SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 17, 2022, YEAR C

REFLECTION:

I'm writing this having just come back from the National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM) Conference. I attended many informative sessions, prayed for our parish at Adoration, Mass, Morning & Evening Prayer, explored the city of Louisville, and met some interesting people. Day 1, I stepped into an elevator and stood side-by-side with Dan Schutte! (You know...the "Here I Am, Lord" guy!)

The week was filled with invoking the Holy Spirit to renew and transform us. I will continue to ask the Holy Spirit to renew not only our music ministry, but our parish's relationship with liturgical music. I hope we are able to pray the text of the psalms and songs. I encourage those that have been given musical gifts to use them to minister to our faith community. I ask the Spirit to fill us with the courage to use our voices in spoken responses and in song. (Something exciting has been happening at the 4:00 pm and 7:30 am weekend Masses lately...and I think it is spreading! The responses and singing have gotten stronger! Thank you, Holy Spirit!)

Have a wonderful week, friends!

FUNERAL MASS PLANNING: Your first Funeral Mass Planning opportunity will be tomorrow, Monday, July 18; one session at 8:45 am and the other at 6:00 pm. Both sessions will be held in the chapel. If you like to plan ahead or are curious about the beautiful, new funeral music available to us, please consider attending.

SAVE-THE-DATES:

Monday, August 1 – Sunset Taizé in the park

Thursday, August 11 – Breaking Bread Sing Along

PRELUDE: Please join in the refrain of the prelude song "Rays of Mercy"

"Your rays of mercy shine down on all your lowly servants.
Your rays of mercy shine down on your children."

By now, all the booths for Festival 2022 are packed away until next year and the parish grounds are back to their usual state. Thank you to the many volunteers who gave their time and talent to make this year's Festival a success. Look for details about the number of volunteer hours used, and profits gained in the coming weeks. Make plans to attend Festival 2023 the weekend of July 14-16.

Volunteers who work with children are required to do the following:

1. Apply as a volunteer of St. John Vianney. This application is available on the parish website to print or submit online.
2. Register on www.virtus.org as a first-time registrant
3. Register on the site to attend a live VirtusTraining
4. Submit a background check (this can be done through Selection.com when you register) Please call me or email me to receive a token code (valid for St. John Vianney volunteers only,) prior to completing this part of the registration process.
5. Read 24 monthly training bulletins sent to your email address.

There are two Virtus live trainings offered by St. John Vianney in August, on Monday August 15 6:00-9:00 pm in the John Paul II Room and on Sunday August 28, 4:00-5:30 pm in the Social Center. Space is limited for both sessions and registration on the Virtus website is required.

Have a great week!

Did you know that angels are integral and vital to the Trinity's plan for us? They are magnificent, powerful, but gentle beings, who reflect God's holiness and administer His goodness. They love us and want to help us. Come to the Women's Prayer Group on Sunday, July 24, and learn more about these spiritual beings and how they can lead us closer to our good God. We will pray the St. Michael, the Archangel, Chaplet in the CHURCH at 6:30 pm. The regular meeting will begin at 7:00 pm in the CHAPEL.

DEACON DOMINIC GIDEON

Praying with Poetry

In modern society, we've become rather disconnected from the source of a lot of things, from food to clothing to energy. We forget that our dinner is composed of once-living organism harvested, produced, and shipped; and we take for granted we can just grab a shiny box from the store and fill our bellies with the nutrients we need. As a result, we may get lost in the calorie counting or restaurant reviews and have no regard for the ethical repercussions of the production process let alone the fantastic gift and mystery we partake in when we gain and restore life by consuming organisms from our shared world.

Whitman grasps this idea in his poem as he depicts a lecturing and audience enthralled by the scientific findings about astronomy while missing out on the gorgeous sky of stars from which the data came from. While they were enjoying an aspect of creation, they were missing out on its fundamental purpose: to encounter it and allow it to fill oneself with awe and wonder.

In the Gospel today, Jesus points out a similar dynamic played out between the sisters Martha and Mary. Martha is so focused on the meal, that she loses sight of the purpose of the meal, the "better part" as Jesus says: to commune with the Lord Jesus. As we go about life, let us not forget the whole point: to encounter the beauty and glory of God in every moment.

When I Heard the Learn'd Astronomer

BY WALT WHITMAN

When I heard the learn'd astronomer,
 When the proofs, the figures, were ranged in columns before me,
 When I was shown the charts and diagrams, to add, divide, and measure them,
 When I sitting heard the astronomer where he lectured with much applause in the lecture-room,
 How soon unaccountable I became tired and sick,
 Till rising and gliding out I wander'd off by myself,
 In the mystical moist night-air, and from time to time,
 Look'd up in perfect silence at the stars.

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Pictured above is Father Alex Clark and Nicole Armstrong on this past Sunday evening at the close of the summer festival. I invited Father Clark to select the winning tickets for the annual raffle and Nicole was the third prize winner. She was at the festival that evening along with her parents and heard her name called out by me. Nicole won $1000 and the second prize winner, for $2000, was Richard Demell. The grand prize winner, for $15,000, was Robert Luptak. All three of this year's winners are members of the parish and, as you would imagine, they were each so happy that their tickets were selected. Thank you to the many parishioners who bought or sold their share of raffle tickets. I believe that a record number of raffle tickets were sold this year.

