CATHOLIC PARISH

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:61-62

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JUNE 26, 2022, YEAR C

REFLECTION:

God's call to any one of us demands a faith-filled commitment that may help us follow him. Elisha responds faithfully when, in today's first reading, Elijah anoints him as a prophet under God's urgent call. The disciples of Jesus experienced the same call to be committed to his mission, especially when they saw that others who were called, like them, did not respond or when certain populations, like Samaritans, rejected them. Faced with the uncertainty of our response to God's call, Saint Paul invites us to evaluate ourselves in light of the gifts of the Spirit or according to the selfless interests that, far from the Spirit, we tend to seek. This vocational theme is appropriate for those who are discerning a call to the priesthood and the religious life, but it may also serve as an instrument for many to examine their own vocation today and who seek to be affirmed by God and the Church in their service. Source: liturgy.com

NPM CONVENTION: The National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM) fosters the art of musical liturgy. This week, I will be attending the NPM National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky. I look forward to a week of learning, praying, and connecting with fellow musicians. I will dedicate my morning rosary to the wonderful people of St. John Vianney this week and look forward to sharing my NPM experiences with you all when I return!

SAVE THE DATE: I will be hosting a series of Funeral Mass Planning opportunities for those of you that like to plan ahead or are curious about the beautiful, new funeral music available to us. Our first opportunity will be on Monday, July 18; one session at 8:45 am and the other at 6:00 pm. Both sessions will be held in the chapel.

INCREASE OF COSTS
As is the case with just about everything, there is a 30% increase in cost of votive candles and delivery. As a result, we have increased the cost of votive candles at SJV from $2 to $3.

DISCIPLESHIP Maureen Kraizel

There are less than two weeks before Festival 2022 (July 8-10.). If you have not yet done so, please send in your Volunteer Sign-up Form as soon as possible. Forms are available in the bulletin and online at the Parish website www.sjvmentor.org. Area Leaders and Game Captains are working on filling in their schedules now.

Most of the food items for the St. John Vianney Summer Festival are made by Glenn Liebhardt of Cater 2 You, on the Parish property, in the Social Center. Glenn always makes delicious culinary creations. To be able to supply the freshest and tastiest festival goodies, we are seeking experienced cooks to help Glenn during festival hours.

Preparation of delicious food requires the use of many pots, pans, and utensils. We also seek volunteers to help with washing them beginning at 10:00 pm on Fri. and Sat. and 8:00 pm on Sunday. One of the areas that relies on Glenn's expertise is the Fast-Food Tent. Cathy Pavosevic is the Area Leader and is seeking volunteers for all shifts throughout the festival. The job descriptions for F.F. volunteers include the following tasks: cashiering, running food from Social Center to Fast-Food tent, collecting food items ordered and delivering to customers, and working at a station where foods are assembled to order. To contact me about these or any other volunteer opportunities available, please call 440.255.0600, extension 225. Have a great week!

RESPECT LIFE

Gentle St. Francis, you were so devoted to the humanity of Christ. Your heart burst with appreciation toward God for taking on human life. You saw beauty and goodness in all living things— in birds that sing, the fish that fill our waters, and all that lives in nature.

Help us to imitate your reverence for life wherever it may be. Especially, humble Francis of Assisi, help us to help others to see the worth of each living, unborn baby sheltered in its mother's womb.

May all mankind have the grace to understand that these tiny, budding lives have the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Do you worry about all the disruption, turmoil, evil and greed in our world today? Or perhaps in your own life? No matter how much violence and mayhem are going on, we have a place of safety and hope. And that is in Jesus' Healing and Merciful Love. Both Mother Teresa and St. Faustina tell us that Jesus thirsts for us to ask for His Healing and Mercy. Come, bring a friend and join the Women's Prayer Group today, Sunday, June 26, at 7:00 pm in the Chapel. Pray with us for these precious gifts of Jesus' Sacred Heart. All women are welcome! Questions? Email Cathy Sullivan at: cathysullivan474@gmail.com

THE ANNUAL SJV BLESSING OF BICYCLES WILL TAKE PLACE AT THE END OF THE 10:30 OUTDOOR MASS ON SUNDAY, JULY 3. THERE ARE SOME PRIZES FOR THE BEST PATRIOTIC, DECORATED BIKES.

