FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 10, 2022, YEAR C

REFLECTION: Our daily life is at times torn between fulfilling the commandments and exercising mercy. On many occasions, we know what we should do, but our hearts lead us along a different path. How can we decide? Today's Scripture may help us find an answer. In the book of Deuteronomy, Moses clarifies that God's commandments are reachable by all who are faithful to him not only through their mouth but also through their heart. The parable of the Good Samaritan reminds us that in an emergency, as when the man was robbed and thrown on the side of the road, mercy and compassion must prevail (the Levite probably did not want to become impure on his way to the Temple). Christ never abandons us and invites us to discern what we should do in whatever critical situation we may find ourselves. During this Year of Mercy, we must ask the Lord for patience and for more charity in the service of our neighbors. Source: liturgy.com

FUNERAL MASS PLANNING: I will be hosting a series of Funeral Mass Planning opportunities for those of you that like to plan ahead or are curious about the beautiful, new funeral music available to us. Our first opportunity will be on Monday, July 18; one session at 8:45 am and the other at 6:00 pm. Both sessions will be held in the chapel.

PRELUDE: Please join in the refrain of the prelude song
"Rays of Mercy"

"Your rays of mercy shine down on all your lowly servants.
Your rays of mercy shine down on your children."

INCREASE OF COSTS
As is the case with just about everything, there is a 30% increase in cost of votive candles and delivery. As a result, we have increased the cost of votive candles at SJV from $2 to $3.

DISCIPLESHIP Maureen Kraizel

Today is the last day of this year's Festival. Thank you to all of the wonderful volunteers who gave many hours of their time and talents to make Festival 2022 the best ever. Since all good things do have to end, the booths and tents will start coming down tomorrow. Help is still very much appreciated while the lawn and parking lot of the Parish property become empty once again. Make plans to attend Festival 2023 the weekend of July 14-16.

Volunteers who work with children are required to do the following:

1. Apply as a volunteer of St. John Vianney
2. Register on www.virtus.org as a first-time registrant
3. Register on the site to attend a live VirtusTraining
4. Submit a background check (this can be done through Selection.com when you register) Please call me or email me to receive a token code (valid for St. John Vianney volunteers only,) prior to completing this part of the registration process.
5. Read 24 monthly training bulletins sent to your email address.

There are two Virtus live trainings offered by St. John Vianney in August, on Monday August 15 6:00-9:00 pm in the John Paul II Room and on Sunday August 28, 4:00-5:30 pm in the Social Center. Space is limited for both sessions and registration on the Virtus website is required. Have a great week!

DEACON DOMINIC GIDEON

At the Galleria Shopping Mall

BY TONY HOAGLAND

Just past the bin of pastel baby socks and underwear, there are some 49-dollar Chinese-made TVs;

one of them singing news about a far-off war,
one comparing the breast size of an actress from Hollywood

to the breast size of an actress from Bollywood.
And here is my niece Lucinda,

who is nine and a true daughter of Texas,
who has developed the flounce of a pedigreed blonde

and declares that her favorite sport is shopping.
Today is the day she embarks upon her journey,

swinging a credit card like a scythe
through the meadows of golden merchandise.

Today is the day she stops looking at faces,
and starts assessing the labels of purses;

So let it begin. Let her be dipped in the dazzling bounty
and raised and wrung out again and again.

And let us watch.
As the gods in olden stories

turned mortals into laurel trees and crows to teach them some kind of lesson,

so we were turned into Americans
to learn something about loneliness.

Whether on the news, in conversation, or at church, we find a common desire in society for peace on earth.
The reason we are far from this reality is because true peace is not simply tolerance or non-violence, it is a unification of all people through loving compassion
in which each individual prioritizes others' wellbeing over his or her own. Though just about anyone you ask will say they support world peace, they don't realize it necessitates their own radical living out of that peace.

In today's Gospel of the Good Samaritan, we see a lack of peace as a man is beaten, robbed, and left for dead while multiple passersby maintain the societal discord by neglecting to help the man in need. The offenders of peace are driven by a self-interest that disconnects them from those around them and directly or indirectly brings about local disharmony.

In his poem, Hoagland shows how, in some ways, our American culture promotes selfish consumerism over concern for others by depicting a girl who "stops looking at faces and starts assessing the labels of purses." Our task as Christians is to show that this downside of our culture is not just a minor flaw, but a direct opponent to compassion and world peace.

Dear Parishioners,

As you can tell when you entered the parking lot, this is our big weekend of the annual summer festival. As I type this in advance, I am praying for good weather for the weekend and for the safety of all our visitors. I am also saying a prayer of thanksgiving for all who help us to make this happen so well each year—our Festival Core Committee and our many volunteers, donors and sponsors. I know that so many people work so hard for this three day event and it continues to be the major fundraiser at the parish. We are truly blessed with what I believe is the very best parish festival in Lake County. Everything is reasonably priced and it is definitely family-friendly with great food, entertainment and good company for all. Enjoy your time with us today and join us at 9:15 on Sunday night when we select the winner of the grand prize of $15,000! Maybe you will hear my voice on your phone tonight at 9:20!

