Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first verse presented for today's reading comes from the first of three parts from the Book of Isaiah. This book is referred to as the judgments of God. The two remaining parts are shorter in length. From the moment that Isaiah has received his calling as a prophet, he has known no rest. He is charged with warning downfall of the kingdoms of Judah and Israel as punishment for the people's unfaithfulness and their failure to repent. The passage speaks of the joy of restoration after God has passed judgment upon Ebon.

God in His vindication has come to save those who have been faithful to the Law. These unfortunate caught in the exile will be the first to share in God's blessings. The figurative language states actions of goodwill and will result in their being saved.

Mark has finished the controversy with the Pharisees about ritual purity. Jesus like the Father shows compassion on a man who is deaf and "who has a speech impediment." He shows faith in Jesus as he asks Jesus to place His hand on him. This practice of imposition of hands is a common feature in an ancient healing ritual. The healing is a belief that the healer is a powerful person who possesses this blest ability to heal another's infirmity. This practice is not stated in the Old Testament nor in rabbinical writings; however it is found in one of the Dead Sea scrolls. The practice common in the New Testament of healing and exorcism.

Jesus' gestures and other actions are sacramental for they achieve what they symbolize, the opening of the ears and the loosening of the tongue. The completeness of the cure is emphasized by "ears opened" and "spoke plainly".

Jesus' prohibition of not talking about the cure is Mark's insistence to show that Jesus is more than a healer. His full identity becomes known in the crucifixion and His resurrection. He does, however, emphasize strongly the crowd's reaction to the cured man as an indication of the theological significance and suggests their reaction has brought a new creation in Jesus.

The short passage from Isaiah is part of Israel's glorious future and the good or reward given to those who believe and live according to the Law. There is another connection as well. The age of Messianic salvation has arrived with Jesus as Isaiah's prophesied Messiah.

THE OBLIGATION TO ATTEND SUNDAY MASS IS IN EFFECT for Catholics in the Greensburg Diocese and throughout Pennsylvania. May this blessed obligation be fulfilled with gratitude and trust in the Lord, along with prudence when it comes to COVID or other health issues.

MASS ATTENDANCE for August 28-29 was: 5:00 PM (79), 9:00 am (61), and 11:00 am (87) for a total of 227. This is 73% of the pre-pandemic attendance (310) and a good start to our return to obligatory Mass participation. May we encourage one another in getting back to Mass.

LITANY TO ST. JOSEPH will be prayed immediately after the 8:00 am Mass each Wednesday during this Holy Year in honor of St. Joseph.

NOW IS A GOOD TIME to inquire about the possibility of becoming a Catholic! A small group of interested persons is beginning to form. The process, called the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA), is expected to get underway before the end of September. Just call the Parish Office.

OUR PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL currently has only four members. At least three new members will be sought to serve on this important team of advisors to the pastor. Parishioners who are practicing our Catholic faith and are dedicated to advancing the mission of the Church within our St. Florian Parish Faith Community qualify. If you would like to be considered for this service, or to recommend someone, please call the parish office or let Fr. John know. Thank you.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION consoles the Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary! Read about this in this bulletin in the announcement titled, THE 8TH SORROW OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, which is what she communicated to a certain Benedictine monk via locution. It was taken from In Sinu Jesu p. 183-185. For August 24-25 the following hours had only one adorer: 9 am, 10 am (no one logged-in), 3 PM, 1 am, 2 am, and 3 am. Thank you! At least two adorers should be present for each hour. If no one shows up after you, please call the parish office or Fr. John's cell phone before leaving.

CHURCH IS OPEN 24/7 for silent adoration of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle. Everyone is encouraged to stop in each day if possible at a convenient time, and to sign our log-in time sheet so that we can gauge participation in this. Please help us toward perpetual adoration. These are unprecedented times invite our full turning to the Lord. Thank you for your response!

The 8th Sorrow of the Blessed Virgin Mary

(These are the words communicated by the Blessed Virgin Mary to a Benedictine monk. They are from the book, In Sinu Jesu, pp. 183-185)

Yes, my beloved little son, the eighth sorrow of my maternal and Immaculate Heart is that my Son is so offended in the Sacrament of His love. This sorrow of mine will endure until the end of time, when the real presence of my Son in the Most Holy Sacrament will give way to the sight of His divine majesty. Then will faith give way to vision, and hope to possession. Then will love be secure and everlasting for all who will have died in the embrace of His divine friendship.

Until then, know that my maternal Heart suffers and grieves over the irreverence, the coldness, and the ingratitude of so many souls towards the Sacrament of my Son's undying love. It is in this Sacrament that He loves His own, loving them to the end—to the end of every created possibility and to the end of this passing world. His Eucharistic love surpasses all the laws of perishable nature: there is no greater miracle on the face of the earth than the real presence of my Son in the Sacrament of the Altar. Even so, He is forsaken, neglected, and handed over to sinners to be betrayed, again and again—and this by His chosen ones, His beloved priests, the men whom He chose to be the consolation and joy of His Heart. This is my own Heart's eighth sorrow: the betrayal and neglect of my Son in the Most Holy Eucharist.

How is He betrayed? His priests, my own sons, betray Him when they fail to make Him known, when by not teaching the mystery of His real presence they leave souls in the darkness of ignorance, without fire or light. 2 They betray my Son when, by their example, they discourage reverence, and adoration, and a loving attention to His presence. They betray Him when they offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass unworthily, and when they hand Him over to sinners who have no intention of giving Him their hearts and seeking His mercy and His pardon for their sins. They betray Him when they leave Him alone in locked churches and when they make it difficult or impossible for souls to approach His tabernacles and rest in the radiance of His Eucharistic Face. They betray Him when they allow His churches to become places of noise and worldly chatter, and when they do nothing to recall souls to the living mystery of His love, that is, His presence in the tabernacle.

Shall I tell you more of this eighth sorrow of my Heart? It is when you are lacking in generosity, when you fail to respond to love with love, when you are not generous in being present to Him who is present in the Most Holy Eucharist for love of you. I speak here not only to you, but to all my priest sons and to all consecrated souls who live with my Son under the same roof, and yet treat Him coldly, or casually, or with a distant formality.

This, too, is the eighth sorrow of my Heart: that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is celebrated quickly, with little reverence, with no thanksgiving, and with all the attention given, not to my Son, the Lamb, but, rather, to the human presence of His minister, who, by calling attention to himself, takes from God what belongs rightly to God alone: the loving attention of every heart during the Holy Mysteries.

What more shall I tell you? Do you not grieve with me over this eighth sorrow of my Heart, made up of many sorrows repeated again, and again, and again? Grieve with me today, and console my maternal and Immaculate Heart by adoring my Son, the blessed fruit of my womb, and by giving Him all that you are in an immolation of love.
