IN HIS GLORY: "LOVE ONE ANOTHER"

Last Sunday, in my homily, I focused on keeping God's Commandment of love based on the Risen Christ. Saint John tells us unless we know (the risen) Jesus we cannot keep His commandment of selfless love. John is very stern and calls those who do not keep Jesus' commandment of love while professing to "know" Him are LIARS! So first we must "know" the Risen Lord as the one who calls us to a new life (eternal) in Him. To understand fully the Risen Christ's commandment of love we must know how to translate it into action. When we try to translate "His" love into an active participation in loving, we must understand how to bring our "game" to a new Level. Using the Old Testament and ancient Greek Philosopher's concept of love we have a great starting point. I will lay out in print these concepts so that they can be a true tool for you to use in your daily life.

Sh'ma Yisrael - These are the first two words of the prayer of Israel (Hear Israel) that would be proclaimed at least four times a day:

Hear O Israel, The Lord our God is Lord alone.

You should love Him with all your Heart, Soul, Mind and Strength...

This prayer outlines a beautiful relationship between God and Man. As man comes to recognize that there is ONLY ONE God he is admitting that all others are false... including himself.

"No one can serve two masters... He will love the one and hate the other... "
(Matt 6:24)

With this concept as the catalysts to "loving" one must realize that he identifies his ability to do so with Heart, Soul, Mind and Strength.

If he gives these things to God then he has submitted to His Divine omnipotence and the driving force of love itself. So how do we define these ways of love and how do they limit us to love as God loves?

Four Philosophical Concepts of Love: To understand these four ways philosophically will help us to see their limits and their need to be complete.

Heart - The heart is has always been the symbol of the human emotions so therefore, “Eros”, love corresponds to this physical... human type of love. Eros calls into play all of our senses. It is the love that electrifies our experience of another. Fully engaged in this way we fall head (infatuated) over hills “in love” with another.

This sensual “erotic” love is a purely emotional and self-serving love. It lasts only for a time.

Mind - The mind is the seat of intellectual enlightenment. It is here that Plato says that (Platonic) love should lie. The bodily love of Eros distracts the mind from a greater gift that can be shared. The intellect allows one to set aside the bodily desires and develop a deeper and more meaningful way of life. It allows you to identify with your to existence - “I think therefore I am.” However, this kind of love alone is usually a love that becomes a “Mutual Admiration” society where the other is a sounding board to your intellectual prowess.

Strength - Friendship (philia) love is a calling of collective Strengths between people allowing their bond to make them stronger, more confident and to not stand alone but in and with the love of the other. Best friends compliment each other and the “need” is a shared experience. This “love” is only as strong as the mutual desires remain the same. If focus, values or opportunities change so does the relationship.

Soul - Agape love is the Divine Love that only God can provide with perfection. It is unconditionally given and is not predicated on the ability of the other to return the favor. The giver gives not out of need but out of pure love to share love! This here becomes the lynch pin and the perspective that only can be gained by human persons in light of the Resurrection and the Glory of Christ.

Trading in Weak Love for Perfect Love - When Jesus asks us to Love as He Loves the mission is to step aside and trade in our hearts, minds, souls and strength for that which is His love.

Heart of Lust and Pure Selfish Desires for - Mercy and Compassion which makes us ministers of healing Intellectual stimulation for - Wisdom that will transform our lives into disciples of Christ
 Strength of Friendship that elevates our self worth (Pride) for - Humility that strengthens us under the cross Souls that long for perfection weighed by sin for - The Divine gift of the inexhaustible charity that calls us to taste the heavenly kingdom.

Love one another as I have loved you is the calling to take the four aspects of love and make them perfect in the Glory of Christ. It is in this love for which we gain peace in being ministers of Christ’s presence. “THEY WILL KNOW THAT WE ARE CHRISTIANS BY OUR LOVE”

Years of Service—

Our Lord taught us to serve others, especially on Holy Thursday when he washed the feet of His disciples.

Our St. Vincent dePaul Society has been blessed with 39 years of service by Tony & Grace Mastro, who truly live by this teaching of our Lord in their service to others, but are now retiring. They were honored recently at one of their monthly meetings. We thank them for all those years of service to the group and to others for their tireless volunteering. They are a great inspiration to us all. May God bless them.

The TOP student initiative was founded by an anonymous donor, himself a product of a Catholic education who was profoundly influenced by Saint Pope John Paul II. The donor believes his faith, education and moral foundation gave him a great advantage in life. He and more than 100 other people have become strong supporters of Catholic Schools. Saint Pope John Paul II left a legacy of being one of the most important world leaders in the second half of the 20th century. He was a man of conviction and principle who built bridges of peace between people of different countries and religions. He was a preacher and a teacher who drew historic crowds of men, women and children all yearning to be closer to God. He was front and center on the global stage as a defender of human dignity writing that, “Every threat to human dignity and life must necessarily be felt in the Church’s very heart.”

Please call the school office at 724-978-0144 to make an appointment for a tour one of our Pre-K 3 - Grade 8 classrooms and learn more about being a TOP student.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said:

"Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed.

He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.

There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118

Michel Guimont

SECOND READING

1 John 3:1-2

Beloved:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now;

what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Jesus said:

"I am the good shepherd.

A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own,

sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away,

and the wolf catches and scatters them.

This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd,

and I know mine and mine know me,

just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;

and I will lay down my life for the sheep.

I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold.

These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice,

and there will be one flock, one shepherd.

This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own.

I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again.

This command I have received from my Father."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,

the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.
