FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 3, 2022, YEAR C

REFLECTION: When the Israelites lived in exile for centuries, their hope was focused on returning to Jerusalem, the holy city, and especially to the Temple, the site of their spiritual roots. As the years went by, the hope of their return was transformed into maintaining their identity as Israelites wherever they lived. In today's readings, we sense their longing for Jerusalem in Isaiah's reading and the affirmation of their cultural identity in Saint Paul's, who also adds a new spiritual dimension: Christ, the Lord. Paul carries on his own body the marks of the Lord, superior to circumcision, for, by the mercy of God, Paul has understood and accepted suffering as grace. What is our hope? What are our future projects? Are we willing to discern them in the light of the Gospel texts? Just as Jesus sent his disciples to preach good news, he also sends us with our family members to sow the seeds of the good news in our neighborhoods. Source: liturgy.com

SAVE THE DATE: I will be hosting a series of Funeral Mass Planning opportunities for those of you that like to plan ahead or are curious about the beautiful, new funeral music available to us. Our first opportunity will be on Monday, July 18; one session at 8:45 AM and the other at 6:00 PM. Both sessions will be held in the chapel.

PRELUDE: Please join in the refrain of the prelude song
"Rays of Mercy"

"Your rays of mercy shine down on all your lowly servants.
Your rays of mercy shine down on your children."

INCREASE OF COSTS
As is the case with just about everything, there is a 30% increase in cost of votive candles and delivery. As a result, we have increased the cost of votive candles at SJV from $2 to $3.

Next week, July 8-10 is Festival Time; that makes this week crunch time.

As always, we have plenty of opportunities still available to help make the Festival a success. Every little bit of time that you have to give is very much appreciated. If you find that you have some time to spare; contact me at 440.255.0600, ext. 225 or Maureen@sjvmentor.org. If you do not find out that you have time until the weekend has arrived—no worries; just stop by the Hospitality Booth and let the volunteers there know. They will contact me and we will put you to work where help is needed.

We also hope that you will help us to make our biggest "fun"draiser a big success by attending the festival to play a few games, eat some delicious food, participate in the basket raffle, duck races and the many chances to have fun and donate to the parish.

Don't forget, it is not too late to turn in your raffle tickets. Will you be one of the names that Fr. Johns pulls out of the tumbler at 9:15 pm on Sunday evening???

Have a great week!

RESPECT LIFE

Dear Parishioners of St. John Vianney Parish,
A sincere thank you to all of you for your incredibly generous gift of $3671.15 from your Ash Wednesday collection that you gave to support the families of Birthright Lake, Inc. Your kindness is so appreciated, and this truly helps us help our clients each day with needed clothing, diapers, formula, and other baby and toddler items.

Your generosity and support are vital to our continued success in caring for the hundreds of families in Lake County with little ones who need our assistance throughout the year.

Thank you again for your thoughtfulness and have a Blessed Year!