The three day event went very well and the number of people in attendance each day was remarkable. It was so obvious to me that people were so eager to reconnect with family and friends after two years of COVID social distancing and isolation. The dance floor was crowded every night and the waiting lines at the Food Pavilion and the Fast Food Tent were longer than usual. People told me the wait was well worth it and everyone found the food to be so well prepared, so delicious and reasonably priced. Thank you to Glenn from Cater to You and his great staff of volunteers in the kitchen for a job well done! The entertainment was great each night, the raffle baskets were a big success and a big money-maker, children enjoyed the games and the rides, and many adults enjoyed their games in the casino!

It was initially difficult to get sufficient volunteers for the three days but, as usual, parishioners came through and we were able to staff most of the booths for most of the hours of the festival. A big thank you goes out to Maureen Kraizel, our Director of Volunteers, for the great job she did pulling all of this together. Thank you as well to all the other members of the Festival Core Committee, the many donors and sponsors, all the volunteers and our many visitors who spent time (and money!) with us over the three day period. The Summer Festival next year will take place on July 14, 15 & 16, 2023. Save the dates.

I am planning to go on vacation this week with some members of my family. I will leave the parish on Monday and will return in the evening on Sunday, July 24. I leave the parish in the capable hands of Fathers Dober and Clark and the rest of the parish staff. As we approach the end of July, we definitely begin planning for the coming school year and the year of parish activities. I look forward to a break before all those activities resume.

The Finance Council will meet on Monday, July 24, for a review and approval of the budget for the coming year and a picnic. The committee to plan the fundraiser for the Ukraine will meet on Thursday evening, July 28, at 6:30 pm. The Ukrainian fundraiser will take place on Saturday, December 10, in our Social Center, and it is called "A Christmas for the Ukraine." Watch the bulletin for more information in the coming months. Bishop-elect Michael Woost will be ordained as our new auxiliary bishop on our parish feast day, August 4, at the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist. Please keep him in your prayers. The parish's "50+ Club" will resume activities for former and new members in the fall. The group took a break from meetings and bus trips two years ago due to COVID concerns. We will have a meeting in the Social Center on Thursday, August 11, 6:00 pm, to reactivate the group and to discuss possible activities for the coming year. The meeting will be a pot-luck dinner and Norma Burford will be contacting us with information in the coming weeks.

On Holy Saturday this year we welcomed 29 new members to the parish community through the RCIA and RCIC process. RCIA and RCIC are the terms we use to describe the process for both children and adults to become fully-initiated members of the Catholic Church. Father Dober facilitates the process and has a great team of parishioners who assist him. He likes to meet individually with interested individuals sometime before the process actually begins with an orientation program on Wednesday, August 31. Please call him or one of the other parish staff members for more information. If you know of someone who may wish to become a member of the Catholic Church, please let them know about RCIA and how they can enroll.

Parents of ninth graders from the parish who graduated from a Catholic school in June or had been 7th and 8th grade students in the PSR program should have received a letter in the mail recently from our Faith Formation Office regarding the preparation process for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Candidates need to be interviewed by a staff member prior to the orientation program which takes place on Sunday, August 28. FTJ

A photographer was here last week for a wedding and the bride asked him to take some aerial photos of the crowd coming out of church with the bride and groom. Father Johns asked him to also use his drone to take some pictures of the completed new roof on the church and a picture of the roof of the former church which is now being worked on by the staff from Runyon. Things are looking good and progress continues to be made each week. Please continue to pray for good weather and for the safety and well being of all the workers.

Please also consider making a donation or a pledge to the Rays of Mercy Campaign if you have not yet done so. The goal of the campaign is $3.75 million and our current total with pledges, donations, etc. is slightly over $2.75 million. Help us to reach the goal! Thanks for your help and prayers!

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Congratulations to the All Saints School 8th grade graduates!
We are so proud of you!

My name is Anna Greig, and I have been at All Saints School for nine years. During my years at All Saints, I have had many amazing experiences. Some of them are doing masses for certain holidays or holy days of obligation. I have made many friends in my years at All Saints, and I hope to make more in high school. I will be attending Notre Dame Cathedral Latin in the fall. There, I hope to play softball. I have played softball for ten years. I appreciate my time at All Saints, and I will carry on my knowledge I have gained.

My name is Carter Jacobs. I just graduated from All Saints School. I am heading to Lake Catholic High School in the fall. I have attended All Saints School for the past nine years. I have three younger sisters that still attend All Saints. My sisters are in 7th grade, 4th grade and preschool. What I love about All Saints is that our teachers and students have a strong relationship with each other.

My name is Luke Kaprosy, and I have just graduated from 8th grade at All Saints School. I have been at this school for 10 years, and I have had so many great experiences. My sister, Kate, also went to All Saints for 10 years, and now she is moving on to college. I believe All Saints is a great school that has prepared me for high school. I will be attending Gilmour Academy for high school. There, I hope to play basketball and football. I have played CYO basketball since 3rd grade and football since 5th grade.

Good Luck in high school, Anna, Carter and Luke!
