FIRST READING—1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah:

“You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you.”

Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, “Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you.” Elijah answered, “Go back! Have I done anything to you?” Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM—Psalms 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge; I say to the LORD, “My Lord are you.
O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot.”

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

I bless the LORD who counsels me; even in the night my heart exhorts me.
I set the LORD ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

SECOND READING—Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters:

For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

GOSPEL—*Luke 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

FREEDOM

Now that we have come through the gauntlet of Solemnities that follow the Easter Season (Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and Corpus Christi), we return to our normal Sunday progression through the books of the New Testament. This week, we pick up toward the end of St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians. The end of the letter addresses Christian life and liberty after discussing the nature of faith, the example of Abraham, and the purpose and role of the Mosaic Law.

Providentially, the Spirit shows us what real freedom looks like just one week before we celebrate Independence Day. Freedom is not "an opportunity for the flesh," the chance to do whatever the chemical impulses and urges we feel dictate in the moment. That sort of "freedom" is actually slavery to our fickle desires and renders us no different from the animal kingdom whose members cannot say no to their urges. Rather, true freedom is the ability to do good, to "serve one another through love." Love is doing what is best for someone else, even if it goes against my feelings. If I do not have the strength of character to do the right thing in the face of challenges, then I am not truly free. I am enslaved to my fear and my weak will. Much of what we call freedom in modern America is actually "the yoke of slavery."

The Spirit cries out to us, "For freedom Christ has set us free, so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery." Sin begins as a free choice, but it quickly turns into bondage.

JASON GAWALDO

Director of Faith Formation
jgawaldo@greatgrouping.org

Just think of those pesky sins that you struggle to shake. Perhaps more to the point, you occasionally struggle to shake them but often give up trying because it feels useless. That heavy weight is the yoke of slavery. Just as sin begins with a free choice, freedom also begins with a free choice to let the Lord emancipate us and then to live the free life in the Lord. To be fair, God's grace always precedes our choice, so freedom actually begins with grace followed by our choice to cooperate with it. Notice that distinction. True freedom is not something to be grasped at but cooperated with.

To be free to choose the good, to serve one another in love, to cooperate with grace and live in freedom is what it means to "live by the Spirit." In the next several verses, which are not included in our reading at Mass, St. Paul lists many of the works of the flesh (v. 19-21) before he lists the famous fruits of the Spirit (v. 22-23). When we live by the Spirit, we should experience these fruits in our lives. The Lord wants us to experience the great freedom that he won for us along with the fruits that it will inevitably produce. What area of your life do you need to surrender to the Lord so you can experience true freedom and the fruits of the Spirit?

MAKING MUSIC PRAYING TWICE

Facilitating MMPT for the past three years has been such a blessing. Seeing the pure innocence and excitement in the little faces of children as they sing of God's love, and dance and play, has brought so much joy to my Monday mornings. If you're looking for a mood-booster, come spend an hour with a group of babies and toddlers in music class; it will surely brighten and energize the rest of your week.

—Allison

We are looking for more facilitators for fall sessions.
A good facilitator...

- Loves young children and babies
- Wants to serve the Church
- Is willing to spend time mastering the songs, preparing, and improving as a facilitator
- Sings in tune and strong enough to lead a group
- Can clap, stomp or play simple rhythm instruments, like a tambourine, on the beat
- Will dance freely, to the beat, and without inhibition in a group

If you are interested in facilitating or just want to learn more, contact Jason Gawaldo at jgawaldo@greatgrouping.org

THANK YOU GOOD SAMARITAN

BOBBY ALOE

Fundraising & Accounting Assistant
baloe@greatgrouping.org

In June of 1994, Father John Bauer asked me to join the staff of the newly formed Good Samaritan Parish. Without hesitation, I said yes! I knew that was where I wanted to be, where the Lord wanted me to be. Those were difficult times; five churches would merge into one parish, then eventually into one campus.

I look back 28 years and think, where did the time go? It's hard to believe that I have spent almost half of my life working at the parish. I think of all that we accomplished in the past 28 years. Through your generosity and sacrifices, we have new roofs on our buildings, and an elevator in Jericho Hall, and all of our Liturgical Celebrations. We even have one of the largest festivals in the Diocese!

I have worn many different hats over the years; some of which were taking care of the parish's financial matters, coordinating many of the Parish's Fundraising events, and being with your families as you brought your loved ones to their final place of rest; it was my honor.

One of the things that brought us together was gathering around the table... Yes, the food table, but more importantly we gathered around the Lord's Table, sharing His Supper.

I have had the pleasure of working with so many amazing people who taught me so much. From the priests, my coworkers, and all who have tirelessly given to your parish. You are a special group of people.

I wish there was enough space to personally thank each one of you for all that you did for me to make my years at Good Samaritan so enjoyable. On a more serious note, I must thank you for all the prayers, especially when I had my health scare seven years ago. You're the best!

As my time as an employee of Good Samaritan Parish comes to an end, I look forward to the next chapter—St. Luke the Evangelist Parish and the many exciting things it will bring.

It is said that a person will change jobs 12 times in their working years. Here I am, 28 years later, still in the same position, and I wouldn't have changed it for the world!

STAGES OF THE MERGER PROCESS

EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2022: NEW MASS SCHEDULE

As part of the third stage of the merger process, a parish-wide survey was undertaken to help determine the new Mass schedule. # DEMENTIA SUPPORT

“ IN THE TENDER
COMPASSION OF OUR
GOD, THE DAWN FROM
ON HIGH WILL BREAK
UPON US TO SHINE ON THOSE WHO DWELL IN DARKNESS AND THE SHADOW OF DEATH
AND TO GUIDE OUR FEET INTO THE WAY OF PEACE.”

—Luke 1:78-79

Dementia, which includes Alzheimer's, is a terminal disease of the brain that causes loss of cognitive function and memory, loss of physical function, and psychological and behavioral changes. It is a tragic disease where a person slowly slips away into darkness, a darkness that overshadows the entire family. June is Brain and Mental Health Awareness Month and it includes June 21, known as The Longest Day, or Alzheimer's Awareness Day. It is the day with the most sunlight and a day to bring to light all those who live in this darkness.

Caring for a loved one with dementia, either at home or in a facility, is a challenging and exhausting experience, physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. It was only the light of Christ that dispelled the dark and devastating affects this disease had on my father and on those who loved him. Every day brought new changes and challenges that seemed all too overwhelming, and made each day feel like the longest, darkest day to me and especially my father. Shrouded in fear, confusion, sorrow, doubt, and the shadow of death, it was Jesus alone that brought me peace.

Jesus tells us, You are the light of the world. To bring the light and presence of Jesus to those whose loved ones suffer from this disease, the Dementia Support Group helps family members through shared experiences, prayer, mutual support, and resources. Often, family members feel overwhelmed and alone. But you are not alone! Let Jesus shine His light into your darkness through the help and support of others who share your journey.

—Kim Herbert

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe that Christ becomes truly present within the Blessed Sacrament. As promised by Him, His Presence is abiding, not something that vanishes at the conclusion of Mass. During Eucharistic Adoration, we can sit silently in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces. Adoration available at Our Lady of Peace, Monday-Thursday 8AM-8PM and perpetually at Saints John & Paul, Sunday-Friday.