Warmest regards,

DEACON DOMINIC GIDEON

Praying with Poetry

By Dcn. Dominic Gideon

Longing for Prophets

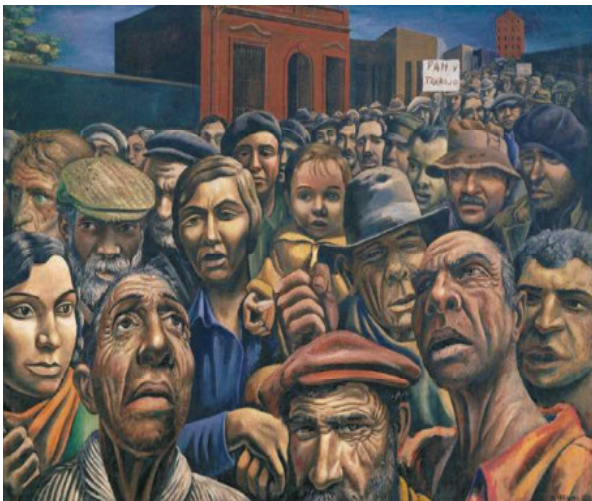

BY SHIRLEY KAUFMAN

Not for their ice-pick eyes,
 their weeping willow hair,
 and their clenched fists beating at heaven.
 Not for their warnings, predictions of doom. But what they promised.
 I don't care if their beards
 are mildewed, and the ladders are broken. Let them go on picking the wormy fruit. Let the one with the yoke around his neck
 climb out of the cistern.
 Let them come down from the heights
 in their radiant despair
 like the Sankei Juko dancers descending on ropes, down from these hills
 to the earth of their first existence.
 Let them follow the track
 we've cut on the sides of mountains
 into the desert, and stumble again through the great rift, littered with bones and the walls of cities.
 Let them sift through the ashes with their burned hands. Let them tell us what will come after.

At times in our country, our spirit of American freedom devolves into a rebellious impulse to disavow higher authority and mistrust those who strive to lead us; yet deep down, we all desire to cling to some sort of truth from someone's mouth. Thus even the radical nonconformist is the faithful disciple of some thinker or pundit.

In today's Gospel, we see the efficacy of the 72 disciples when they preach the coming of God's Kingdom to people hungering for something to satisfy their spiritual desires. Because of the power and the beauty of the Good News and the joy and authenticity with which a disciple presents it, people will embrace it in droves. But Jesus warns the disciples at the end of the passage not to get caught up in their own success in ministry but in the eternal goodness they have received and want to share.

In her poem, Kaufman points to a message similar to that of Jesus: people want prophets for the hope they offer of a better future on earth and especially in heaven. Their predictions of doom and their eccentric actions may indeed play a pivotal part in their mission, but their foresight of hope truly draws people. May we be prophets who share our faith through our joyful hope we witness to others every day.

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

I hope that you have a great holiday weekend. Mass will be celebrated in the front of the church on Monday, July 4, at 9:00, and the Parish Office Center will be closed for the holiday. We will reopen on Tuesday morning at 8:30. Be careful and stay safe this weekend!

The Catholic Faith, Family and Fun Festival, the FEST, will take place on Sunday, August 7, at the Center for Pastoral Leadership. The theme this year is "Homecoming" as we celebrate the return of the FEST to the Borromeo Campus after a two year absence. A representative of the FEST is here this weekend to encourage you to save the date and plan to attend next month. A FEST display table is in the church gathering space with information on the schedule of events for this year's event.

There is also a table in the gathering space with information about our parish festival which will take place next weekend, July 8, 9, & 10. Please stop by and let us know if you are able to volunteer at one or more of the booths or activities. We definitely still need help and anything you can do to help will be greatly appreciated by me and other members of the staff. Thank you to the members of the Festival Core Committee for the work they have done the past few months and thanks to the day-time crew, the evening crew and the Saturday crew for all the help with set-up. Some of those days were very hot days and I am sure it was not easy working here for so many hours. Please also keep in your prayers the roofers from Runyon for the hard work they continue to do daily to replace our roofs. I keep them in my daily prayers, especially on those very hot days when they are up on the roof. I can only imagine how hot it must be up there. I heard that one day the temperature gauge said 150 degrees! God bless those dedicated and hard working men from Runyon!

Progress continues to be made on the roof project. The crane was here last Monday and returned the roof air conditioners to their proper places which were prepared by the roofers for their return. I am hoping that by the time you are reading this, the air conditioners will be connected and working again. One of the two roof air conditioners for the church is not working to capacity as we wait for a part that has been on back order. To some people I know that is good news since some reported last year that it was too cold in the church. As I said last year, the coldest seats in the church are the ones that are in the back of the church, right below the vents which blow out the cool air for the rest of the church. When the units are working to capacity, remember if you want to avoid the cooler seats, move up to the front of the church. Those are also the seats which are closest to the speakers and are best suited for those who have a hard time hearing. One of the things we will purchase soon from the Rays of Mercy campaign funds is a device which will help the hearing-impaired to hear better in the church. Watch the bulletin for more information in the fall. You can see on the next page that we could use additional donations or pledges to help us reach our campaign goal. Please do what you can to help us and know that we appreciate all that you give and do for the parish.

