Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday’s Gospel, Lk 14:1, 7-14

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:

Can you imagine if Jesus threw a party? From the wedding feast at Cana, we know he wouldn’t let the wine run out. From this Sunday’s Gospel, we know there would be quite a lively array of guests! We also knew who the most important people would be - everyone. Jesus advises throwing a party that turns everything upside down. Everyone should assume they’re the least important attendee, and the guest list shouldn’t include the neighborhood "who's who." Rather, we should go looking for "the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind" and hope they RSVP. Jesus describes a particular posture towards our own hospitality. Parties are about the other people. "Do not recline at table in the place of honor." How often can small talk become a one-upmanship of job promotions, home renovations, and our children's achievements? We've all been to parties where being the most interesting guest is the highest achievement. Yet so often, we know the best party guests are the ones who listen well to our stories. Whether we are guests or hosts, we have the opportunity to look on others with humility and awe. Parties are opportunities to serve. Jesus advises us to be careful who we invite "in case they might invite you back and you have repayment." Does Jesus literally mean we shouldn't invite our friends over? Of course not! But he does invite us to special consideration when we offer hospitality. When we invite people over to our home, what motivates us? Who we want to spend time with? Who we'd like to impress? These ultimately have only ourselves in mind. How about asking: Who could use some extra care right now? Who could benefit from a fun evening out? In other words, who can I serve?

Question of the Week:

Has the hunger for status and influence in the world around you endangered your life as a Christian? Does it make you a better person to be chosen first for a team or some other honor? Why or why not?

“A SPECIAL INVITATION”

Hi Fellow Parishioners!

I wanted to let you all know about a project that I am involved with and invite you to join in! A colleague and I have been feeling called to do something for our community that will propel our faith and bring folks together as Christians. After a lot of searching we have found a program that will be coming to our schools in October.

The program has an anti-bullying theme and is called the Dignity Revolution. It talks about the worth and value of every person. After the day programs there will be a community night with Bob Lenz a Christian speaker. We have this scheduled for 6:30 pm on Wednesday, October 9th at the St. Marys Area High School auditorium. All are welcome to this event and more details will be coming as it gets closer.

We will be taking up a collection the week of September 8th to help with the costs. If you are able to donate any amount, we very much appreciate it!

I’m praying big that this event is successful in helping folks come together for the good of our great community - please join me in prayer if you can!

God bless,
Mandy Assalone

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — What does Pro-Life mean in today’s world? It means embracing life from the moment of conception throughout all phases, struggles and challenges of life till the last breath of life. There is no denying Christians are under attack from the beginning of life to death. Dignity, integrity, morals and values are being stripped from our society. Being silent isn’t what God is calling us to do. Pro-life issues are mostly thought of as abortion and end of life concerns, but equally important are the daily challenges a person faces throughout their life and their family’s lives. In today’s world this includes substance abuse, human trafficking, domestic violence, and human sexuality issues. Our country is in a state of emergency in many areas especially when it comes to our children and families. Think Pro-Life!

Dear Parishioners,

We move into the month of September with its shorter days and cooler evenings. For all the complaining we...I guess maybe I should just say, “I...do about the weather, we had a pretty good run in July and August. I hope your summer went as well as the nice weather. It is great to be outside and to enjoy the beauty of our area in the summer time, including the parks, trails, woods, and gardens. We can pray and hope for an extended summer still, even as we head back to our routines after the holiday. I hope you have some time this holiday to reflect on the "work" you do. Whether you are one of our many trades people who have skills that you use every day to manufacture, repair, create, or fix; whether you are in management, making the decisions to help a company, large or small, meet the needs of customers; whether you are in retail; professions such as engineer, architect, the teaching or medical world; whether you are a stay at home parent or self-employed, you are blessed with the ability to earn a living. By doing so you take care of your self and maybe your family, all the while contributing to a much bigger picture. Our economy always has its issues, it is far from perfect. But it is the way we get from day to day as we build up God's Kingdom in this world. Jesus had plenty to say about economics - the majority of His parables were about money, how it is earned and used. The Church has offered many teachings about our systems, pointing out what is best and what needs tweaking. Like all aspects of life, we see our "job" as part of our "vocation," our calling, to serve God and serve others. Like all aspects of life, these things have changed through the years. The division between the rich and poor continues to grow - this is our biggest economic issue. The rights and dignity of all in the labor force and work world are also always in need of our watchful eyes. Of late, we are also learning that along with whatever we use as the resources of this world, we are responsible as co-creators with the Lord, to take care of the planet, the world we have been given. Family life has also changed drastically since it often takes more than one adult to sustain the needs of a family or household. I could also give you some other "issues" to reflect upon. With what spirit do you come home when you work day is complete? Are you tired? Are you satisfied. Are you happy? How do you transition to your personal and family life? Do you see your earnings as a responsibility in faith, and so give in charity generously to God and to people in need? What are you encouraging in your children as they try to discern their gifts for future reference? What values are the foundation of your every day life? As summer wanes and we ponder these things, let us be encouraged by the Scripture: “Whatever you do in speech or in action, do it in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father through Him.” - - - fr jeff

LABOR DAY WEEKEND

Welcome to Summer’s last great holiday, Labor Day Weekend. Enjoy the festivities of the weekend. We welcome any visitors and those who are home for the holiday. We pray that all travel safely.

On this weekend we celebrate the opportunity to earn a living, contribute to society and the building up of the Church and the Kingdom of God. The Church as a long-standing tradition of supporting the worker, seeking justice in the marketplace, and promoting opportunities for all. We also remember those for whom the earning of a living and just wage is a struggle.

Jesus tells that perplexing parable of workers in the vineyard, whereby those who enter the workforce when the day is practically over receive the same wage as those who started at dawn. The great conclusion: No matter how you look at it, God is generous!
