3rd Sunday of Advent

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. - Jn 1:6-7
From the Desk of Father Brian

This Third Sunday of Advent is named in our Latin Rite, “Gaudete,” meaning “Rejoice”. Rose vestments and the permission of flowers surrounding the altar remind us that soon we will commemorate the coming of our Savior. Also, beginning with Thursday, December 17, the liturgical days become specifically related to the first coming of our Savior 2000 years ago. The texts of Holy Mass and the readings are obligatory as each liturgical date recalls to mind certain mysteries related to Christ’s first coming. The “O” Antiphons are traditionally chanted at Vespers, which are also used at the chanting of the Alleluia at Holy Mass. Each Antiphon relates specifically to a messianic title of Our Lord, i.e., O Wisdom, O Lord, O Root of Jesse, etc. Our Catholic hymn, “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,” repeats these titles, especially sung at the latter part of the Advent season. And December 17-24 are known as the “Golden Nights,” to recall that the time of awaiting for the Savior is almost over, and His arrival is so near.

It is good for us to recall these rich, beautiful Catholic liturgical traditions in order to allow them to penetrate through our secular culture, or at least our Christian, Catholic households. We need hope and strength in these days as a Christian people of faith. While we may be weary and at times angry during this long period of pestilence and trying to deal with it in the best protective manner, let us set our hopes and our lives on Jesus Christ, Our Savior. There are two things that I am reminding myself of in these days: to be thankful to the Lord each day and to live in the “present moment” with Jesus. Gratitude always pulls us out of ourselves and our problems. Living in the present moment with Jesus assists us in taking one step at a time with Him in the “here and now”. I’ve mentioned this in homilies before several times, but I believe it is a key aspect of the spiritual life. Though our celebrations of Christmas and our time of awaiting may be nuanced, let us try as best we can in our families to maintain our hope in the Lord Jesus, and to remember that we needed a Savior to come and redeem us two thousand years ago, and we need Him now in the present moment more than ever to save us in this moment! Come, Lord Jesus! Come, Emmanuel!

Rorate Mass
A special pre-dawn Mass will be celebrated on Friday morning, December 18, at 5:30 a.m. in the morning, at St.
Bernard Church site of our parish. There are a series of these Masses which will be celebrated throughout the diocese. This is an Advent tradition of the Catholic Church, to offer a pre-dawn Mass in the Advent season, which calls to mind the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary in salvation history. The name, “Rorate,” is from the beautiful Latin hymn, “Rorate, caeli, desuper, et nubes pluant justum, aperiatur terra, et germinet Salvatorem.” “Drop down dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just: let the earth be opened and bud forth a Savior.” This Mass is celebrated entirely in candlelight, and with white, usually Marian vestments, to call to mind the coming of the Savior, the Light of the World, and the Mother of God, who gave Him birth. The Mass will be chanted, with special, appropriate liturgical texts. The normal 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. Masses will still be celebrated as usual on that day.
I encourage anyone who is able, and who has never attended a Rorate Mass, to make a special Advent sacri-face, and prepare in a special way for Jesus’ coming by attending this Mass.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM AT SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PARISH

Jesus commissioned the eleven remaining Apostles to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Congratulations on your commitment to further His great commission by baptizing your baby at St. Michael the Archangel Parish! We know this is a very exciting and blessed time for you and your family, and we rejoice with you.

If this is your first baby, email Deacon Eric Schorr at eschorr@smaph.org to set up a time to meet, preferably before your baby is born. Your meeting with Deacon Eric gives you the opportunity to meet with a member of the parish clergy team to learn more about our parish and having your child baptized. We want to get to know your family better!

After your meeting with Deacon Eric, you will attend our Baptism Formation Evening for New Parents. These evenings are held every-other-month. You will receive the dates of the evenings at your meeting with Deacon Eric.

You will be able to schedule your baby’s baptism after you have met with Deacon Eric and attended the Baptism Formation Evening.

If this isn’t your first baby to be baptized and it has been more than three years since you have attended our Baptism Formation Evening for New Parents, you will need to meet with Deacon Eric before you schedule your baby’s baptism.

The 3rd Sunday of Advent, December 13, is called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means “rejoice”. We rejoice because we are almost at Christmas, the day where we celebrate the birth of Jesus, the greatest gift we have ever been given. St. John Paul II began a tradition where he invited the children of Rome to assemble in St. Peter’s Square on the Third Sunday of Advent. He asked them to bring their little statue of the baby Jesus that would be placed in their Nativity set at home. John Paul II blessed the figurines of those present. Both Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis have continued the tradition, and in recent years it has started to expand to other places outside of Rome.

This year we would like to celebrate this tradition with our St. Michael the Archangel families.

Your family is invited to join us!
~Bring the Baby Jesus (Bambinello) from your home Nativity Set to be blessed by our Pastor Father Brian Welding. Blessing will be in Church.
~Drinks, treats and a small craft will follow blessing.
~Priests will be available for an opportunity for Advent Confessions.

Friday, January 29 is the date for the 48th March for Life in Washington D.C.

St. Paul of the Cross Parish has reserved a bus

Due to the virus we will do things a little differently this year. Family members will be able to sit together and those travelling alone will have 2 seats to themselves. We will, of course, wear masks and use hand sanitizer. Our bus has a recently installed air filtration system and will be completely sanitized prior to our trip.