Things were quiet at the parish this past week as we celebrated the 4th of July on Monday and then spent the next three days focusing on festival preparations. Obviously the pace picked up quite a bit on Friday when the festival began. Things will be busy this week as the work of festival tear down takes place for the next couple of days. Stop over and give us a hand when you have time. I am sure volunteers will be here most of the week and I know they all appreciate the help of others as do I.

On Thursday, July 14, at 7:00 pm, in the Holy Angels Room in the Philomena Center, we will view another episode of season two of The Chosen. We begin the session by reading the passages in the Bible on which the particular episode is based. We then view the film and also spend a little time after to discuss what impressed us. This episode is the healing of the paralytic at the Pool of Bethesda and the call of Simon the Zealot. There is no need to register for the session.

I mentioned in last week's bulletin that, as is the case with just about everything, there is a 30% increase in cost of candles and delivery. As a result, we have increased the cost of our votive candles from $2 to $3.00 in this new fiscal year.

PASTOR'S PAGE

You may have seen in the previous bulletins that there is a committee at the parish that is planning to host a fundraiser at the Social Center in December for the people of Ukraine. We may "adopt" a refugee family who comes to the Cleveland area through Catholic Charities or we may simply raise funds which will be sent to a Catholic Church in the Ukraine to help refugees. The date for the fundraiser is Saturday, December 10, and we are calling it "A Christmas for the Ukraine." We may begin with a polka Mass at 4:00 and then proceed to the Social Center for cocktails, Eastern European dinner, dancing, 50-50 raffle, side boards, Ukranian singers, and more. Watch the bulletin for more information and save the date.

The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is on July 16. On Saturday, July 16, and on Sunday, July 17, brown scapulars will be available for you in the back of the church, near the baptismal font (as the supply lasts), at the end of each weekend liturgy. The scapular is a sacramental and it is worn as a sign of love and devotion to Mary, our Mother and Queen. Mary promised supernatural favors and special protection to all persons who wear the scapular. It is not a magical charm, nor an automatic guarantee of salvation. It stands for your decision to follow Jesus, like Mary: open to God and his will; guided by faith, hope and charity; close to the needs of all people, especially the poor and the outcast; praying at all times; and discovering God's presence in all that happens around us and to us. One of our priests or deacons, after Mass, will bless and invest the group of those who are interested in being enrolled in the Confraternity of Carmel. There is a pamphlet available to explain the value of the Brown Scapular and devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel. God bless you and have a great week. Hope to see you tonight! Fr. Johns

We continue to make progress on the roof project. By the time you read this, most of the roof on the "new church" will be completed and work will be taking place on the former church, the Parish Office Center. Thanks to the dedicated staffs at Runyon Roofing and Geauga Mechanical we were able to get the six air conditioners back in place on the roofs and functioning. The new shingles look great and soon the cross on the roof of the church will be painted. Meetings take place every Tuesday morning to review and assess progress on the project. We are grateful for the work being done by so many and we continue to pray for the successful completion of the project and the safety of all workers. Please support the Rays of Mercy Campaign to help the parish pay for all the work that continues to be done.

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Congratulations to the All Saints School 8th grade graduates!
We are so proud of you!

My name is Grace Stenger, and I just graduated from All Saints School. I will be attending Lake Catholic High School in the fall. In fourth grade I started playing volleyball for All Saints. I met many people that are now my closest friends. I decided to transfer to All Saints in fifth grade, and this decision made a huge impact on my life. I have grown so much as a person and have learned so much. I have made lifelong friends here and have been a part of many fun activities. I continued to play volleyball throughout my years at All Saints, and I am hoping to continue playing throughout my four years at Lake Catholic.

My name is Carmela Taraska, and I have been at All Saints School since kindergarten. I just graduated, and I will be attending Lake Catholic High School in the fall. Being at All Saints has made a very big impact on my life. I have made many friends and have learned so much. At All Saints, I was a part of the volleyball team. We were undefeated for two years. I am looking forward to playing in high school and cannot wait to make new friends and learn new things.

Hello my name is Brogan Woodie, and I graduated from All Saints School. I have three siblings, one being older than me and the other two being younger. I am glad to have finally graduated from All Saints School after nine years. I will be going to Willoughby South High School to hopefully become successful learning Spanish and coding. I am involved in many things such as cross country, serving Mass, and drumming in the school band. I will remember all of the great memories I have made at All Saints, and I hope to make more great memories in my future.

Good Luck in high school, Grace, Carmela and Brogan!

The next meeting of our Women’s Summer Book Study is Wednesday, July 20. We’ll share and discuss Prayer Week 3: St. Catherine of Siena, Who Sets An Example of Spiritual Power in God’s Loving Service. The morning session is in the JP11 room from 9:00 to 10:30 am; the evening session is in the Social Center from 7:00 to 8:30 pm. If you registered for this study, you’re welcome to join us for either session!

