Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING—Genesis 18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot. Looking up, Abraham saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said: “Sir, if I may ask you this favor, please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree. Now that you have come this close to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way.” The men replied, “Very well, do as you have said.”

Abraham hastened into the tent and told Sarah, “Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls.” He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice steer, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it. Then Abraham got some curds and milk, as well as the steer that had been prepared, and set these before the three men; and he waited on them under the tree while they ate.

They asked Abraham, “Where is your wife Sarah?” He replied, “There in the tent.”

One of them said, “I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM—Psalms 15:2-3, 3-4, 5

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

One who walks blamelessly and does justice; who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue.

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Who harms not his fellow man, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor; by whom the reprobate is despised, while he honors those who fear the LORD.

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Who lends not his money at usury and accepts no bribe against the innocent. One who does these things shall never be disturbed.

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

SECOND READING—Colossians 1:24-28

Brothers and sisters:

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory. It is he whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

GOSPEL—Luke 10:38-42

Jesus entered a village
where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him.
She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak.
Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, “Lord, do you not care
that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?
Tell her to help me.”
The Lord said to her in reply,
“Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.
There is need of only one thing.
Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.”

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

TRUST

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JAY

Now that we are together in a new parish, and let's begin this new step in our faith life by doing what is wisest and best... trusting in Jesus! Here is a powerful prayer of Trust:

DELIVER ME, JESUS... From the belief that I have to earn Your love;
From the fear that I am unlovable;
From the fear that trusting You will leave me more destitute;
From all suspicion of Your words and promises;
From the rebellion against childlike dependency on You;
From anxiety about the future;
From resentment or excessive preoccupation with the past;
From disbelief in Your love and presence;
From the belief that my life has no meaning or worth;
Deliver me, Jesus

That not knowing what tomorrow brings is an invitation to lean on You;
That You are continually holding me, sustaining me, loving me;
That Your love goes deeper than my sins and failings, and transforms me;
That you are with me in my suffering;
That my suffering, united to Your own, will bear fruit in this life and the next;
That You will not leave me orphaned, that You are present in Your Church;
That You give me the grace to accept forgiveness and to forgive others;
That my life is a gift;
That You are my Lord and my God, that I am Your beloved one;
Jesus, I trust in you. Amen.

RECIPROCAL INDWELLING

This week, we linger a bit longer in the rich opening verse of St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians. Here the Spirit whispers to us about the sufferings in our lives, our union with Jesus, and our ultimate growth in holiness.

Our reading begins with a very strange statement: "In my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the affiliations of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church." What could possibly be lacking in Jesus' Passion that made salvation available to every person who has and ever will live? The only thing lacking is my willful union with it. The Catechism refers to this verse when it speaks of how we can deliberately enter into the divine plan (CCC 307), that Jesus desires to associate us with his redeeming sacrifice (CCC 618), and that our own sufferings can take on a redemptive quality in union with Jesus (CCC 1508). No wonder Paul rejoices in his sufferings! It is not a masochistic joy but an altruistic and a spiritual rejoicing at being more closely united with Jesus for the spiritual benefit of others. That same experience is available to each one of us.

Paul speaks of the "mystery hidden from ages and from generations past" that now "has been manifested to his holy ones." So what is the mystery? "It is Christ in you, the hope for glory." Why can we hope for glory in heaven? Because Christ, the risen and glorified one, already lives within us. We are living tabernacles.

JASON GAWALDO

Director of Faith Formation
jgawaldo@saintluke.net

It is Jesus living within us that gives redemptive value to our sufferings. Throughout many of his letters, Paul describes what can be called a reciprocal indwelling. We are in Christ as members of his Body who have been incorporated (literally "made part of a body") by Baptism, and Christ is in us through the sacraments, most especially the Eucharist, as the animating and spiritualizing principle that is our hope for glory.

