Offertory, June 21 = $3, 946.99

I want to thank all of our parishioners who have faithfully sent in their contributions to our parish, and other charities who so desperately need our financial help at this time. It is quite apparent that many of our parishioners are taking the Lord's call to Sacrificial Giving, very seriously. Be assured that the Lord will reward you, and that as your priest and pastor, I am deeply thankful to you.
Yours in the Lord Jesus Christ, Father David Carter

During this time of social distancing, Confessions will be BY APPOINTMENT ONLY until further notice. Please call the office during normal working hours (Mon—Thurs, 9AM—3PM) to schedule.

#291, BETTY JANE MURRAY, was the lucky winner of week #45 of our "300 Club" for $100. Congratulations, Betty!

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time/June 28, 2020
SUNDAY'S READINGS -

First Reading: Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son." (2 Kg 4:16a)

Psalm: For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

Second Reading: Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus. (Rom 6:11)

Gospel: "Whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." (Mt 10:38)

Let us pray...
O God, you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors. You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found you. Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.

We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross. Amen.

THE WORD AMONG US for the months of June, July and August are available in the Parish Office

Bible School in a Bag

IT'S NOT TOO LATE!

You can still pick up your "bag" after weekend masses.

OLQA Faith Formation will provide all of the materials to complete each activity so you just need to add the fun! Each kit will include enough materials for one child (so feel free to take as many as you need for your family.)

Thank you for your support during these crazy times! God Bless!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - June 28, 2020; 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

KNIGHTS KORNER

The Knights will resume their Sunday Bingo on July 5th at St. Philip's Hall. Doors open at Noon, with the Early Bird games starting at 1:15pm. Same format as in January, but with large Jugs that have carried over. State guidelines will be adhered to. Please bring a mask and a friend. Note: Council 6037 has stepped to the forefront in offering financial aid to numerous needy causes in the Lakeland area during this pandemic, and this will be our first fundraiser since February.
