetzel, Monica Menkhaus, and Max Menkhaus.

Refrain text: Matthew 8:8, Lord, I am not worthy. Words & Music: © 2022, Fr. Joe Menkhaus, Fr. Connor Hetzel, Monica Menkhaus, Max Menkhaus.

Gathered at the altar of our God and King, we present ourselves. We are wounded sinners in need of grace; you restore our health.

As we eat your flesh sacrificed for us, we are made strong. As we drink your blood poured out for us, we are washed clean.

Body, blood, and soul and divinity, You give as gift to us. Now we become You whom we receive; In You we place our trust.

You took upon Yourself our humanity, You humbled Yourself. You give us a share in Your divinity; In You we find our help.

Unless you eat the flesh of the son of Man and drink of His blood, You do not share life within you; So come and thirst no more.

Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Sacrificial Lamb of this great feast, grant us peace.

DISCIPLESHIP Maureen Kraizel

There are less than three weeks before Festival 2022 (July 8-10). If you have not yet done so, please send in your Volunteer Sign-up Form as soon as possible. Forms are available in the bulletin and online at the Parish website www.sjmentor.org. Area Leaders and Game Captains are working on filling in their schedules now.

Chuck-a-Luck has just been added back to the Festival's Midway line-up. Adult volunteers are needed to staff this very popular game. It is one of the games on the Midway that will not accept tickets, other Midway games that will not accept tickets include the Money Jar and the Money Wheel.

Speaking of Midway Game Tickets, adult volunteers are needed to staff the ticket sales booth which is located adjacent to the games. Cash or credit cards will be accepted to purchase tickets at the following prices: $1 for a single ticket, $10 to purchase 11 tickets and $20 will purchase 25 tickets. Want to avoid the line and get right to playing the games when you arrive? Members of the Festival Core Committee plan to sell tickets in advance after each of the July 3rd weekend Masses at our table which will be located outdoors adjacent to the church entrance. To contact me about these or any other volunteer opportunities available, please call 440.255-0600, extension 225. Have a great week!

Or perhaps in your own life? No matter how much violence and mayhem are going on, we have a place of safety and hope. And that is in Jesus' Healing and Merciful Love. Both Mother Teresa and St. Faustina tell us that Jesus thirsts for us to ask for His Healing and Mercy. Come, bring a friend and join the Women's Prayer Group on Sunday, June 26, at 7:00 pm in the Chapel. Pray with us for these precious gifts of Jesus' Sacred Heart. All women are welcome! Questions? SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

Do you have a desire to pray for priests? Are you feeling called to pray for them on a regular basis? Then this ministry may be for you! The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop.

We started this women's prayer ministry at the parish last July. Today, almost 30 dedicated women are committed to ensuring that a Holy Hour is offered each day of the week for Fr. Johns, Fr. Dober, Fr. Clark, and Bishop Malesic. Next, we would like to form another group of seven women to pray for Bishop-elect Michael Woost. We are in need of more substitutes too.

If you are interested in joining a group, being a substitute, or learning more, you're invited to an informational meeting on Wednesday, June 22 at 6:30 pm in the JP11 room. Brook Roberts, the Cleveland Diocesan Coordinator for Seven Sisters, will be our guest along with some of the women who are already part of this prayer ministry. Please RSVP to the parish office no later than Monday, June 20.

RESPECT LIFE

"For a Christian to speak or act publicly in a pro-choice manner is a scandal to the Gospel and Name of Jesus Christ."