DEACON DOMINIC GIDEON

I, Too

BY LANGSTON HUGHES

I, too, sing America.

I am the darker brother.
They send me to eat in the kitchen
When company comes,
But I laugh,
And eat well,
And grow strong.

Tomorrow,
I'll be at the table
When company comes.
Nobody'll dare
Say to me,
"Eat in the kitchen,"
Then.

Besides,
They'll see how beautiful I am
And be ashamed—

I, too, am America.

In the Gospel this Sunday, we see James and John earn their nickname "the Sons of Thunder" as they desire to smite the Samaritans with heavenly fire for rejecting their plan to bring Jesus to them. Jesus rebuked the brothers, implying his support of a less vindictive response to those hostile to the Good News of Christ. Instead, Jesus advocates facing such rejection with dignity, continuing to witness the love and peace of the Gospel which leads to far more effective evangelization than violence.

In this poem, Langston Hughes echoes Jesus' gracious reaction to rejection — in his case, particularly racial subjugation. The speaker in the poem humbly receives the injustice of social bigotry but does so with grace and hope. He doesn't glower or fight back, but embraces the joy and blessings he can take advantage of as he laugh, eats well, and grows strong. In doing so, those at the table will recognize his delightful human dignity and accept him as an equal in their American experience. May we both receive our own rejections with grace and hope and recognize the meek in our midst whom we're called to lift up in our cultural, social, and parish circles.

During the month of June the pantry volunteers would like to treat our families to something a little different. This month we would like to be able to provide picnic items to families coming in to the pantry. Some suggestions are cookies, the makings for s'mores, a box of brownies, cookie mix or ice pops, condiments (ketchup, mustard, relish), etc. Who doesn't like a picnic?

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Summer Vacation Bible School went very well last week for about 45 children from the parish. The theme this year was "Monumental," a time for the children to reflect on how very great is God's love for everyone. Each day began with prayer and singing, a lesson on God's love, a snack, a craft, and time to play with new friends. Thank you to Mandy Hart, our Faith Formation Director, Connie Frustere, her administrative assistant, and the many teen and adult volunteers who helped with the program over the four day period of time. The parish roof project necessitated a few last minute changes each day but everyone was flexible and was able to adapt to the required changes in the plan. The older I get, the more I appreciate the importance of being flexible and being able to adapt to change with grace and kindness. As usual, God was good and granted good weather each day, and kept everyone safe and healthy!

On the third day of Vacation Bible School, the children and volunteers were entertained with the very large crane which arrived in the morning to carefully remove the six large air conditioners from the roofs of the church so that the roof pads could be replaced over the next few days. If all goes well and as expected (and if the weather cooperates), the crane should return on this Monday to return the air conditioners to the roofs and get them operating once again. It was, and is, a complex and very costly process that needed to be done. It has been a challenging week with no air conditioning in the Parish Office or meeting rooms but we were fortunate to have the portable unit to keep the church at least chilled a bit for the weekend Masses, the funerals and the weddings. If the crane is able to return on this Monday, the Parish Office Center will need to be closed once again for the safety and well-being of staff and parishioners. Weekday Masses (8:00 & 11:00) likely will continue to be celebrated in the Social Center to allow the roof workers to work without too many interruptions. I will keep you posted via Vianney Voice and the Digital Sign at the entrance to our property.

I continue to be so grateful to Stan Lipinski and the members of the Facilities Committee for all the preliminary work they have been doing for the past year on this comprehensive roof project. I know that it has been very time consuming for them. If all goes well, the roof project, including eight pitched or flat roofs, gutters, downspouts, etc. should be completed by mid-to-late September. Bishop Malesic is scheduled to join us to bless our new roof and to celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at 4:00 on Saturday, October 1, when we will have our second annual "Founders Day." After Mass there will be a reception in the parking lot and Social Center so that you can meet the Bishop and we can celebrate the successful completion of this project.

