4th SUNDAY OF ADVENT

And the angel said to her in reply, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.” - Lk 1:35

SUNDAY’S READINGS

FIRST READING:
“When your times comes and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will establish his kingdom firm.” (2 Sm 12)

PSALM:
For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

SECOND READING:
According to the revelation of the mystery kept secret for long ages but now manifested through the prophetic writings and, according to the command of the eternal God. (Rom 16:25b-26a)

GOSPEL:
“Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High.” (Lk 1:31-32a)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF DECEMBER 20, 2020
Sunday: 4th Sunday of Advent
Monday: St. Peter Canisius, Priest and Doctor of the Church
Wednesday: St. John of Kanty, Priest
Thursday: Christmas Eve
Friday: The Nativity of the Lord (holy day of obligation)
Saturday: St. Stephen, the First Martyr
Next Sunday: The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

REFLECT

FIRST READING
Today’s reading from Second Samuel narrates the context in which God establishes his covenantal promise to King David around the year 1000 B.C. In the birth of Jesus, God fulfills his covenant with David. What does this teach us about the idea of “salvation history?”

SECOND READING
Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God for the long-awaited revelation that all are saved and justified through faith in Christ. In what ways are you praising God during this season of Advent?

GOSPEL READING
Today’s Gospel reading records the angel Gabriel’s announcement to Mary of the upcoming birth of Christ. Mary’s acceptance of God’s will for her life (“May it be done to me according to your word.”) models for all of us unconditional faith. How can we encourage others to embrace such faith?

Jesus commissioned the eleven remaining Apostles to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Congratulations on your commitment to further His great commission by baptizing your baby at St. Michael the Archangel Parish! We know this is a very exciting and blessed time for you and your family, and we rejoice with you.

If this is your first baby, email Deacon Eric Schorr at eschorr@smapgh.org to set up a time to meet, preferably before your baby is born. Your meeting with Deacon Eric gives you the opportunity to meet with a member of the parish clergy team to learn more about our parish and having your child baptized. We want to get to know your family better!

After your meeting with Deacon Eric, you will attend our Baptism Formation Evening for New Parents. These evenings are held every-other-month. You will receive the dates of the evenings at your meeting with Deacon Eric.

You will be able to schedule your baby’s baptism after you have met with Deacon Eric and attended the Baptism Formation Evening.

If this isn’t your first baby to be baptized and it has been more than three years since you have attended our Baptism Formation Evening for New Parents, you will need to meet with Deacon Eric before you schedule your baby’s baptism.

Thank you from Father Brian

There are so many wonderful charitable things that go on in our parish community constantly, and the bulletin affords a means through which we can see the many activities and outreach that occur weekly. As pastor I am so grateful to everyone, and amazed at your generosity and goodness! In a particular way, even as we get into the season of cold and sometimes inclement weather, the men and women who volunteer in varied ways to ensure our outdoor Masses run smoothly need to be acknowledged and thanked. This has been an on-going effort for a long period of time now, longer than expected. As we draw near to the celebration of the Nativity of our Lord and the outdoor Masses that I expect will be large events, I thank in advance all who will be a part of that endeavor of making sure that our people can worship the Lord and receive the Holy Sacraments even in such difficult circumstances. Thank you!
Are You or Someone You Know Struggling to Make Ends Meet During These Trying Times?

2020 is ending and for many of us there is much hope for 2021. However, next year and into 2022, food insecurity and financial hardships are expected to continue for many. Please consider helping those less fortunate.

“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me in. I needed clothes and you clothed me. I was in prison and you came to visit me.” Matthew 25:35-40

Angel Tree Thank You

“...and struck with awe, they said, ‘We have seen incredible things today.’”

Luke 5:26

We put out the wishes for gifts on the trees and online and we were “struck with awe” by your response. All of the wishes were taken! “We have seen incredible things…” in the return of the gifts this past Sunday and now they are on the way to make the holidays bright for so many.

On behalf of the Ladies of Charity of St Michael the Archangel Parish and all of the recipient agencies, thank you for your kindness and generosity. Our prayers are that you will have a Blessed Christmas and a Happy and safe New Year.

Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God
9:00am  Our Lady of Grace - Indoors
11:00am  St. Bernard - Main Church

For those who wish to attend Holy Mass INDOORS for Christmas, please use the sign-up genius on our website @smapgh.org to sign up for indoor Masses. If you need assistance or do not have access to a computer please call the rectory office at 412-561-3300 and one of our office staff will sign you up. You must limit your attendance to one Mass only. We need to make sure that we can accommodate everyone in the safest manner possible through social distancing. We will add Masses to the schedule if we need to and we have the priests available. The schedule will continue to appear in the bulletin each weekend. Some may consider attending Mass during the Christmas Octave celebration following Christmas Day as there will be music each day in the Octave. Thank you for your attention to this matter! Blessed Advent!
Exodus 90: We will be free!

St. Michael the Archangel Parish invites all men seeking authentic freedom to join their brothers in Christ for Exodus 90, which will run from January 4th (Following the Solemnity of the Epiphany) to April 3rd (Holy Saturday).

Exodus 90 is a 90-day spiritual exercise that gives Catholic men a clear path for the journey to freedom through prayer, asceticism and support. More than 30,000 men around the country have made the Exodus and transformed their lives. You can, too! You will be paired with a small group of men from the parish as you work your way through Exodus 90.

For more information and to enroll in Exodus 90, please contact Fr. Tom Gramc at tgramc@smapgh.org by December 30th.

Friday, January 29 is the date for the 48th March for Life in Washington D.C.

St. Paul of the Cross Parish has reserved a bus

Due to the virus we will do things a little differently this year. Family members will be able to sit together and those travelling alone will have 2 seats to themselves. We will, of course, wear masks and use hand sanitizer. Our bus has a recently installed air filtration system and will be completely sanitized prior to our trip. All necessary precautions will be taken throughout the day. Because of the reduced number of passengers, our fee will be $40 this year which will again include a continental breakfast and our "famous" Respect Life bagged lunch!

Please call Kathy or John with any questions or to make reservations: 412-344-9690.

Please prayerfully consider joining us!

Hearts and Soles Walking Group

Thursdays 5-6pm

In Blaise Pascal’s work, Pensées, he says: “What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace? This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself.”

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God. If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy? The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one’s soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence. This is the beautiful simple message of Advent.

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there’s a good chance you are lost. Now is the time to allow God to find you! Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary’s call to be the Mother of God. “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.” When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us. Our Savior has come.

And the angel said to her in reply, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.” - Lk 1:35