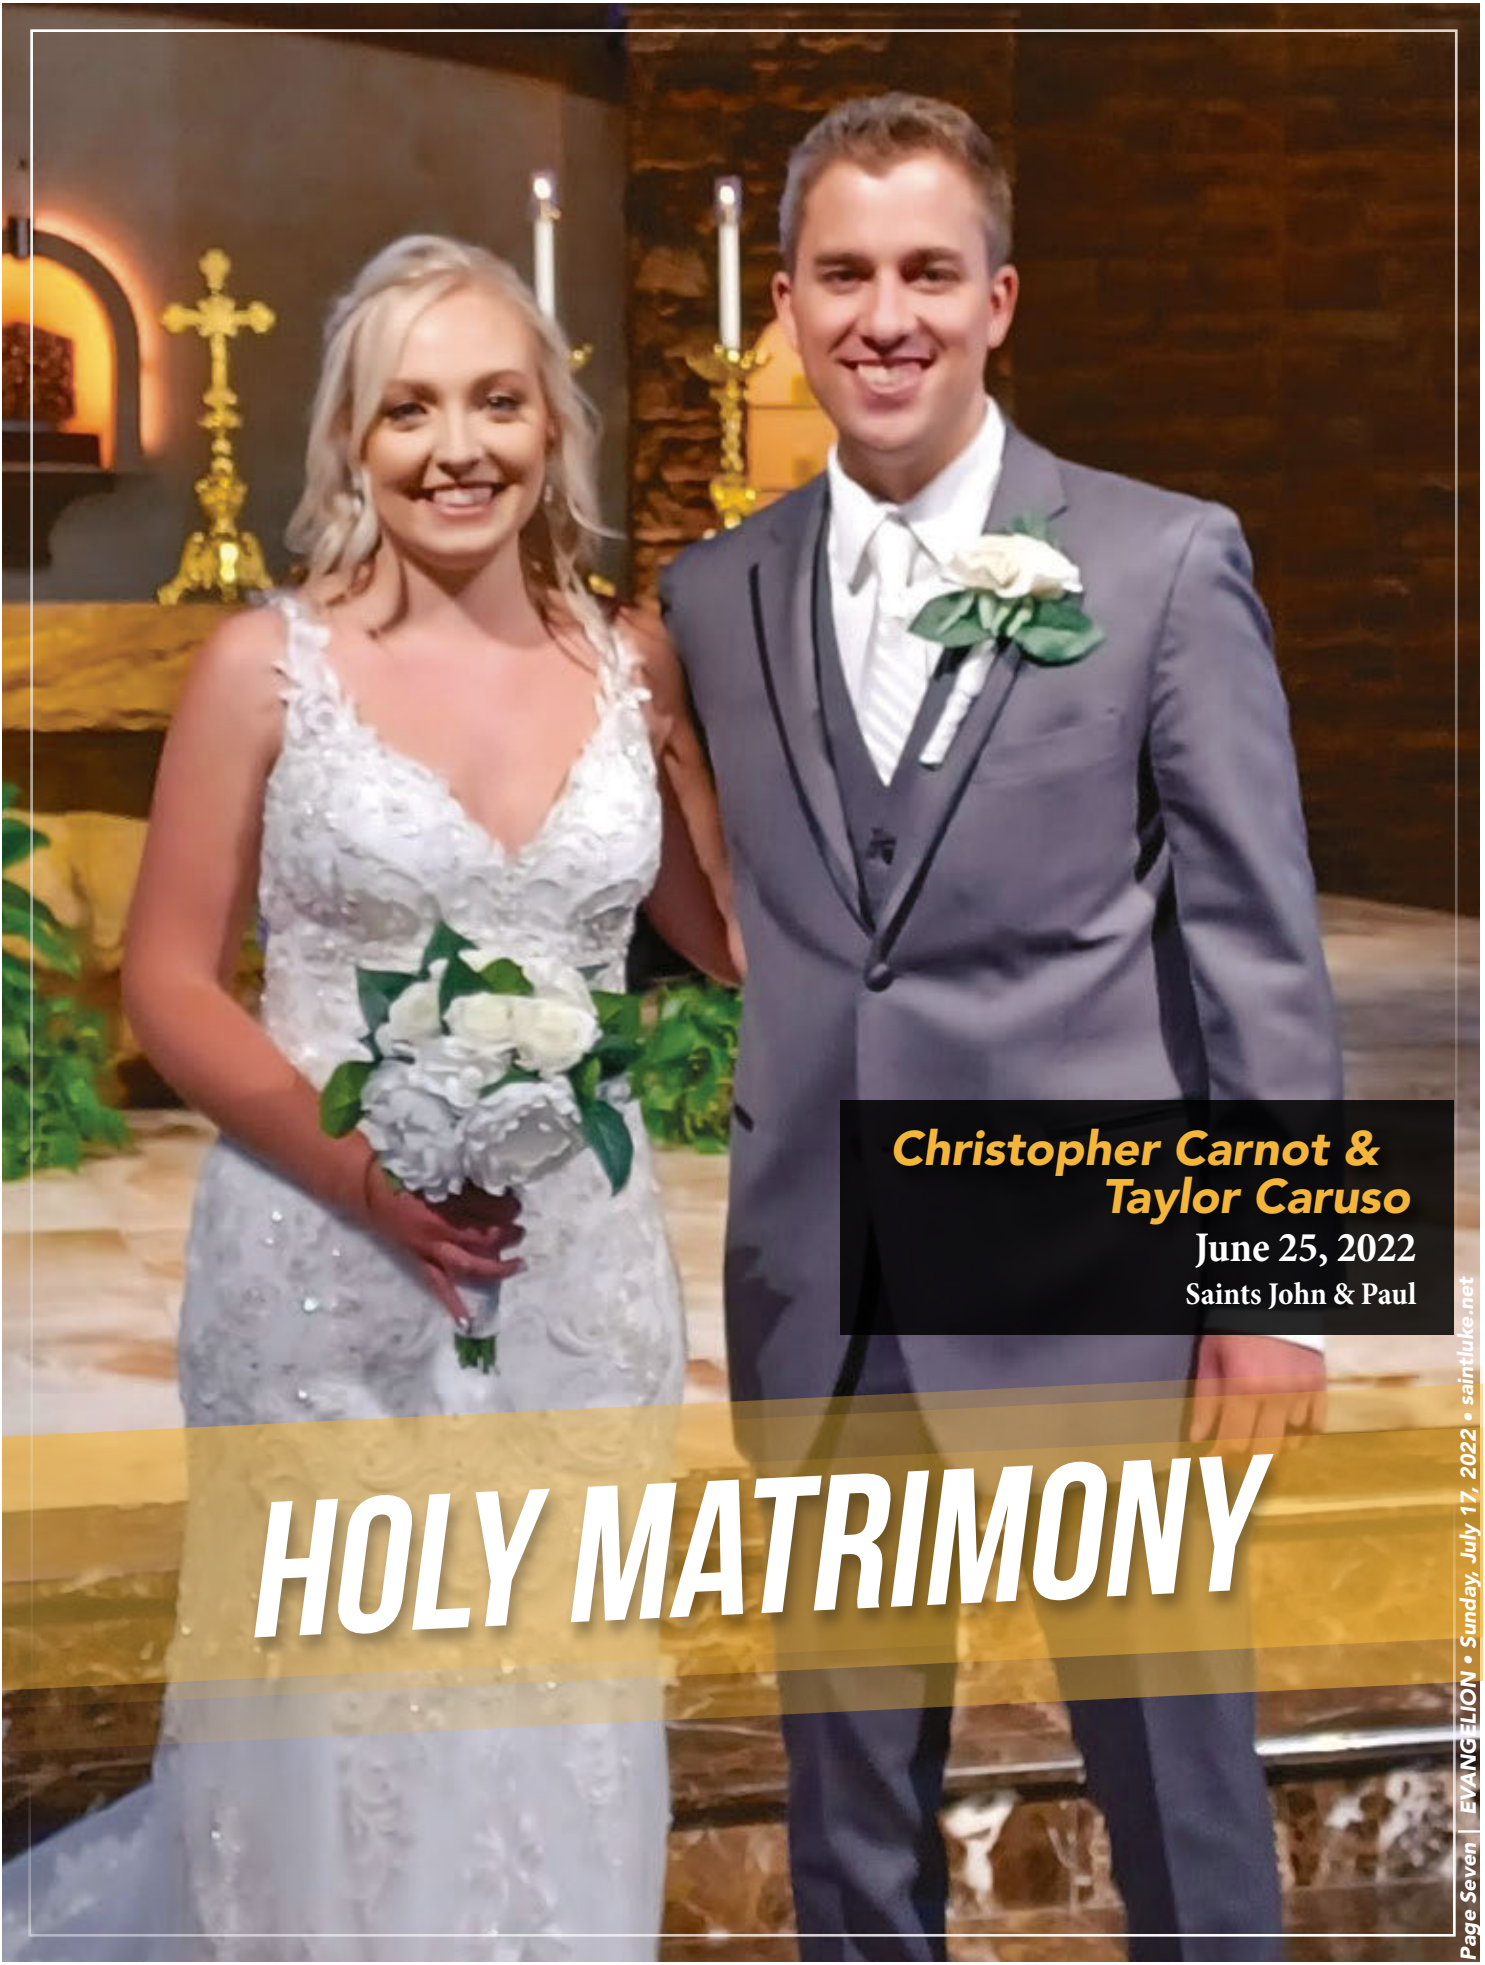

This reading contains a feeling of a spiritual manifest destiny, a spiritual growth and maturity that simply must happen in each of us. Paul speaks of his God-given task to "bring to completion for you the word of God" so "that we may present everyone perfect in Christ." This week, the Spirit seems to be showing us that part of that completion and perfection is to embrace the sufferings that come our way, both large and small, and to unite those with Jesus' Cross. A wise priest once told me, "To every cross that comes your way, press your lips." Offering it up gives meaning to an experience that is otherwise meaningless and turns what may appear to be an unanswered prayer into intimate union with the Lord.

What crosses are you carrying now? And are you willing to fill up what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ?

nsciarappa@saintluke.net

I looked in my sideview mirror to notice my left rear tire backing into a creek. Just before I put my car into drive, I saw the bank of the stone road collapse into the creek... along with my car. Uh oh. I was stuck.

