Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday's Gospel, Lk 2:41-52

THE HOLY FAMILY - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Questions of the Week:

What does your family do to honor and respect its older members? How can Jesus be an example for you? How do you seek God's help for the anxious moments in your family?

WHAT IS THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY?

Pope Francis has asked the entire world to participate in a synod on the topic "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission." The central question he asks of everyone is: A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together." How is this "journeying together" happening today in our diocese? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journeying together"? You may be invited to participate in listening sessions at your local parish, or you may wish to give your input online. Participation in a synod should always involve prayer, listening, discussion, and above all, discerning the way that the Holy Spirit is guiding us. Hopefully these questions and answers can help you as you prepare your input. Flyers have been available in Church explaining the Synod. Please pick one up to keep informed on this subject.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. Let us pray that our eyes may be opened to the example of Christ, who devoted the overwhelming number of His years on earth to quietly loving those closest to Him in humble hiddenness. This is one more lesson that Bethlehem has to teach us – that the ordinary is, in fact, the most extraordinary thing on earth. In the coming year, let us be resolved to throw ourselves with our whole hearts into the task of imitating the extraordinary ordinariness of the Holy Family, loving our families with a Christ-like love that gives unconditionally, and asks for nothing in return. There is no surer way of creating a Culture of Life, and fighting the culture of death, than that.

Dear Parishioners,

There are so many elements to the story of Jesus' birth and those early days of His infancy. As they are told to us in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, they are pointing us beyond these first moments of our Lord's life on earth. In other words, they are not so much narratives of what happened, but a prophecy of what is to come. The gift of salvation is what is to come! But that salvation comes at the cost of our Lord's death on the cross. We will learn that Jesus so relates to the poverty and lowly shepherds, that He will call Himself a Shepherd! As He lay in the feeding trough for animals, we think about how He will literally feed the world with the gift of Himself. The people who praise Him make great sacrifices to come to Him and offer gifts - it is no easy journey, this life of discipleship. The threats against His life, the mixture of joy and fear, the dreams and visions, the love, the obedience, the faith in God - all these tell us something of where this story is headed. Because we are blessed with faith, His story will become our story. Most of us probably have some idea of our first days in this world - told to us, if we are so blessed, by our parents and grandparents - perhaps several times. Each of us is a unique gift of God, and our story is unique. The Gospels of this season tell us of the most special, most unique birth in human history. They also tell us to prepare ourselves to follow Him where life, teachings, suffering, death and resurrection will take Him - and us. What do you hear in these stories? What helps you stay close to the Holy Family, and, in particular, to our Lord? What makes you give glory to God? Would you "go, tell it on a mountain?" --- fr jeff

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

Today we take the next step in the Christmas season, celebrating the Feast of the Holy Family. Just as we continue to celebrate our faith here at Church, may your holiday continue with your family as well. Enjoy the time together, the meals, gifts, laughter, children, and the peace of the season. May God continue to bless you and yours. Remember to care for those who are alone, in mourning, or have little for celebration. Be safe in your travels and endeavors.

THE FEAST OF MARY, MOTHER OF GOD

The next feast of the season is January 1st, the Feast of Mary, the Mother of God, and New Years. The obligation to attend Mass is removed, since it falls on Saturday this year. Still, many people like to include the Eucharist in their New Years celebration. Our Masses will be Friday Evening, Dec. 31, a Vigil Mass at 5:15 pm; Saturday morning, Jan. 1, there is one Mass at 9 am. St. Mary's Church will have a 4:30 pm Vigil and 8:30 am Mass Saturday; Sacred Heart's Mass schedule is not different from ours.

Fr. Jeff, Fr. Kevin, and your parish staff wish you a blessed New Year. Let us pray that 2022 will be a year to lift us beyond the pandemic, to discover whatever our "new normal" is, and include a return to the basic elements of life and faith.

The Office will be closed Friday, Dec. 31 to allow our staff to enjoy New Years time at home with their families.

FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

Next weekend we will celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany. We will return to our more usual weekend schedule with a Vigil Mass at 5:15 pm Saturday; Sunday morning Masses will be at 7:30 and 10. Confessions will take place at 4:15 pm Saturday.

THE CHRISTMAS FLOWER MEMORIALS

In today's bulletin, or in a separate sheet near the bulletin, we include the Christmas Flower Memorials. Thank you for helping us make the Church beautiful for this holy season. Please join us all in praying for those living and deceased remembered by these offerings. We will celebrate a Mass in the Christmas season on behalf of those we are asked to pray for. Any donations received after the flier was completed will be listed in a future bulletin or separate notice.

END OF THE YEAR GIFTS

Again, thank you for your generous Sacrificial Giving to God in thanksgiving for your blessings. Your Offertory and CSA gifts enable us to take care of our parish plant, meet our obligations, and fulfill our mission. This year we exceeded the diocesan CSA goal by several thousand dollars, which helped tremendously. Remember that any gift you wish to count against your 2021 tax records must be received by Dec. 31. God bless you!

PARISH CALENDARS

Parish calendars for the New Year are available at Church entrances. Be sure to have one to keep us with daily feasts and the seasons of the Church year. Be sure to take one for anyone else who might appreciate one.

THANK YOU!

The Christmas time generosity of our parish is overwhelming. Fr. Jeff and Fr. Kevin say "thank you" to all of you for your prayers, cards, gifts, and goodies at Christmas and throughout the holidays. We are blessed by you and blessed to be here with you. We will keep all of you in our daily prayers as an expression of our gratitude.

AND ANOTHER THANK YOU!

The Church looks beautiful this Christmas season! Thanks to so many of you who helped last Sunday and then during the week with all the decorating. Thanks, too, to our staff and all those in ministries, for taking care of our people, our needs, and our liturgies for Christmas, throughout the season, and truly, throughout the year. In a particular way, let us be grateful for our wonderful music ministry here at Queen, under the direction and leadership of Stephen Toney, and including our instrumentalist, cantors, and the choral group that we are permitted to have (by number) at this time. Their contribution to the liturgies of Christmas brought great praise to God and joy to all of us.

GRACE NOTES STUDIO CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The piano and voice students Grace Notes Studio in Wilcox will present a Christmas concert today, Sunday, Dec. 26th at 3 pm at Queen of the World. The students will share their talent and their favorite holiday songs. Admission is a donation at the door. Come to share in the Christmas Spirit!
