RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LECTOR FORMATION—
Proclaiming the Scriptures
Vocal Projection or Volume - The voice of the lector must fill the space and should not seem subdued or distant. The microphone is not meant to make up for a lack of volume.
Articulation - it is important that the words of the reading are clear, distinct and easy to understand.
Rate - Reading rate or speed, should not always be the same, but vary with the context
Eye contact - people listen and respond best when we make eye contact with them. Avoid a rapid up and down movement.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments:
Online Gaming: 72% of teens, both male and female (ages 13-17) play video games. More than half of those teens said they have made new friends online. The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children analysis of Cyber Tipline reports has found that gaming platforms are more often used in the online enticement of young boys than any other group of children. It is important for parents to talk to their child about safety in online gaming. Some important questions to ask are: Have you ever been cyberbullied while gaming? Do you know what information is OK to share about yourself while gaming? Has anyone talked about sex while you were gaming or asked you to send pictures of yourself? If your child answers yes, report the matter to law enforcement. Visit www.eriecd.org/childprotection/ for additional resources.

SEASONAL CEMETERY RULES REMINDER
 It is your responsibility to remove flowers/objects/Christmas wreaths on or before the February deadline or they will be discarded.
 Any items you wish to retain need to be removed from the cemetery before the 2nd week in February. Thank you

Knights Korner

It shouldn't surprise anyone to realize that you do not need to be a member of the K of C to be considered for Council 6037's prestigious Family of the Year award. All that is required is that everyone in the family exhibit a strong commitment to their local community, excel at volunteerism and be active in the church of their choosing.
 So it shouldn't surprise anyone that OLQA's Kevin, Peg, Drew and Julianna Jacobs were chosen. Please join us in thanking them for living their lives 24/7/365 by Jesus's words of "Do unto others as you would want them to do unto you."
