Faith Moment Reflection

At Holy Trinity, we use a variety of sources for this column. This week, the meditation is from Fr. John Muir, who writes for LPI. LPI is a Catholic publishing company that prints our bulletin and mails it back to us after we submit the file every week.

Fr. John Muir, pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Avondale, Arizona is a published author and speaker in the Catholic community.

The Epiphany of the Lord

A friend of mine is a young priest who teaches high school physics at a Catholic boys' prep school. Like many today, the boys often think science and religion are enemies. So, he delights in their raised eyebrows when he reminds them his first full-time job as a priest was to be an astrophysicist. He cataloged the size, shape, and matter of distant stars. He tells them, "Science gave me more love for God, not less."

The Magi were something like scientist-astronomers. Like today's scientists, they employed disciplined methods of discovering dependable patterns in the world. Their rigorous commitment to the truth led them to the joy of discovering Jesus. Their love for knowledge leads them to worship the Source of all knowledge. Luke says of them, "They were overjoyed at seeing the star."

We may see the universe as cold and empty and feel sad. But why should we do that? The Magi, like my priest-friend, show us there is another way to experience the world. We use our intelligence to discover the beautiful patterns in the world — in mathematics, physics, astronomy, biology, neuroscience, and so on — and allow this to lead us to greater love for God. So, my fellow Magi: the world needs us to be overjoyed at finding God in science and, finally and fully, in Jesus.

— Father John Muir

SPIRITUAL FACT

What are the 4 types of vocations?

Although your specific calling will be unique to you, there are four 'categories' of vocation that the Church uses to help us discern God's plan: marriage, single life, priesthood and religious life. In each of these four ways of life, God calls us to freely and generously respond to his call.

- * Are you 18 years old or older?
- * Have you received the Sacrament of First Eucharist, but were never Confirmed?
- * Are you interested in receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation?

If so, Contact Fr. Bob through the parish office at 716-366-2306.

He will be starting meetings near the end of January.

Look for forthcoming details in the announcements and the bulletin.
