EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 31, 2022, YEAR C

REFLECTION: What can we gain from only our work? The opening lines of the first reading today from Ecclesiastes may spark several memories, but the words are very real: "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." Both this author and Saint Luke in the Gospel point out that vanity and the accumulation of treasures do not lead to lasting happiness. Saint Paul, in his letter to the Colossians, also discusses the need not to live as pagans and to always recognize that we have died to material things because we have been born to a new life in Christ. Today's readings do not aim to lead us to a "liturgical depression" but rather a "joyful conversion" by which we can celebrate our faith as people redeemed by Christ and willing to proclaim his message in the world. In this Year of Mercy, we entrust our lives to the Lord and ask that he may have mercy on us as we promise to come closer to him. Source: liturgy.com

SUNSET TAIZÉ: This Monday, August 1, members of the SJV and St. Mary music ministry will be hosting a Sunset Taizé at Overlook Beach Park at 8:00 pm. I hope you will make time to join us in song, scripture, silence, and prayer. The sun will set around 8:45 pm as the prayer service draws to a close. It will be a beautiful evening with your parish family!

The park is located at the end of Reynolds Road, near Thunderbird Drive and Salida Road. Parking is limited; if you can park further away and walk over, it would be greatly appreciated.

SAVE-THE-DATE: It is no secret that the Breaking Bread hymnal has added a lot of new music within the last few years! I'm sure we would all love to sing more strongly at mass, but unfamiliar tunes can sometimes pose a challenge in that regard. Fret no longer, friends! On Thursday, August 11 at 9:00 am (after the rosary) and 6:00 pm, all are invited to a short 'hymnal sing-along!' I will select a handful of new pieces to introduce or re-introduce to you. We will take a few minutes to listen, sing, and get to know these songs. After all, the better we know the music, the more fully we can enter into the prayer of the text! (I also hope you'll attend because I'm having a blast meeting so many parishioners! This is a wonderful community to be a part of!)

DISCIPLESHIP Maureen Kraizel

I hope you are enjoying the summer weather and can spend fun times with family and friends. It is hard to believe that we are closer to the beginning of 2023 than the start of this year. It will not be long until we will be experiencing the cold winter months. I am thankful that I have a home and more than plenty to eat.

There are many people in our county who do not have these things that we often take for granted. Since it began, our parish has committed to providing Project Hope with a monthly evening meal for forty people. Volunteers from the church have purchased, cooked, and delivered a hot meal on the second Sunday of every month. Margaret Timko is the Ministry Leader for this endeavor, and she notified me that we need volunteers to sign up to provide meals in the coming months. Please call Margaret at 440.255.6530 to get the details and to select a date to feed the hungry.

God bless you always and have a great week!

“They have no wine.” And thus begins the knowledge of Mary’s intercession. She is the most powerful of all intercessors because the Blessed Trinity loves her more than any other being. Come to the Women’s Prayer Group on Sunday, August 14, and learn more about the powerful intercession of our Glorious Mother. We will pray the Rosary at 6:30 pm in the Church, honoring the Assumption of our Blessed Mother. The regular meeting will begin at 7:00 pm in the Chapel. All women are welcome! Questions? Email Cathy Sullivan at: cathysullivan474@gmail.com

DEACON DOMINIC GIDEON

Praying with Poetry

There's only one thing better than enjoying a fresh, sweet, cold piece of fruit: allowing another person the opportunity to enjoy it. We all have heard, and probably know first-hand, the adage "It's better to give than to receive"; but it's always difficult to sacrifice something we desire for the sake of another, because we have a human tendency to prioritize our comfort, pleasure, and self-pleasure, and self-preservation.

Jesus confronts this tendency of our fallen nature in the Sunday Gospel as he admonishes the man grasping for a share in his inheritance and as he speaks of the parable of the hoarding harvester. In short, Jesus teaches that "one's life does not consist of possessions."

This Is Just To Say

BY WILLIAM CARLOS WILLIAMS

I have eaten
the plums that were in the icebox

and which you were probably saving for breakfast

Forgive me
they were delicious so sweet and so cold

In this week's poem, Williams depicts a person who has not taken this scripture passage to heart. The attentive reader can tell that the speaker is not as much asking for forgiveness as he is rubbing in the fact that he took plums which someone else hoped to have. His antagonism is rather comical as he apologizes in the same breath as he speaks of the quality of the fruit which he's deprived from the other. Yet, in reality, the damage of such selfishness and smug acrimony is not humorous. The fading delight he received from the plums is not worth missing out on the spiritual delight of the loving union with God and others.

What are the plums we desire to hoard?

It's Back to School time again, and we will be assembling school bags for children this year. We do have supplies leftover, so we are focusing on a smaller list of items needed this year. Those items include folders, dry erase markers, No. 2 pencils, notebook paper (wide ruled), spiral bound notebooks, scissors and book bags.