I was supposed to be getting more supplies for the client we were serving in Appalachia during our mission trip. But suddenly, I was not in the position to assist others. I needed assistance.

The teens rushed to my car to help out in any way they could. Kelsey, Kenzie, and Eevee offered moral support while Drew, Johnathan and Javier got to work jacking up the car, building ramps and digging out the wheels. The client we were serving got on her landline to call the neighbors for help. The car had to get out if we were going to have enough spots for the teens to make it back to Pittsburgh from Kentucky.

In what seemed to be an isolated place, neighbors appeared out of nowhere to offer ideas, a tractor for towing, and able-bodied people to push or pull the car out of the creek.

As the small community gathered to help me, I felt a great deal of unworthiness. I felt as though this was MY mistake, and the only person who should be inconvenienced was ME. But everyone who helped me had a different perspective. For them, it was an opportunity to love me with their talents, sweat and effort. They showed me the love of God—a love that is sacrificial, selfless, and awarded despite any feeling of unworthiness.

Eventually, Javier found some nearby pallets I could drive over to get to a clearing. My car had some considerable damage, but was able to make it back home safely.

Next year, when this publication advertises mission trips, consider joining us. You won't regret it. And I might need more help.

2022 SCHOLARSHIP

The Saints John & Paul Men's Club started awarding scholarships to graduating high school seniors almost 20 years ago. The first year we awarded two $500 scholarships, and through the generous support of Parish Fish Frys and Men's Club Raffles, we have grown to over $10,000 in annual awards. Over the years the recipients of the scholarships have dedicated over 40,000 hours of volunteer service to the parish and the community. We are all grateful for their service, and the Men's Club is pleased to recognize their achievements. This year, in preparation for the merger into Saint Luke the Evangelist Parish, we opened up the applications to all seniors within the four parishes that comprised our grouping.

