LIVING THE GOSPEL THROUGH INSPIRATION

Do we trust that God will take care of us and has things under control? When life gets difficult, shaky or painful, we may find ourselves wondering what we may have done to deserve this fate. Often, we go to great lengths to explain suffering away, as if it has no purpose and ought not to exist. In an attempt to get God on our side in our battle against suffering, our prayer can mirror a question asked by the disciples: do you not care that we are perishing? As we are asking that question of God, God is asking of us: do you not yet have faith? It is for certain that God does not intentionally inflict pain upon us. God has no sinister plot to test our faith or trip us up. Rather, the unconditional, restorative and rejuvenating power of God's love can bring light out of the greatest darkness and gives hope in the midst of deep despair. We have to be patient and ride out the storm. It is our task to deepen our faith that God will calm the wind and draw meaning out of that which seems senseless.

Please note: The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and holy day Masses remains in place for now.

Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday's Gospel, Mk 4:35-4

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle B

Gospel Summary:

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into uncharted waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"?

Questions of the Week:

When has the Lord calmed the stormy times of my life? What fear can Jesus help me overcome?

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH FOR SPECIAL NEEDS

Glorious Patriarch St. Joseph, whose power makes the impossible possible, come to my aid in these times of anguish and difficulty. Take under your protection the serious and troubling situations that I commend to you, that they may have a happy outcome. My beloved father, all my trust is in you. Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain, and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary, show me that your goodness is as great as your power. Amen.

It's not easy being a father, trying to straddle that delicate balance between firmness and compassion. How did your own father do it? Well or imperfectly? I know you're trying. Keep it up.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — Abortion and racism are both symptoms of a fundamental human error. The error is thinking that when someone stands in the way of our wants, we can justify getting that person out of our lives. Abortion and racism stem from the same poisonous root, selfishness. Alveda King

Dear Parishioners

I join in giving thanks with all of you for the gift of our Dads. Living, deceased, with us today in person or at least in prayer... we are grateful for the way dads become that "father-figure" each in his own way. This past year we've had far too many funerals, including those of parents and grandparents. One of the consolations is the sharing of stories. The stories of what our fathers taught us are great ones. For many, they were blessed with fathers of strong faith. For some, fathers with important values and skills. In our neck of the woods, many a dad passed on great appreciation for nature in hunting and fishing. Grandpas who spent time, energy, and joyful love on their grandchildren made great impacts. Not everyone is blessed to have a dad who is present and capable of all these good things. We recognize that for some, Fathers Day can be difficult because of this. For most of us, though, that fatherhood exhibited by Dad is also a reflection of this: Jesus' great love for God is expressed primarily as a child to a Father, God the Father. In His prayer and explanation, Jesus referred to Him as "Abba," that is "Daddy." Maybe, that's because He saw a lot in Joseph that spoke to His Heart about God the Father. Let's put it this way. The God I come to know is, at least in part, revealed to me by the healthy father-images I have experienced here. Just to be clear in our politically correct world, this is also true, of course of Mothers and any other authorities who use their authority in loving, compassionate, and selfless ways. Still, there is certainly great joy today in giving thanks by recognizing DAD!

HAPPY FATHERS DAY!

Today we welcome, pray for, and give thanks for all Fathers, Grandfathers, and father figures in our lives. Thank you for giving us life, guidance, and example. God bless you! We pray for all our deceased fathers. In a special way, pray for those whose father died in the past year as they face this first Fathers Day without him. We also remember those dads who have had to bury a child, for whom this is a difficult day.

If you forgot to get Dad a gift (and, even if you didn't)... we have a gift for all Dads from you and from our parish. Be sure to take one from near the St. Joseph Shrine or the Sacred Heart shrine.

We join the Church in this year of St. Joseph by turning to the patron saint of fathers on this special day. St. Joseph, your care for Jesus is attested to in the Holy Gospels, join us in praying that all fathers love, nurture, protect, and guide their children as you did. Continue to bless the Church with men of faith and insight to contribute to the holiness of all families. Patron of fathers, pray for us!

PRAYERS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Remember to pray for all the Faithful Departed, including all deceased fathers. In particular, pray for Viola Eckert, who died recently. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...Eternal Rest...

THE BISHOP'S VISIT

It was good to have Bishop Persico with us last weekend to celebrate a weekend Mass and enjoy a pastoral visit. Among the comments he made after Mass, he said that he felt truly welcomed by you, our parishioners. He appreciated how many stayed to offer personal greetings and a few words after Mass. He mentioned that this is not always the case when he visits parishes, so thank you for making the extra effort to welcome him! After all, this is "his" home, too!

EMMAUS

This week Bishop Persico gathers the priests and deacons of our Diocese for our annual convocation. Like many things last year, Emmaus became a briefer, virtual experience. So, we look forward to this opportunity to come together in faith, fellowship, learning, prayer, and support. Fr. Jeff and Fr. Kevin will be joining the convocation. Please keep all the clergy of our diocese in your prayers. Note the abbreviated daily Mass schedule here this week. Check the bulletins of our neighboring parishes for Masses, or join us for the Scripture/Communion services as scheduled.

EMMAUS PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, hear our prayers for the spiritual renewal of priests. We praise You for giving their ministry to the Church. In these days, renew them with the gifts of Your Spirit.

You once opened the Scriptures to the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Now, renew Your ordained ministers with the truth and power of Your Word.

In Eucharist, You gave the Emmaus disciples renewed life and hope. Nourish priests with Your own Body and Blood. Help them to imitate in their lives the death and resurrection they celebrate at Your altar.

Give priests enthusiasm for the Gospel, zeal for the salvation of all, courage in leadership, humility in service, fellowship with one another and with all their brothers and sisters in You.

For You love them, Lord Jesus, and we love and pray for them in Your Name. Amen.

PROTOCOLS

While many or even most of the pandemic restrictions are being lifted, we still advise some caution, until we are told that all can return to normal. In particular, we continue to distribute Holy Communion by coming to you, thus reducing the risks of being pretty much on top of one another. Also, please respect the St. Jude section of Church (back left), reserved for those who NEED Social Distancing (not vaccinated or immune-compromised in various ways). We will also continue sanitizing after each church use, so please place your kneelers to the floor any time you have been to Mass.

CHILDREN'S MATERIALS

A reminder for our families with young children – we place materials on the Children's table in the back of Church, near the center doors, so you can follow-up with the story of Jesus at home after Mass. This helps our families grow in faith, sharing the experience of Eucharist in our "church at home."