Mending Wall BY ROBERT FROST

Something there is that doesn't love a wall,
That sends the frozen-ground-swell under it,
And spills the upper boulders in the sun;
And makes gaps even two can pass abreast.
The work of hunters is another thing:
I have come after them and made repair
Where they have left not one stone on a stone,
But they would have the rabbit out of hiding,
To please the yelping dogs. The gaps I mean,
No one has seen them made or heard them made,
But at spring mending-time we find them there.
I let my neighbor know beyond the hill;
And on a day we meet to walk the line
And set the wall between us once again.
We keep the wall between us as we go.
To each the boulders that have fallen to each.
And some are loaves and some so nearly balls
We have to use a spell to make them balance:
'Stay where you are until our backs are turned!'
We wear our fingers rough with handling them.
Oh, just another kind of out-door game,
One on a side. It comes to little more:
There where it is we do not need the wall:
He is all pine and I am apple orchard.
My apple trees will never get across
And eat the cones under his pines, I tell him.
He only says, 'Good fences make good neighbors.'
Spring is the mischief in me, and I wonder
If I could put a notion in his head:
'Why do they make good neighbors? Isn't it
Where there are cows? But here there are no cows.
Before I built a wall I'd ask to know
What I was walling in or walling out,
And to whom I was like to give offense.
Something there is that doesn't love a wall,
That wants it down.' I could say 'Elves' to him,
But it's not elves exactly, and I'd rather
He said it for himself. I see him there
Bringing a stone grasped firmly by the top
In each hand, like an old-stone savage armed.
He moves in darkness as it seems to me,
Not of woods only and the shade of trees.
He will not go behind his father's saying,
And he likes having thought of it so well
He says again, 'Good fences make good neighbors.'

Ken Flery

Every physical human invention, at some point, degrades, and it can be surprising how quickly nature may take over a neglected parking lot or playground. One spiritual lesson we could take from this natural reality is that we are not meant to put our stock in a world that fades but in a world that is eternal. Robert Frost offers another lesson: some human inventions stifle the natural order and the good which it imparts on humanity.

In this poem, the speaker says twice, "Something there is that doesn't love a wall." One can call that 'something' the natural order, but we would call it God, who made that natural order. Frost juxtaposes this line with another repeated phrase from the neighbor who says, "Good fences make good neighbors." Frost suggests that the neighbor's line is a human invention that conflicts with the truth nature wants to express. Nature desires to topple walls and blur lines of separation, while people often conclude that it's best to make distinctions between groups and properties and avoid unnecessary intermingling.

Especially this Sunday as we highlight the gift of Christ's Body and Blood, we should recognize the ways we focus on secluding ourselves from our neighbors and strive to grow in deeper union with each other. In receiving the Eucharist, we don't only unify ourselves with the Son of God but also with the entire worshiping body of Christ, the Church. As we unite spiritually with our brothers and sisters, let us work to unite with them personally, inviting them to our homes, meeting someone new, or bring someone to the parish who would benefit from the Body of Christ in the Eucharist and in the our community of faith.

During the month of June the pantry volunteers would like to treat our families to something a little different. This month we would like to be able to provide picnic items to families coming in to the pantry. Some suggestions are cookies, the makings for s'mores, a box of brownies, cookie mix or ice pops, condiments (ketchup, mustard, relish), etc. Who doesn't like a picnic?

ANOTHER ROOF RELATED ITEM: Father Johns mentioned last week in the bulletin that, due to the work on the roof, we need to no longer permit families to do visitation in the gathering space prior to a funeral Mass. The workers on the roof need to take a break from their work whenever we have a funeral or visitation. With so many funerals at the parish each week and so many other requests for visitation in the church space rather than a funeral home, roof repairs were falling behind schedule. This will be the policy until the roof is completed. Thanks.

Mary Mother of God Mission Society

Reviving the Roman Catholic Church in Eastern Russia

Dear Parishioners,
Next weekend, June 25 & 26, Father Daniel Maurer, from Mary Mother of God Mission Society and the Vladivostok Mission, will visit our parish to give the annual summer Mission Appeal. He will speak about the Roman Catholic Mission Churches in Eastern Russia. In the early 1900s, the Russian Far East boasted a thriving Roman Catholic population. After the revolution of 1917, Russia became a land without churches and without God. Under Stalin, all Catholic churches were confiscated and dioceses were closed. Most churches were desecrated or destroyed and Catholics were murdered by the hundreds of thousands. In 1992, two American priests, Father Dan and a colleague, Father Myron, arrived in Vladivostok to help re-establish the Church in this region and provide charitable assistance to the many poor. Now that the foundations have been laid, additional priests and sisters are joining the work, and parishes are growing and multiplying, very slowly, but surely. Father Dan will ask for our prayers and for our financial support in a second collection at Mass next weekend. Please be generous and welcome him to our parish.