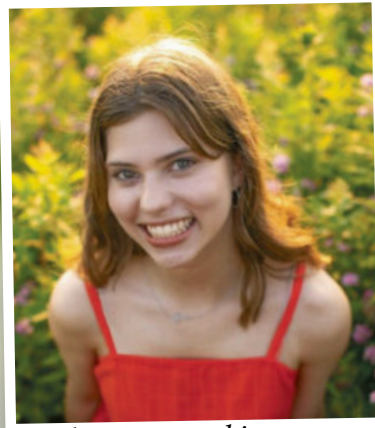

The Scholarship is based on a number of factors, but first and foremost is the candidates' volunteer activities in the parish and the community. We have read hundreds of inspiring essays, scored hundreds of applications, and every year are astounded at the level of service and contributions of all of the applicants. They are true examples of Christ among us. It is a privilege to recognize these seniors and to say, "Thank you and God bless you," to all of the members of the Class of 2022.

IN THEIR WORDS...

Most of my volunteer hours came from being a scout in our parish's troop and serving on the altar. Boy Scouts was my biggest source of volunteer hours, and I highly recommend that any boy who is in middle or high school join the parish troop. My Eagle Scout project consisted of a series of refurbishments at an elementary school for the autistic, and that alone earned me about 150 hours of service. Boy Scouts is also a fantastic pipeline to getting consistent volunteer opportunities, and a great system of fellowship, as you will often find yourself getting service hours through helping your friends with their own Eagle Scout projects. Altar serving builds steady relationships with the clergy, Eucharistic ministers, and ushers, and a greater understanding of the processes at Mass. Becoming a more active and helpful member of Saints John & Paul has bolstered my success in unimaginable ways, and I am so thankful for everyone I have met here in my youth.

—Hunter

I have had an opportunity to meet some inspirational people through the church's youth group who helped me better learn about myself and my special relationship with God. Volunteering in many parish-related activities has brought me closer to God, setting the course for my life going forward. My faith in God has helped me to face life's challenges with courage, to overcome obstacles with positive determination, and to grow spiritually in my relationship with Jesus to be the person I am today. I encourage all young people in our parish to get involved, volunteer your time, and be inspired to serve those in need through Jesus Christ.

—Emily

Throughout my time serving in the church, each volunteer experience, each mission trip, and each moment spent in service have had such an impact on my life. I truly believe that service is more than just giving to others. When we serve, we become the hands and feet of Christ. I have experienced service opportunities which have blessed me more than I could have imagined. I never thought that by stepping out of my comfort zone and going out to serve, I could receive twice as much as I gave. The people serving around you, as well as those being served, are the ones that will change your outlook on life. So, I encourage anyone reading this to take those steps in becoming the hands and feet of Christ by becoming involved in service. It is worth every moment! Thank you to the Saint Luke the Evangelist staff who have blessed me with the opportunities to serve with our church as well as the Men's Club for providing me with the opportunity to serve in my future. God Bless!

—Elsa

Through my childhood, the church has always been a large part of my life and provided me with endless support and love. I love teaching, so my volunteer work in the church has always centered on education for those younger than me. It has always brought me joy to share the love and teachings of God with young kids as they learn about building relationships and growing up. I couldn't imagine the past years of my life without being involved in the church, and I'm grateful for the opportunities that have been presented to me through the Saints John & Paul Faith Formation program.

—Sara

Volunteering in the church has always been a huge part of my life. My mom instilled in my siblings and me that it is important to give our time to the church and use our God-given gifts to give back as much as we can. I volunteer in the parish in the Faith Formation ministry and at VBS. When I am able to articulate certain teachings to first graders and I see their understanding of it, it allows me to look at things in different ways. I have loved my time volunteering and it has truly shaped me into the person I am today. I value the importance of service and think that a huge reason I want to be a pediatrician is because I like helping people. I am happy that serving in our faith has been a big part of my life and glad my Mom gave me an open door to service by introducing me to many organizations and leading the way as a great example.