We will be blessing bikes of all types today, on Sunday, July 3, after the 10:30 Mass in the parking lot. Prizes will be awarded to the riders of the bikes with the most patriotic decorations for Independence Day. I mentioned last year that this tradition was something my siblings and I looked forward to each year at Shore Acres Park on 151st Street in Cleveland each 4th of July weekend. All of my cousins would gather at grandma's house and head to the park on our decorated bikes. I hope that you are able to create some good memories for yourself and family on this holiday weekend.

Mass will be celebrated at Salida Woods Assisted Living on this Wednesday, July 6, at 3:00. You are welcome to join us for the Mass and to visit with the residents after Mass. After Thursday this week, there is not a lot going on at the parish other than the Summer Festival. The Festival opens on Friday at 6:00 with Karaoke on the Tent Stage and Tom Todd on the Garden Stage. All three of the Festival days include Kids' Wonderland, Game Midway, Food Pavilion, Fast Food, Monte Carlo, Raffle Baskets, Duck Races and more.

The Festival opens on Saturday with the Polka Mass in the church at 4:00. The Wojtila Band will play at Mass and then after Mass on the Tent Stage. Note the new time of the Polka Mass this year. In previous years, the Polka Mass took place at the last Sunday Mass, 12:15. This year, since the Festival on Sunday will not begin until 3:00, we moved the Polka Mass to Saturday. Our own Katie Cooper will play some Irish favorites on Saturday at the Garden Stage. The Beatles Tribute Band, the Rebeats, play on Saturday in the evening at the Tent Stage. This band came highly recommended to us. I will celebrate a Mass in the church at 11:15 pm on Saturday night for all the festival workers and for all of our guests who remain here until the closing.

The Festival opens on Sunday at 3:00 with Classic DJ on the Tent Stage and Dueling Piano Dames on the Garden Stage. The popular local Sumrada Band will play on Sunday evening and the Festival will end around 9:00 when we announce the Raffle Basket Winners and draw the winning ticket for the $15,000 Cash Raffle at 9:15. We will do some clean-up on Sunday night and then a lot more clean-up and tear-down on the following few days. Know that we can always use help with that process! God bless you and see you soon! FTJ

EDUCATION & FORMATION

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Congratulations to the All Saints School 8th grade graduates!
We are so proud of you!

Hello, my name is Carson Nekic, and I am a 2022 graduate at All Saints School. I am 14 years old and looking forward to attending St. Ignatius High School in the fall. All Saints is the place that I grew up at. I have attended since preschool and have cherished every moment of the grade school journey. In my free time I enjoy playing CYO basketball, playing the drums, and rooting for Cleveland sports teams. In the future, I would like to be a sports analyst or broadcaster. All Saints will always be a huge part of who I am no matter where I go.

My name is Colton Niederst, and I have just finished ten years, preschool through eighth grade, at All Saints School. I am going to Lake Catholic High School, where my mom, uncle and grandfather went, and I am very excited. I have a crazy brother who just finished first grade. I have two other brothers who are in college at Kent and Lakeland. I play football, baseball and basketball. I hope to become a pilot when I grow up.

My name is Evan Saline, and I have just finished eighth grade at All Saints School. I am attending Gilmour Academy in the fall. I am excited to play soccer and basketball as a Lancer, and maybe I will try some new sports out too. I have been at All Saints since the fifth grade. I have had a great time at All Saints and have met many new friends. In my eighth grade year, our basketball team won the CYO Championship. I have a sister who graduated from All Saints two years ago, and she currently attends Gilmour and loves it. I am excited to start my new path at Gilmour Academy.

Good Luck in high school, Carson, Colton and Evan!