On this Father's Day Weekend, we give thanks to our heavenly Father for the gift of our own fathers and the other men in our life who help us to be good Christians. If your dad is deceased, pray for the repose of his soul, and, if you are lucky to still have your dad alive and well, say or do something today to make the day special for you and for him. We will remember our dads in all the Masses this weekend. Speaking of good fathers, we should remember Father Robert Kline on this Friday, June 24. It will be the 11th anniversary of his passing. The 8:00 morning Mass on that day will be offered for him. His niece recently sent to me a picture of Father Kline with Pope John Paul II. I also have a similar picture of Father Jack Valley with the Holy Father. Father Kline is shaking hands with the Holy Father while Father Valley was giving him a big bear hug! May God grant eternal rest and peace to all the deceased priests, deacons and bishops of the Diocese of Cleveland.

The Parish Pastoral Council will meet on Monday evening at 7:00 in the Large Conference Room. One of the items on the agenda will be the discernment of new members. Thank you to the members of the parish who did submit applications for council. I appreciate your willingness to serve and you should be notified soon if chosen to do so. Parishioners who volunteered to help with a fundraiser for the Ukraine are reminded of the meeting on this Thursday at 7:00 pm in the John Paul II Room. We hope to make a decision regarding the date and the type of fundraiser to have, and how to use the funds we raise to help those in need. Please continue to pray for peace in the Ukraine and for an end to all acts of violence in our own country as well.

You may notice in your packet of offertory envelopes that there is an envelope for Peter's Pence Collection next weekend, June 26. This annual appeal supports the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works to assist those on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression and disaster.

Some parishioners gathered with me in the John Paul II Room last week on Thursday to view an episode from season two of The Chosen. The episode we watched and discussed was "Thunder," the story of how Jesus gave to James and John the new nickname "the sons of thunder." Next Thursday, June 30, at 7:00, we will view episode two of season two, "I Saw You," the story of the call of Nathanael. Call the Parish Office if you wish to join us.

One of our very active and long-time parishioners passed away on Wednesday, June 8, at Hospice House of the Western Reserve—Mrs. Patricia Johnson. She was the loving wife of Jack for 62 years and the mom of Cheryl and Cyndi. Pat was a Eucharistic minister here, a member of Families in Christ, worked at Hospitality at the summer festival, and prayed rosary and attended Mass daily. She will be missed. Rest in peace. TJ

We mentioned last week at the Masses how it was going to be a busy few weeks this month with regard to our roof replacement project. If all went well as anticipated, Friday, June 17, was the day for the large crane to arrive and remove all six air conditioning units from the roof so that the roofing pads could be completed on all the flat roofs by Monday, June 27. Hopefully on June 27, the large crane will return to lift the six air conditioning units back on the roof. To keep everyone safe on that day, the church and the parish office once again will be closed and you are asked to avoid those areas where work is being done or where the large equipment is placed (unless you will be attending Mass in the Social Center at 8:00 and 11:00). If the weather does not cooperate, there may be some delays with this schedule.

On Thursday, June 16, the chilling units were to be installed for the church so that we would have cooling for the weekend Masses, weddings and funerals in the church between now and June 27.

This week, from June 20 to June 24, all the weekday Masses will be celebrated in the church, no Masses in the chapel. We appreciate your patience as we continue to work on the roof project. Your prayers are helping us to keep workers safe and to get the work done quickly. Please continue to pray and please consider making a pledge or donation to the Rays of Mercy Campaign if you have not yet done so. We could use some additional funds to reach our desired goal.
