"St. Joseph the Worker Parish is a welcoming, vibrant Catholic Community uniting people to God and each other through prayerful, sacred liturgy, dynamic, strong ministries and loving, generous outreach. Inspired by our patron saint, we embrace our hard working, diverse region by honoring our traditions and forming holy and committed disciples of Jesus Christ."

Faithful Chronicles

By Father Frank D. Almada

As mentioned in last week's column, Pope Francis has called for a Synod of Bishops on the topic of "synodality" for October 2023. Consultation and participation of all the People of God are to mark the run-up to the actual Synod of Bishops over the next two years, at the parish, diocesan, continental and universal level.

Pope Francis knows that these are not easy times to be a follower of Jesus Christ. Let me quote from one preparatory document about the situation of the world: "The context in which this Synod is taking place is a global pandemic, local and international conflicts, growing impact of climate change, migration, various forms of injustice, racism, violence, persecution and increasing inequities across humanity, to name a few. In the Church, the context is also marked by the suffering experienced by minors and vulnerable people, due to sexual abuse and the abuse of power ... by a significant number of clerics and consecrated persons."

These are challenging times! Yet it is our blessing to be called by God today to renew the church and our lived faith in the midst of these challenges.

There are also internal challenges to being a synodal church. Let me suggest some of these, in the form of questions:

- Can we listen to one another? In the words of the prayer of St. Francis, can we "not so much seek to be understood as to understand"?
- Can we listen to (discern) the Holy Spirit in the midst of our various conversations, discussions and opportunities for prayer?
- Can we be honest and transparent in our discussions with one another?
- Can we be inclusive, making every effort to include those who feel marginalized or excluded?
- Can we leave behind prejudices and stereotypes?
- Can we address and overcome "the scourge of clericalism"?
- Can we embrace the cultural diversity of our country, church and world?
- Can we look to the future with hope, and avoid falling back on the lame excuse, "we've always done it this way"?
- Can we respect the rights, dignity and opinion of every participant?
- Can we acknowledge and respect the rightful authority of the pastors of the church?

In a section listing pitfalls which prevent the church from being synodal, another Vatican document lists temptations to be avoided:

- The temptation of wanting to lead ourselves instead of being led by God.
- The temptation to only see problems, and not see hope.
- The temptation of focusing only on structures.
- The temptation not to look beyond the visible confines of the Church, to the possibilities of our world.
- The temptation of conflict and division.
- The temptation of seeing the synod as a parliament or congress, in which there are only winners and losers.
- The temptation to listen only to those already involved in church activities.

I have tried to lay out the outline of Pope Francis's vision for the church in this preparation for the 2023 Synod of Bishops. I encourage you to read more on the U.S. bishops' website, www.usccb.org. Let me conclude with a couple of personal comments.

When I wrote my doctoral dissertation on the right to a just wage for all workers, one special takeaway was the power of participation. When we participate—in voting, offering an opinion, forming unions or being church—we feel more human. Our dignity is uplifted. We feel heard and healthy. Participation is a virtue, and we need to exercise it as church. Participation is one key to making our church "more real" and "more appealing."

Listening is hard. For ten years I have been a member of a priest support group. We gather once a month to air grievances, tell stories and support one another. I have to admit, it is much easier to talk during these sessions than to listen. I am constantly trying in these gatherings to really listen to someone who thinks or acts differently than me, whose family and formation are different than mine. As Pope Francis wants us to listen to one another in "a synodal church" we cannot underestimate the difficulty of becoming better listeners.

As Americans we are blessed to live in a democracy. But recent history has indicated that conflicts in our political system are on the rise, and community and the common good trending downward. It is tempting to see "synodality" as synonymous with "democracy." It is not. We have to avoid the us/them divisions prevalent today. We have to rejoice in the teaching authority of the church and its foundations: the Sacred Scriptures, the catechism, canon law, the witness of the saints in every age. Being a synodal church means we rely on prayer and discernment of the Holy Spirit working in our midst.

I ask all of you to pray to the Holy Spirit for the Synod of Bishops of 2023, and all that leads up to it.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share:

"Like the Magi from the East, every day we are blessed with is a day we should pay homage to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ."

The global synod: The central question

The central questions for our synodal sessions is: How do we, as sisters and brothers in Christ, journey together in our parish, diocese or other Catholic community? What steps is the Holy Spirit inviting us to take so that we can grow together? Everyone is invited to share what the Holy Spirit has laid on their hearts at synodal sessions throughout the Diocese of Pittsburgh in early 2022. Catholics throughout the world will be discerning the same questions. For more information text "Synod2021" to 84576 and go to www.diopitt.org/journeying-together to download your Participant Guide.

CATECHISM DISCUSSION WITH FATHER MOHLER

Father Mohler will be continuing his reflection videos on the Catechism of the Catholic Church with Dante Romito. Each week they will review a section from Part One on "The Profession of Faith" and post a video on Monday to the Parish YouTube channel. This can be found by going to the website at sjwpitt.org and clicking the little play symbol in the top right corner. There will also be weekly discussion groups at various times (either in-person or online) for those who are interested. They can contact Father Mohler at frmohler@outlook.com or by calling the Parish Office to leave a message. The schedule for the next four weeks:

- Jan. 17—CCC 26-100—We Believe
- Jan. 24—CCC 101-184—Sacred Scripture and Man's Response to God
- Jan. 31—CCC 185-267—The Profession of the Christian Faith—the Creeds

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

PSALM:

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

SECOND READING:

It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph 3:5-6)

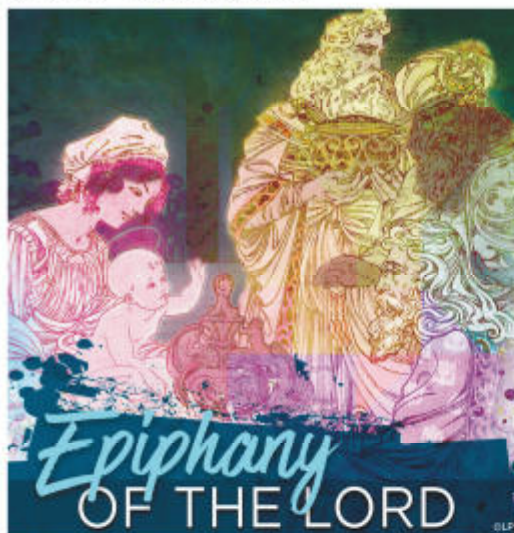

GOSPEL:

"Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." (Mt 2:2)

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Saint of the Week

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."

Sign of the Cross & Greeting Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you,
 my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
 in my thoughts and in my words,
 in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:

through my fault, through my fault,
 through my most grievous fault;
 therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
 all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters,
 to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a-dore you, we glo-ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, heav-en-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa-ther. Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly Be-got-ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us; you take a-way the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A - men. A - men.

Profession of Faith

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful Lord, Hear Our Prayer

St. Joseph prayer recited at the end of the Prayer of the Faithful:

O God, Creator of all things, who laid down for the human race the law of work, graciously grant that by the example of Saint Joseph and under his patronage, we may complete the works you set us to do, and attain the rewards you promise. Through Christ our Lord. Amen