We would like to have your donations left in the Gathering Area by August 14, so we will have time to assemble and have them ready for pick-up in the SVdP Pantry prior to the start of school. Thank you so much for your continued generosity.

PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to the hundreds of parishioners who took the time to sign their names on the twelve shingles which will be placed this week on the roof of the gathering space of the church. Just as we wrote our names on the cement floor of the new church in the spring of 2002, additional names now have been written on our new roof in the summer of 2022 to show how we have worked together as a parish family not only to lay a good foundation but to also “raise the roof.” May God be pleased with our efforts to maintain our house of worship for ourselves and for future generations of Catholics, and may God continue to bless our efforts to do all things for the greater honor and glory of His name.

The parish Facilities and Properties Committee tells me that we are ahead of schedule on our roof project and that work should be completed by our target completion date of mid-September. We have been blessed with good weather and good workers who have installed more than 95% of the roofing shingles at this point. Completion of gutters, downspouts, copper work, fine details, and cross painting remain as of July 25. Speaking of copper work, you likely have noticed in the past week or so, as you drive by the former church, the shiny copper metal trims which have been installed in specific locations on the roof. I was told by the roofers that the shiny nature of the copper will fade to a “flat” copper color within thirty days. We received the request for our second payment last week—$433,000. Please continue to support the Rays of Mercy Campaign to help us pay our bills and to achieve all that we have set out to achieve with this campaign.

Preliminary work has been done on the base of the large cross on the roof of the new church this past week, and, by the time you read this, the cross painting job may be completed. You may recall that this cross was the original cross placed on the roof of the former church when it was completed in 1972. The cross was anchored to arches on top of the dome of the former church. When we completed building the new church in 2002, we moved that cross from above the dome of the former church and placed it on the roof of the main nave of the new church, likely right above the sanctuary or sacred space where we now celebrate Mass. May that cross always shine brightly to the many people who daily drive by our church on their way to work, school, shopping or home. It would be great if we were known by others in our community to be the people who faithfully "lift high the cross of Christ."

As we come to the end of the month of July, activities at the parish have begun to increase day by day. The All Saints Parent Advisory Committee will meet on Monday evening this week at 7:00. Later that evening, at 8:00, you are invited to gather at Overlook Beach Park, located at the end of Reynolds Road, for a Taize Sunset Prayer Service. We will sing, listen to scripture, spend some time in silence, pray and watch the sun set as we give praise and glory to God. Bring a blanket or a lawn chair if you wish.

Mass will be celebrated at Salida Woods Assisted Living on Wednesday at 3:00. You are welcome to join us for Mass and to visit with the residents after Mass. Thursday is the feast day of our patron saint, John Vianney, and it is the special day chosen by Bishop-elect Michael Woost to be ordained as the new auxiliary bishop of the Diocese of Cleveland. Fathers Dober, Clark and I will attend the 2:00 ceremony at the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist. Baptism Class for new parents will take place on Sunday, August 7, at 1:15 in the Chapel. There is no need to register for the class and the session typically takes about one hour. That is also a Donut Sunday and donuts will be available in the John Paul II Room after each of the Sunday Masses. We will also have copies of the Festival survey available on the tables in the JP II Room that day. Please complete a survey while you enjoy your donut to let us know the strengths and the weaknesses of this year's festival in your opinion. Thanks again to all who supported this year's festival in any way. We continue to review our expenses and revenues and will soon have a better idea of our net profit. It seems like it was once again a very profitable fundraiser for the parish. The parish's "50+ Club" hopes to resume bus trips soon. Join us for a potluck in the Social Center on Thursday, August 11, at 6:00 pm to discuss. RSVP to Norma. Fr. Johns

As stated in the Pastor's Page, things are going very well with the roof project. We anticipate that the roof project will be completed by or near Labor Day, and we will be ready to welcome the Bishop to the parish on October 1, at 4:00 Mass, to bless our new roof and to thank God for all the blessings we continue to receive. The Mass will be followed by a Founder's Day Celebration in the parking lot, the play ground, and the Social Center. Watch the bulletin for more information in the coming weeks.

The Rays of Mercy Campaign seeks to raise funds not only for the roof project but also for improvement of communication and technology at the parish as well as enhancement of parish programming and adding additional parish staff members to better serve you in the coming years.

The goal of the campaign is to raise $3.75 million. Since the campaign began in the fall, 513 donors from the parish have pledged or donated $1,801,145. The parish has added to that total $800,000 from our investments and $200,000 from an estate donation. With those additions, the campaign total now is $2,801,145. If you would like to make a pledge or donation, please call Father Johns. Beginning in November, there will be a special "Rays of Mercy" envelope in your packet of contribution envelopes to remind you to make a payment on your pledge or if you wish to make a cash donation to the campaign. Please do whatever you can to help us reach our goal and continue to pray for God's blessings on us.
