Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday's Gospel, Lk 3:15-16; 21-22

Baptism of the Lord - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Questions of the Week:

What do you imagine Jesus did (prior to the start of his public ministry) that was so pleasing to God? Do you think that God was "well pleased" by your actions in recent weeks? Why? What good thing could you do this week that would be pleasing to God?

A Prayer to Be Open to God's Will

Help me, Lord, to be open to Your will.
When You prompt me to do the right thing, give me the courage to do it. When those around me need my help, give me Your heart to love them. When I'm stuck in my own ways, give me the grace to grow closer to You every day. Give me the trust and confidence of Mary.
Let it be done unto me according to Your word! Amen.

SPECIAL RETREAT FOR ENGAGED COUPLES

Engaged couples are invited to attend an Engagement Encounter this January 28-30, 2022. Engagement Encounter is a restful retreat designed to provide engaged couples the tools for a happy, holy, and lasting marriage. Here's what folks have loved in the past: Time as a couple to focus on their relationship, a community that prays and has fun together, a non-judgmental atmosphere, the chance to set a good foundation for their marriage, and the opportunity to retreat from busy wedding details and enjoy each other. Learn more or register at <https://www.eriecd.org/familylifeoffice/ee.html>.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — On this the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we offer a Prayer for the Baptism of Aborted Babies: Heavenly Father, Your Love is eternal. In your ocean of love, you saved the world through your only begotten son, Jesus Christ. Now look at your only son on the cross who is constantly bleeding for love of his people, and to forgive your world. Purify and baptize aborted children with the Precious Blood and Water from the sacred Side of Your Son, who hung dead on the cross for their salvation., in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. May they through the Holy Death of Jesus Christ gain everlasting life, through his Wounds be healed, and through his Precious Blood be freed. There to rejoice with the Saints in Heaven. Amen

Dear Parishioners,

The Christmas season comes to an end and 2022 has arrived in full swing. We put the past year behind us, and it was a tough one. So much sickness, death, catastrophe, dissension, and division. We turn into a "new day." Let's make a resolution to be part of the solution! Our families, our church, our society need people - good people - who are willing to step up and be counted. We need leadership. We need the Christian values we have been celebrating in this Christmas season: faith, hope, love, peace, mercy, reconciliation, unity, kindness, and compassion, to name a few. What good are these, if, like some gifts, they just lay under the tree waiting to be used? Instead, let us be like children who tear into the package and overuse the gifts in the early hours of Christmas. There is far too much lethargy these days. People struggle to find the energy to do what is needed. Mass itself sometimes seems like a "show" or a "play," not something that EVERYONE participates in with ALL they have to give! The Church suffers from far too many people staying home, worshipping and serving when they want, not as is commanded. So, too, with dissension in the home. Who wants to try to fix that? And, our non-participation in government, including our failure to call our leaders to accountability, has put us in quite a mess at various levels of our social lives. In the text of Revelation, the author dares to put on the lips of our Savior: "The lukewarm I spit out of my mouth!" Even our Savior is frustrated by our inertia, for He came to give us His all! This was not a one-time help, but it now continues in the power of the Holy Spirit, the same Spirit we received at Baptism and Confirmation. The "let-somebody-else-do-it" plague is about as deadly as the pandemic has been, for it kills the life offered by the Spirit of God. So, let's make a conscious effort to live what we've been celebrating since the sun set on December 24th. "God is with us," we were reminded. As 2022 unfolds, we hope that many things will get better. Let's begin the year by presenting ourselves, following the example of the Magi, with the best we have to offer - ourselves, fully engaged, ready to serve, ready to be a blessing, ready to help bring about the Kingdom of Heaven in Christ Jesus in our world.

- - - fr jeff

SO LONG, CHRISTMAS!

Join us today as we take down the Christmas decorations at Church. We will begin after the last Mass (though we may have to wait for a Baptism ceremony to be completed). It always takes less time than set-up, which was done quickly and well thanks to so much help. Men, again, we need your assistance with the larger items.

PRAYERS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Please pray for all the faithful departed. In particular, let us commend to the Lord those who have died recently: Grace Arnold, Kurt Brown, and Stephanie Krise.

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be... Eternal Rest...

BAPTISM FONT

On this Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, I want to let you know that our new Baptism Font is on order. It will be in the same area as the current one. But, following the principles of the Second Vatican Council, it will allow a fuller sign of the elements of the Sacrament - namely, flowing (living) water, and the opportunity to baptize people older than infants. This cannot be done with our current structure. The font is paid for by the generous donation (unsolicited) of a parishioner. It will take a while to install and finish - more on this in the weeks to come. I hear by the way of rumor (no one has spoken to me) that "some people are against this..." I don't know what that means in terms of reasons or numbers. You are always welcome to ask questions and let me know your thoughts. Know that Finance Council and Pastoral Council have unanimously approved of the project.

A "FINAL" THANK YOU

Once again, Fr. Kevin and myself offer our thanks and our promise of continued prayers for all that you have done to make this Christmas a true gift to us. Your help at Church and at liturgies and your many expressions of care and prayer for us, encourages us. I've eaten way too many cookies... but have enjoyed every last one of them! Your cards, gifts, and offerings reveal your generosity - and we say "Thank you and God bless you!"

PASTORAL COUNCIL

Pastoral Council meets this Tuesday, Jan. 11 at 6:30 pm in the Rectory Meeting Room. Please bring your 2022 calendar to schedule future meetings.

ADORATION

Adoration takes place on Thursdays with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from after 7 am Mass until Evening Prayer and Benediction at 5 pm. There are some time slots where we could still use people willing to commit to a half hour or hour of prayer. Late morning and early afternoon times are not full. Please call the rectory if you are willing to make this commitment, 814-834-4701.