THE BROWN SCAPULAR

The Brown Scapular is associated with Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Her feast day is July 16. Wearing the scapular and joining in prayer have helped many people deepen their devotion to Mary and to strengthen their Catholic life. A person can be enrolled in the Brown Scapular Confraternity in a simple ceremony performed by a priest or deacon. Commitment to Confraternity includes: wear the Brown Scapular continuously; observe chastity according to one’s state in life; and recite daily five decades of the rosary or the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The brown scapular is an outward sign of an inward devotion, not some sort of magical token. It’s a sign of Mary’s protection, a sign that is only meaningful if it is accompanied by prayer and fidelity.

There will be a blessing ceremony for those who wish to be enrolled in the Brown Scapular Confraternity next weekend after each of the Masses. Please gather at the baptismal font after the closing hymn to be enrolled. For more information about the Brown Scapular, please see www.sistersofcarmel.com.

GUIDELINES PERTAINING TO FUNERAL (EULOGIES) REMARKS OF REMEMBRANCE

SOME THINGS TO CONSIDER REGARDING REMARKS OF REMEMBRANCE AT FUNERALS (EULOGIES)

We are in the process of updating information in the packets we give to families when they meet with the priest or deacon to plan a Mass of Christian Burial for a deceased loved one. The packet includes some appropriate readings from the Old and the New Testaments, suggested sacred hymns which could be used at the Mass, and information about the Order of Christian Funerals. We are now including in the packet some information from the Order of Christian Funerals concerning “Remarks of Remembrance” at funerals, what some people refer to as “Eulogies.” We wanted to share this information with you in the bulletin so that you would be aware of this in advance and so that you can also keep it in mind when you do think about planning a Mass of Christian Burial for a deceased loved one.

The Order of Christian Funerals states that “a member or a friend of the family may speak in remembrance of the deceased before the final commendation begins (i.e., at the end of the Mass of Christian Burial). In a Catholic funeral, the “Remarks of Remembrance” should be seen as a way to give praise and thanks to God for the life of the deceased. In other words, the remarks should place emphasis on how God has been seen acting in the life and in the death of the deceased or how God has blessed us and the world through the life and faithful example of the deceased. Note that this focus on God’s action is what differentiates “Remarks of Remembrance” from a eulogy. The Mass of Christian Burial is a time for the faithful to reflect on the life of the deceased and how he or she is a child of God who now prepares to be with the Lord in eternal life. The Mass looks to the glorious future which the Lord prepares for his own. The wake, on the other hand, is the time when the faithful are called to reflect on the past - the life of the deceased which has now ended.

The word “eulogy” comes from the Greek meaning “well or good words.” The eulogy tends to include few references to God and refers more to stories about how the deceased was a good person, about his or her accomplishments in this life, or about how the speaker interacted with the deceased. Eulogies definitely can help with the healing process for those experiencing grief but they are better or more appropriately done at the wake or at the luncheon which follows the Mass and burial. Those settings, especially the luncheon, are good places for funny or touching stories about the deceased and the longer and multiple tributes which in recent years have become problematic at the funeral Mass. Most guests who come to the Mass of Christian Burial plan to be there for about an hour and often there is another funeral scheduled immediately after the preceding one. Lengthy eulogies and requests for multiple eulogies at a Mass tend to create problems for the parish and the guests, and can take more time than the more important parts of the Mass of Christian Burial, i.e. scripture readings, Eucharistic prayer, prayers of final commendation, etc.

GUIDELINES PERTAINING TO FUNERAL (EULOGIES) REMARKS OF REMEMBRANCE

The following are guidelines to keep in mind when composing “Remarks of Remembrance.”

In order to assure that they are in harmony with the sacred character of the Mass, the church setting and the solemnity of the occasion, “Remarks of Remembrance” may be given at funerals at Saint John Vianney but should be guided by the following parameters:

- Since they are not strictly a eulogy, the remarks should not simply be a lengthy listing of the accomplishments of the deceased. References to a relationship with God should be included, and care should be taken that the remarks do not become a recitation of stories about the speaker.
- Ordinarily, there is to be only one person who offers Remarks of Remembrance at the Funeral Mass. Others should be encouraged to speak at the wake, the graveside service, or the luncheon. In exceptional cases (e.g. an untimely death or tragic circumstances), the priest may permit more than one person to speak. Even when that is the case, the remarks of one or both should not last more than five minutes. Remarks should be prepared in advance and written out beforehand and not given “off-the-cuff” so the speaker can stay focused on the text and stay within the time constraints.
- The person chosen to offer the remarks at Mass should be able to maintain composure while speaking. It becomes very uncomfortable for all present when grief overcomes the speaker. The Mass of Christian Burial is to be a time for people of faith to grieve with hope in eternal life and confidence that God is now caring for the deceased person.
- Keeping always in mind the sacred nature of the Mass and the church setting and the solemnity of the occasion, the person who offers the remarks is not to share stories, use language or perform any action which is in poor taste, disrespectful of the deceased or embarrassing to anyone present for the funeral. This seems like an obvious point which may not need to be said but experience indicates too often that it is a point missed by some speakers.

These guidelines, and others in the packet, are offered to help you plan a Mass of Christian Burial which allows you and your family and friends to prayerfully celebrate a life well lived here on earth and to ask the Lord to now welcome your loved one into the eternal life of heaven.

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on them and all the faithful departed.”
