Question of the Week:

When have you been most blessed and when have you felt a little “broken” in your service to others? Why is it important to keep on giving, even when you are tired?

---

Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday’s Gospel, Lk 9:11b-17

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:

"They all ate and were satisfied." Why read the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves this Sunday? Here we see the mystery of our physical and spiritual realities intermingling. Too often, they can feel separate. When we go to Mass, how often we appear more ordinarily human rather than stretching toward the divine. Perhaps our experience of the Eucharist is fairly mundane. We notice when a new sacramental wine has been selected. We feel the varying textures of the host and wonder if they'll ever bring back the one that tasted distinctly like wheat. As we shuffle up to the front and stride back to our pew, we notice the looks on people's faces and the clothes on their backs. We get distracted by the crying child, the man blowing his nose, and the mechanical sound of the air conditioner kicking in. How human we are, how earth-bound, how material! And how good God is for entering into these self-same realities. How good God is for proclaiming "the kingdom of God," for "healing" those who needed to be cured," for having mercy on a tired and hungry crowd. How many of the crowd noticed what had been done for them? Did they realize their dinner was a miracle? How often do we miss the deeper reality of the Eucharist? Even if in the moment of receiving Communion we don't experience radical ecstasy and don't feel any different, there is a tangible reality to cling to. Our God loves us enough to become bread for us, not only to feed us but to be fed upon by us.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word is held at the 10:00 AM Sunday Morning Mass. If your child is between the ages of 5 years old through to third grade, have them participate in this special Children’s Liturgy.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — The media has been working overtime to frame Georgia’s new pro-life legislation, known commonly as the “heartbeat bill,” as harmful to women, instead of what it actually is: protection for unborn children with beating hearts. One of the most striking and effective statements over the years by the pro-life movement has been “Abortion stops a beating heart.”

Dear Parishioners,

It is unfortunate that a Letter to the Editor recently in our local newspaper carried a note from a member of the larger community going into a pointed discussion about the “Altar” and the “Table.” I was sent this same letter and responded kindly. My response was met with disrespect and scorn. The Eucharist is the greatest gift of the Lord and the Church, the most tangible way we experience the Lord’s Presence...the Lord Himself! It cannot be an instrument of division. The “debate,” supposedly, is whether we should refer to the primary symbol of Christ’s Presence (the place whereupon He offers Himself to the Father and to us) as Altar or Table. Scripture and Tradition both reaffirm that it’s BOTH and not either/or. Ours is a faith of mystery, and it often includes BOTH/ANDS rather than either/or. To top it off, I cannot believe the Lord would use a terrible disaster like the fire at Notre Dame Cathedral to make His point about a theological debate. This is just silliness, and it has no place in the life of God’s Church. I wish the newspaper would have used some discretion, but that’s another issue. I wish that the Eucharist would unite us, and that’s our issue. Studies show that many Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence. That’s an issue. Studies show that many Catholics do not attend Eucharist every Sunday. That’s an issue. Many Christians now belong to other traditions that do not believe the same as we do regarding Eucharist. That’s an issue. Truth be told, we couldn’t even agree this year on a proper way to celebrate two major events on the same day regarding Eucharist: the Corpus Christi celebration and Fr. Eric’s. I don’t think we make the Lord very happy with our disunity today. The first point: There is no greater way to appreciate The Body and Blood of the Lord and honor the Lord than our attendance, full participation, and regular reception of Eucharist at Mass. The second point: if we leave Church at the conclusion of Liturgy and have not been touched, transformed, moved, recreated, or otherwise deeply blessed, then we have failed to let the “Eucharist” in. What decision do we make by the grace of Eucharist to be a different, better, more committed disciple of the Risen Lord? How do we bring His Presence into our world? Let’s spend a lifetime trying to answer THIS mystery from what is both the Altar and the Table. - - - fr jeff

CORPUS CHRISTI

As we celebrate the great mystery of Eucharist this weekend, I invite you to pick a theme as you meditate on this great gift: The true Presence; the celebration of Eucharist; the opportunities to sit before the Lord present in our tabernacles and times of Adoration; the Unity the Sacrament signifies and toward which it calls us; the priesthood and its connection to Eucharist; the call to Social Justice and the feeding of the hungry and the poor as Jesus feeds the multitude; and your own response to the privilege of being one called to and transformed by Eucharist...Just to name a few.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

See the notice elsewhere in the bulletin and posted in the Vestibule inviting our children and families to participate in Vacation Bible School this week. Join us and have a great time exploring our faith, learning and growing together.

CONGRATULATIONS, FR. ERIC!

Join us this afternoon at 2 pm for a special liturgy as Fr. Eric Vogt, OSB, our native son, celebrates the 40th anniversary of his ordination to priesthood. As you know, he has been serving most recently as Pastor of St. Gregory the Great Church in Virginia Beach after his longstanding pastorate of Sacred Heart. Let us rejoice on this Feast of Corpus Christi with one who brings us the Lord in the Eucharist and his priestly ministry.

SPEAKING OF NATIVE SONS...

Congratulations to Fr. Paul Taylor, OSB, another of our native sons, as he is named the President of St. Vincent College! That’s quite an undertaking, but we pray that Fr. Paul will do a great job! So many QW parishioners and others from St. Marys have ties to St. Vincent - it’s great to have him at the helm.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Skyelyr Rae Bish, our newest parishioner, was recently Baptized, Confirmed and welcomed to First Holy Communion at a special liturgy. Prior to this, Skyelyr celebrated the Rite of Welcome at the Saturday Evening Liturgy. We are proud of her for following the Lord’s call to faith and for choosing QW as her parish home. Skyelyr is a member of the Junior Class at ECCHS. Welcome Skyelyr, and thank you for your example, inspiration, and faith!

THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART

As you have once again witnessed, there are feasts that extend beyond the Easter Season. We conclude our most sacred time of the year with Pentecost. Since, we have enjoyed Sunday celebrations dedicated to the Holy Trinity and to Corpus Christi. This Friday, we enjoy the Feast of the Sacred Heart as a final major moment in this special framework. Join us if you are able, here at QW at 7 am or at the other parishes in the area. Let us pray for an appreciation of the Lord’s great love for us and the call to be instruments of that love.

WOMEN’S CURSILLO

As we pray this weekend a Women’s Cursillo is taking place at ECCHS. Several parishioners and many others from our community are among the 30-some women who are participating. Likewise, the team leading the weekend includes parishioners and others from our area. Please pray that they have a great experience of renewal in faith.

YOUTH MINISTRY

After one year among us as our Youth Group Leader and Middle School Catechetical leader, Scott Becker has decided to return to his home in York, PA to pursue other opportunities. Scott did a great job this year and we hate to lose him. He also joined the faculty at ECCHS as a theology teacher. We wish him well in his future endeavors. We are posting the position on our Faith Formation Website and elsewhere in the hopes to identify a new leader before the school year begins. Please pray for Scott, all of our Faith Formation leaders, and all those sharing the faith with our young people.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Today (Sunday, June 23) there will be a Corpus Christi celebration and procession beginning at 2 pm at St. Mary’s Church. All are invited. First Communicants from this year are encouraged to wear their special attire from First Holy Communion as they join in the procession.
