

Our Lady Of the Lake

The Roman Catholic Parish of Edinboro, PA

4th Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28, 30

Family Perspective:

Mary and Joseph must have been proud when their village "all spoke well of Jesus and were amazed at his words." But they probably felt shame when the same people drove him out of town. Like Mary and Joseph, the highs and lows of parenting are our path to being a Holy Family.

Marriage Moment:

Love is patient, kind, truthful, hopeful, enduring...

Love is not jealous, pompous, inflated, rude, quick-tempered, brooding. (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)

Tell your beloved which positive quality you think they are strong in.

Holy Hour:

There will be a Holy Hour on Friday, February 11th. Between 7 PM and 8 PM for the members of our parish, candidates and Fr. Dan, who are working a Cursillo this weekend. PLEASE NOTE: This Holy Hour is open to the whole parish and NOT just people who have made Cursillos. We want to pray not just for the team and the participants from our parish but also that God will Bless the Cursillo Movement in our diocese and that the Holy Spirit will encourage all who have not made a Cursillo to consider making one.

Attention all Cursillistas!

There will be a Palanca Party on February 6th, after the 8 am. Mass. Join us for the Knights of Columbus breakfast and then head upstairs to room 4. We have 3 candidates from our parish so far, plus 4 men from the parish working this team. Father Dan, Jeff Nelson, Tim Haschalk and Ralph Nathal. FYI, paper palanca is preferred. Wink, wink. If you would like more information, please email Jeff Nelson - jk_4422@yahoo.com or Kris - nelsonk71@gmail.com. Remember Men's Cursillo will be held on February 11,12 and 13.and Women's Cursillo will be held April 29, 30 and May 1.

Eucharistic Adoration will begin on Friday, February 4th following the 8am Mass. It will conclude on Saturday, February 5th with 7:45am Benediction, followed by Mass at 8am. In its fullest essence, Eucharistic Adoration is "God and humanity reaching out to each other, at the same time!"

Reflection

GOSPEL MEDITATION

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a "Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador's civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica)." As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God's message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one's earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God's love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?
