LIVING THE GOSPEL THROUGH INSPIRATION

God is love. These three simple words deserve a great deal of attention. They have the power to transform our relationship with God from something that is static and distant to one that is personal and real. We all know the power of love and how important it is to completing all of the human and divine circuits of our lives. But we do not often consider the awesome fact that it is given to us as a gift and is not simply part and parcel of the human package. God is the author of love and love itself. When we truly love another human being, it is really God being God in and through us. The love to which we are called and the love of which the Gospel speaks is a selfless love that seeks the wellbeing of not only our significant others but of all of our brothers and sisters. This love, which is of God, is a love that will endure all things and bring immeasurable joy when experienced. It is the most sincere form of friendship.

- Elizabeth Stone

Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday's Gospel, Jn 15:9-17

6th Sunday of Easter - Cycle B

Gospel Summary:

"Remain in my love," and, "I call you friends," are powerful words that are found in John's Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our "failures in love." In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love's author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God's love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world's problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

Questions of the Week:

How is love of others connected to love of God?
How can I show Jesus' love to others this week?

A MOTHER'S DAY BIBLE VERSE...

A Bible verse to offer the best words to encourage your mom!

"She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her" Proverbs 31:24-28

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments-

Digital safety and keeping your child's personal information personal: If your child gives out personal information over the internet, it is easy to track and tough to completely remove. Teach your children to never give out personal information, such as: full name, address, phone number, email, school, or birthday on any social media site. Help your child set up strong passwords (alphanumeric) and do a yearly checkup on passwords. Adjust privacy settings for online games, apps, social media sites and your child's electronic devices. Don't forget to check the GPS settings ability to unintentionally share your child's location. Avoid using public wi-fi when sharing personal information. Visit <https://www.eriecd.org/childprotection/> to see what the diocese is doing to help maintain safe environments for children and youth.

Blessing of Mothers...

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love--mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life--that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

God our heavenly Father, you give to each the ability to share your generative love.

Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.

Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.

May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.

We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother. Amen.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — The most important person on earth is a mother...mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other creature; God joins forces with Mothers in performing creation/life. What could be more glorious than this? God of all goodness, you have entrusted us with the gift of life. Help us to appreciate that gift from the first moments of conception to the last breaths of old age. Send strength to all those who defend the unborn, the weak, and the dying against attempts to cut short their lives. May your Holy Spirit touch the hearts of those who are tempted to choose the way of death rather than life. Grant that your people may always be a sign of your love in the world. Amen. ~ Happy Mother's Day ~

Dear Parishioners,

The Blessed Mother; her mother, St. Anne; St. Elizabeth; St. Monica; St. Elizabeth Ann Seton – these are just a few of the women from our tradition who come to mind when we reflect on the gift of sainted motherhood. Of course, most of us also think of our Mothers as saints or saintly. After all, they gave us life, provided for us, taught us well, and, I suspect spent much time in prayer for us. Today we honor them any way we are able. First, with prayers of love and gratitude. Maybe with a meal and some gifts. My favorite thing year by year is to see how many mothers manage to get their husbands and children to Mass on this Sunday. My question is, why not next Sunday and the Sunday after that? Once again this year, it was noticeable how many of our Confirmation candidates chose their grandmother as their sponsor. What an awesome way to say, “thank you” to that next generation of motherhood. These women, too, have sacrificed and stepped in as great mother-figures. They do it with style and with a bit more “freedom” than Mom has to try different approaches to show their care for us. Those of us with siblings recognize Mom’s talent to treat us each differently, recognizing our uniqueness, Yet, always holding us “equally” or close to it. I want to offer an extra nod to Mothers of children with “special needs” of various kinds. I’ve been blessed through the years to see tremendous love shown in this regard. The effort, the sacrifice, the compassion, seen in all mothers, is all the more remarkable in some families. God gives us the graces to go with our challenges. Mothers, above all, give witness to that. Be sure, then, to take time today to reflect on those women whose mothering helped mold and shape you. God bless you, Mom! Today we say “thank you.” Every day, we say, “we love you!”

HAPPY MOTHERS DAY!

To Mom and Grandma and to all Mother-figures: Happy Mothers Day! Enjoy your special day! Thank you for the gift of life and for all your care from the moment of conception, through birth and through the years. God bless you for choosing to say “Yes” to God’s plan.

Remember to pray for all deceased mothers, especially those who died in the past year; for all mourning the loss of their mother; and for all mothers who have lost children.

In case Mothers Day caught you, her husband or children off guard and you were not prepared, we have you covered. Please use the parish gift by the Blessed Mother Shrines in front or back of Church to present our gift (and yours) to Mom!

ASCENSION THURSDAY

This Thursday is the 40th Easter Day, the Feast of the Ascension. Masses at QW are 7 am and 7 pm. We are not able to invite you to school Masses yet as we pretty well fill the church with the school family. Check other area parishes for alternate times. Remember, the “obligation” is still lifted. But if you are able, and comfortable, celebrate the Feast of the Ascension with us. Other options will also be available on line and on TV.

After Thursday, we turn toward Pentecost, the 50th Easter Day. Recite the prayer to the Holy Spirit daily or, in your own words, ask the Spirit’s blessings upon yourself and your needs, those of your family, the Church, and the world.

Come, Holy Spirit. Fill the hearts of your faithful. Enkindle in us the fire of your Spirit. Send forth your Spirit, and we shall be recreated. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

CONGRATULATIONS

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION RECIPIENTS!

Yesterday our parish celebrated First Holy Communion. We are proud of our young people now able to receive the Lord in the Eucharist. Thanks to you for your preparation, to your parents and catechists and all who have supported you in faith. Next week we will list your names in the bulletin so everyone can congratulate you!

THE ROSARY DURING MAY

Rosary Altar Society leaders gather us to pray the Rosary at 6 pm, Mondays through Thursdays, (except May 31st - Memorial Day). The Rosary is also prayed most days before daily Mass and before the Saturday evening Mass. Join us any time you are able.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Myra Meyer! Myra recently completed her preparation through the RCIA process -- not an easy thing to do during this pandemic year. Last weekend she was welcomed into the Church, celebrating the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist! We are proud of you, Myra, and happy to have you!
