SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM AT SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PARISH

Jesus commissioned the eleven remaining Apostles to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Congratulations on your commitment to further His great commission by baptizing your baby at St. Michael the Archangel Parish! We know this is a very exciting and blessed time for you and your family, and we rejoice with you.

If this is your first baby, email Deacon Eric Schorr at eschorr@smapgh.org to set up a time to meet, preferably before your baby is born. Your meeting with Deacon Eric gives you the opportunity to meet with a member of the parish clergy team to learn more about our parish and having your child baptized. We want to get to know your family better!

After your meeting with Deacon Eric, you will attend our Baptism Formation Evening for New Parents. These evenings are held every -other-month. You will receive the dates of the evenings at your meeting with Deacon Eric.

You will be able to schedule your baby's baptism after you have met with Deacon Eric and attended the Baptism Formation Evening.

If this isn't your first baby to be baptized and it has been more than three years since you have attended our Baptism Formation Evening for New Parents, you will need to meet with Deacon Eric before you schedule your baby's baptism.

Homebound Ministry

Members of our parish regularly minister to those who are unable to leave their residence (for short or long term) by providing regular visits bringing Holy Communion. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Homebound provide support to our homebound parishioners through their presence and careful attention.

The ministry of the Eucharistic minister is not a doing for but a sharing with. The point is not only the taking of the consecrated elements of the Eucharist to the sick and shut-ins but also a bringing of those who are not present with us on Sunday morning into a full, active, and conscious participation in our Eucharistic community.

Our team of 30 Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Homebound is in need of more members! Would you prayerfully consider joining them? We provide training and all you need to support you and our dear Homebound parishioners. We are looking for people to visit in the home and at our neighboring nursing facilities. If you would be interested in learning more, please call Angela Gaughan, Pastoral Associate at 412-561-6021 or email agaughan@smapgh.org. If you or someone you know would like to receive a visit in the home please contact Angela to make arrangements.

Living in a marriage that is missing love can be painful and miserable. If you have given up hope that your marriage can and will get better, ask your spouse to consider attending a Retrouvaille program. Retrouvaille is an international Christian-based ministry that offers a program to help couples improve their marriages and rediscover the love they once shared, no matter how bad it may be, even for separated and divorced couples. It is an eight-week program that begins with an in-person weekend retreat. The initial weekend is followed by seven weekly four-hour virtual follow-up sessions. An optional, ongoing monthly meeting is offered to couples for support and growth. It is not counseling or group therapy, and you will not share your struggles with others. Retrouvaille of Pittsburgh is hosting a weekend September 30-October 2, 2022. For more information: visit HelpOurMarriage.org or call 412-277-3434.

Courage and EnCourage

If someone you love is having same sex attraction, you are not alone. Spiritual encouragement, practical advice and support are available. Courage, an Apostolate of the Roman Catholic Church, ministers to those with same-sex attraction and their loved ones.

EnCourage, is part of that Apostolate and includes an outreach to parents, siblings or friends of those with same-sex attraction. Discussion, prayer, emotional support, understanding and fellowship are the central focuses of monthly meetings. It also promotes reception of the Sacraments and spiritual direction within a circle of compassion and confidentiality.

For more information about Courage and EnCourage, please email Deacon Rick Caruso, EnCourage chaplain: pghncourage@gmail.com.

Keeping Up with Catholic Charities...

Here are some ways you can support
Catholic Charities and the good work they do in our community...

Amazon Wish List

We want every person in southwestern Pennsylvania to know they are in a place of compassion where healing is possible, and hope isn't a pipedream. We're collecting tangible items for families from Ukraine and Afghanistan who have had to leave their homes. Currently, there is urgent need for toiletries, NEW bed linens, curtains, laundry detergent and household cleaning supplies. Visit our Amazon Wish List for current items in need.

Mission of Mercy Pittsburgh

August 5-6, 2022

Catholic Charities believes every person deserves accessible, quality health care.

On August 5 and 6, volunteer dentists and non-clinical support from Catholic Charities will join other volunteers to provide dental cleaning and exams to patients attending the 2022 Mission of Mercy Pittsburgh Free Dental Clinic at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center. Please contact Catholic Charities if you are in need of assistance.

The Jessie Games return!

August 6, 2022

Now in its 9th year, the Jessie Games offers children a day filled with activities, games and lots of laughter. In addition to serving the children of Catholic Charities' clients, we're also hosting those from Ukraine and Afghanistan. We're prepping now for the big day on Saturday, August 6. Can you volunteer to make certain everyone has a great time? We need people to help us set up the day, organize and supervise games and clean up our space after our guests have gone home.

We're also looking for donations: clean, unused backpacks or $25 Walmart gift cards, so we can send kids back to school with everything they need to get started for a strong year.

St Martin's Table
"there is always a seat at the table"
St Michael the Archangel Parish

For the last few months we have been serving our neighbors in the community, dinner on the first Sunday of the month. Each month the numbers served and joy in the room has grown!! What a blessing this ministry is to so many, including those who serve it. August 7, 2022 will be our next community meal. We will serve at 3pm in Clairvaux Hall for any in the local community who might need a home-made hot meal and an opportunity to visit with others.

Each month a group of people gather to cook, greet, serve and enjoy this time. If you or your family (this is a great opportunity for family's with school aged children to serve together) would be interested in joining this ministry, please reach out to Angela for more information: 412-561-6021/ agaughan@smapgh.org.

All adults who volunteer will need Safe Environment clearances. Mia Bonnewell, our Safe Environment Coordinator (mbonnewell@smapgh.org) can assist with the process.

Financial contributions are also welcome and needed. Donating gift cards to Giant Eagle or a check made out to St Michael the Archangel, with St Martin's Table in the memo line, would be a blessing. Please keep this meal, those we will serve and all the preparers in your prayers.

St Martin de Porres pray for us!

EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE BLUEGRASS-PLAYING DOMINICANS ARE COMING TO PITTSBURGH!

What happens when you give a friar a fiddle or a set of spoons?

You wind up with The Hillbilly Thomists! Join us on Thursday, July 28 at 7:00 PM at Hyacinth Epp Hall, 224 37th St., Pittsburgh 15201. Invite your family, friends, and anyone who loves bluegrass, Americana, or music of any kind.

The Hillbilly Thomists are a band of Friars of the Order of Preachers. After playing music together for several years, they released their self-titled debut album in 2017, which reached #3 on the Billboard Bluegrass Chart and consisted mostly of bluegrass standards and Americana favorites. Album #2, Living for the Other Side, followed in 2021. Since then, the friars in the band have been doing what Dominican friars do: contemplating, studying, and preaching. They've also been writing more songs. The fruit of all this is their new album, Holy Ghost Power, released just this month. Recorded at the Alberthaus in the Catskills and featuring original songs, the new album is a resonant and at times rollicking meditation on grace, suffering, faith, conversion, and the soul's dogged desire for what really matters. Preview a song here.

These bluegrass-playing Dominicans have been featured on EWTN, National Catholic Register, Aleteia, Bluegrass Today, First Things, The American Conservative, and many other publications for one simple reason: they're amazing! From classic tunes such as "Just as I Am" to originals like "Bourbon, Bluegrass, and the Bible," the Hillbilly Thomists are a one-of-a-kind musical experience that the whole family can enjoy. Fr. Joseph (Patrick) Hagan O.P. (spoons, washboard, drums) is from the South Hills and graduated from St Bernard School.

The concert is free. A goodwill offering is appreciated to support Nature of Fire and The Port ministries. Parking is available in Our Lady of the Angels parking lot, as well as street parking on 36th and 37th streets. Presented by The Port and Nature of Fire.