All necessary precautions will be taken throughout the day. Because of the reduced number of passengers, our fee will be $40 this year which will again include a continental breakfast and our "famous" Respect Life bagged lunch!

Please call Kathy or John with any questions or to make reservations: 412-344-9690.

Please prayerfully consider joining us.

Do you have old, gently used winter coats and clothes that you're ready to get rid of? The St. Vincent de Paul Society is requesting clothing donations for their store in Castle Shannon.

All clothing, especially outerwear and children's clothing, is greatly appreciated. All proceeds from sales go towards helping the needy in our community. Clothes can be dropped in the blue box in the St. Bernard parking lot, the back end of the Our Lady of Grace upper parking lot or taken directly to the store at 3423 Library Rd, Pittsburgh, PA 15234. 412-882-8519.

Mary’s Place is a semi-independent home for pregnant and parenting women that provides support in an environment of reverence and love. Located in Mt. Lebanon, in the previous home of the St. Augustine Capuchin Friars, we officially opened in January 2020. We have capacity for seven residents at once and can take mothers older than 18 who are homeless and pregnant or parenting.

Guided by Catholic social teaching, Mary's Place welcomes women of all faiths and encourages prayer, reflection and participation in community living.

As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, we are always open to gifts of time or treasure from the local community. A few of our opportunities include:

- Weekly volunteer activities
- Online donations
- Donations of in-kind, specifically diapers and wipes

For more information on Mary’s Place, the services we offer, or how you can get involved, contact us at (412) 207-8805 or info@marysplacepgh.org. You can also visit us online at www.marysplacepgh.org.

Brochures and pamphlets are available through the Respect Life committee.

For those who wish to attend Holy Mass INDOORS for Christmas, please use the sign-up genius on our website @smapgh.org to sign up for indoor Masses. If you need assistance or do not have access to a computer please call the rectory office at 412-561-3300 and one of our office staff will sign you up. You must limit your attendance to one Mass only. We need to make sure that we can accommodate everyone in the safest manner possible through social distancing. We will add Masses to the schedule if we need to and we have the priests available. The schedule will continue to appear in the bulletin each weekend. Some may consider attending Mass during the Christmas Octave celebration following Christmas Day as there will be music each day in the Octave. Thank you for your attention to this matter! Blessed Advent!
Caroline Freiland, Gerri Barnes, Shirley Bianco and Pat Matvey show a few of the dresses sewn by our ladies. Many women prefer to sew at home so we have had a steady supply of dresses throughout the year in spite of COVID-19.

These young girls in Sierra Leone, Africa received dresses from the SMA Dress-Girl ministry earlier this year. We just delivered 118 more dresses and 89 dolls in November to our Akron ambassador and they were on their way to Africa within days.

We ask God to bless each recipient and the women who lovingly created each item.

As of this writing, Dress-a-Girl ministry meets Friday mornings 10:00 - noon in Keefer Hall. We will take a break for the holidays and look forward to sewing together starting January 8.

For more information, contact Gerri 812-453-8370.
We Love Having You as Part of Our Flock!

St. Michael the Archangel Parish will now be using Flocknote to communicate with all parishioners and individual parish ministries. Flocknote gives us the ability to email and text parishioners information. We will soon be discontinuing our use of sending email blasts through Parish Data Systems so please sign up for Flocknote to continue receiving information from St. Michael the Archangel Parish.

Thank you and God bless!

SUNDAY’S READINGS

FIRST READING:
I rejoice heartily in the LORD, in my God is the joy of my soul. (Is 61:10a)

PSALM:
My soul rejoices in my God. (Is 61:10b)

SECOND READING:
May the God of peace make you perfectly holy and may you entirely, spirit, soul, and body, be preserved blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 Thes 5:23)

GOSPEL:
“I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, ‘Make straight the way of the Lord.’” (Jn 1:23)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF DECEMBER 13, 2020
Sunday: 3rd Sunday of Advent
Monday: St. John of the Cross, Priest and Doctor of the Church
Next Sunday: 4th Sunday of Advent

REFLECT

FIRST READING
Isaiah shares his understanding of his prophetic call and his experience of the Lord as a God of justice and compassion. As we continue in the season of Advent, what new spiritual insights are you discovering?

SECOND READING
Paul encourages the Thessalonians to be thankful to God and be active in their newly found faith in Christ by following his moral imperatives. How are you putting your faith into practice during this Advent?

GOSPEL READING
John tells us that the religious leaders in Jerusalem questioned the identity of John the Baptist, wondering if he was the Messiah, Elijah, or the Prophet who Moses prophesied would come. John the Baptist responds in humility, with a clear sense of his own call. Do you humbly accept God’s call in your life?
People noticed John the Baptist. He loved God, and he used words honestly. He really wanted to help people change and grow closer to God. He stood out as someone really different and special. People came from all around to hear him and learn about him. When people asked him questions, he pointed them to Jesus.

PRAYER
Jesus, help me to be different because I love you.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK
Ask a friend if he or she is ready to meet Jesus.
3 EASY STEPS TO KEEPING YOURSELF & OTHERS HEALTHY!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

WASH YOUR HANDS
Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can’t wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

DON’T TOUCH YOUR FACE
Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE
Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.