This is the weekend when we welcome to the parish Father Daniel Maurer from Mary Mother of God Mission Society and the Vladivostok Mission for the annual summer Mission Appeal. Father Dan will ask for our prayers and for our financial support in a second collection which will be taken today at each Mass. On this Thursday evening, at 7:00, in the John Paul II Room, we will view episode two of season two of The Chosen. The episode is entitled "I Saw You," the story of the call of the apostle Nathanael who sat under the fig tree. We read the scripture passages on which the episode is based, watch the film, and spend a little time discussing it. The Summer Festival will be here soon and we need volunteers, especially to help with set-up. Call Maureen if you can help. Have a good week. Father Tom Johns

ROOF AND CAMPAIGN UPDATE

Progress continues to be made on the roof replacement project. As said elsewhere in this bulletin, the crane should be here on Monday to return the six air conditioners to their places on the roofs. Please avoid the area around the church and the Parish Office Center on Monday if you see the crane present. 8:00 and 11:00 Masses on Monday (and possibly other days) will be celebrated in the Social Center.

Our first roof payment request ($438,000) was received the other day from Runyon and we also anticipate a payment request ($100,000) from Geauga Mechanical very soon. As you can see, this project will be a costly one; so, please continue to support the Rays of Mercy Campaign. We have 496 donors so far. The actual cash received is $932,896 and the outstanding pledges are $822,712. Total received and pledged is $1,755,608. When you add the additional funds from the estate gift and our investments, the campaign total is $2,755,608. Recall that the campaign goal is $3.75 million. Please know that any help you can give us is greatly appreciated. We counted the coins and cash in the gathering space donation jar and the total was $971. Every little bit definitely does help. Thanks so much.

As of June 17, raffle ticket sale total is $58,762! That is $7,277 higher than last year's total at this time. Thanks for selling/buying your share of tickets.

EDUCATION & FORMATION

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Congratulations to the All Saints School 8th grade graduates!
We are so proud of you!

Hi, I'm Kylie Lavalley, and I live in Mentor, Ohio. I just finished 8th grade at All Saints School, and I'll be going to Gilmour Academy next year. In my free time I enjoy ice skating, running, and theater. I hope to continue these activities throughout high school. I have made many great friends and fun memories at All Saints. Although I am sad to leave my All Saints family, I'm excited to move onto future endeavors.

My name is Magi, and I have just finished 8th grade at All Saints School. I am going to NDCL for high school. I have three younger siblings who attend All Saints. I like to draw, do archery, watch YouTube, and read Webtoons in my free time. I hope to become an online influencer or sell my art online. If that does not work, I would like to be an art teacher. I hope I'll stay friends with everyone I know from All Saints.

Hello, my name is Tristan Negrelli. I have attended All Saints School for the last eight years of my life. I will be attending Lake Catholic High School in the fall. I am a three sport athlete playing football, baseball and basketball. I hope to continue these sports in high school.

Good Luck in high school, Kylie, Magi and Tristan!

This logo was commissioned by the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland to recognize the convergence of three major events: our participation in Pope Francis' Synod on Synodality, our partaking in the National Eucharistic Revival, and the joyful celebration of our 175th anniversary as a diocese.

At the center of this image are the host and the chalice, symbolizing the Eucharist, the source and summit of our lives as Catholic Christians. Bold, striking rays pour out from behind the host, symbolic of the inexhaustible grace that flows at every Eucharistic liturgy, grace that turns sinners into saints.

At the base of the chalice are the letters "CLXXV" which represent the Roman numerals for "175," designating the 175th anniversary of our diocese. Four words – GATHERED, BLESSED, BROKEN, SHARED – remind us of our Eucharistic identity as the People of God, whose lives take on their fullest meaning only when we give them away in sacrificial love. The blue tone serves as a reminder of the Blessed Virgin, the one who constantly and lovingly encourages us, "Do whatever He tells you."