—Vanessa

My Catholic faith has helped me become a better person, brought new friends into my life, guided me through tough situations, and gained me unforgettable experiences. I am forever grateful for my faith and for the role our wonderful parish has played in aiding me in my faith journey. From participating in the Living Stations of the Cross, where Jesus' passion and suffering were brought vividly to life, to Vacation Bible School, where after attending for several years, I started volunteering as a teen leader, helping young children learn about Catholicism (and learning a lot about my own faith along the way!). Every experience I've had with our parish has brought growth, friendship, and lifelong memories. After high school, I plan on being involved in my faith as much as possible, despite the challenges of being far from home. I've found a Catholic church within walking distance of my college, and plan on finding ways to be involved in the parish and with any number of religious clubs on campus. Despite the challenges, I will stay true to my faith after high school; in fact, I hope it will only grow more as I learn more about my faith and grow as a person.

HEALING

On Saturday, June 25, 2022 I attended the final Mass celebration at Our Lady of Peace. All was well until Father Jay blessed our doors. Then the tears started to stream down my face. Reality set in.

Going home I was listening to the radio and the group Alabama was singing their hit song, Jukebox In My Mind. The refrain began: "In the corner of my mind stands a jukebox and it's playing all my favorite memories."

However, over the next couple of days, the jukebox in my mind was playing hymns, prayers, and quotes from saints. The first record to come up was Let There Be Peace On Earth, the flip side I found myself humming, "Lord, Make Me An Instrument Of Your Peace." Flipping through the menu the Serenity Prayer came into view. This prayer always gave me such comfort. I thought to myself, 'Is anybody else saying this prayer tonight?'

I read Our Lord's Prayer, and a prayer for healing and peace by Saint Teresa of Avila. Continuing to flip the pages of my jukebox there was a quote from Saint Teresa: "If you judge a person, you have no time to love them." Wow, that is a hard one to get right, and there are days I fail miserably.

My jukebox wasn't quite empty yet. there on the last pages were quotes from Saint Thomas Aquinas: "How can we live in harmony? First, we all need to know that we are all madly in love with the same God," and, "To convert somebody take them by the hand and guide them."

In the spiritual sense, I need to take somebody's hand and to continue the wonderful experience that awaits me. Then my heart and mind can heal.

MASS INTENTIONS

Parish Secretaries
info@saintluke.net

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF A MASS INTENTION?

Many people schedule Masses to honor the memory of a loved one who has passed away to remember them on a day such as their birthday, anniversary, or other special days. Praying for those deceased is a great act of mercy. Masses can also be offered for the spiritual and physical well-being of individuals. Remembering the Souls in Purgatory with a Mass is a beautiful gift of prayer.

Rarely do we think of having a Mass offered for a celebration! Is there a better way to show our gratitude to God? Masses can be said for birthdays, anniversaries, in celebration of the reception of sacraments, or for prayers that have been answered.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

Beginning August 1, due to the overwhelming response of parishioners requesting Mass intentions, we are initiating the following guidelines for Masses scheduled at both Saints John & Paul Church and Good Samaritan Church:

- Parishioners may schedule one weekend Mass (Saturday or Sunday) per quarter (4 per year)
- Parishioners may schedule two weekday Masses per month

On the first of every month, the Mass intention book will be opened for the same month in 2023. For example, on August 1, 2022 the Mass intentions will be available for August 2023. All prior months can be scheduled based on availability.

Please note: All masses scheduled online are pending and will be approved by the Parish office. Once the requests are approved, you will receive a confirmation email. We regret that we may need to decline requests that do not meet the above criteria. Any questions, please contact the office. You are always welcome to call or stop in the office and request a Mass. Thank you for your understanding and patience with our new online system.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe that Christ becomes truly present within the Blessed Sacrament. As promised by Him, His Presence is abiding, not something that vanishes at the conclusion of Mass. During Eucharistic Adoration, we can sit silently in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces. Adoration available at Good Samaritan, Monday-Friday 8AM-8PM and perpetually at Saints John & Paul, Sunday-Friday.
