April 11, 12 & 13

“The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.” (Ps 126:3; today’s psalm)

It is easy for the Christian to take a self-righteous attitude toward the world; it is much more difficult to take Jesus’ attitude: “Neither do I condemn you: go and do not sin again.” All of us have contributed to the darkness of the world; none of us can cast the first stone.

“We know as Christians that the most effective response to the ills of the world is ours to make, the duty to seek justice and equality resides with each of us. Here, in the painfully slow changing of our own lives and in the agony of living out our vocations, lies the essential key to a more decent and more human world.” (U.S. Bishops, To Do the Work of Justice, 47, 1978)

REFLECTION

Pastor's Letter

Mark, My Words:

St. Paul must have been a runner—today he sounds like any one of us who run for a good cause, when he reminds us to strive for the finish line and stay focused on the prize. One runner who used to run past a homeless shelter asked herself a fateful question: why don't I invite them to run with me?

So instead of running on by, Anne Mahlum started the "Back On My Feet" club of shelter residents and others who run together three times a week. It's an inclusive community who greet each other with hugs and words of encouragement. Some have lost weight, quit smoking, even gotten off crack. Others have found jobs or gone back to school.

Jesus could use a person like Anne in today's gospel. He is again confronted by legalistic perfectionists who insist on their purity. They separate themselves from low-down, pitiful sinners like the woman committing adultery. Yes, the laws were given so that we can come to know God's will. But Jesus makes it clear that the Spirit of the law goes beyond the letter. Jesus makes this perfectly clear: Legalism and perfectionism are weapons often used by people who get a bitter pleasure out of "nailing" wrongdoers. We have all made mistakes for which we have felt embarrassed and sorry. But harsh legalism divides us instead of uniting us. We need to call upon our mutual humanness to find common ground for grace and forgiveness.

The difficulty is, we cannot give or receive mercy until we see that we are all one in Jesus. Hopefully, we can face the truth about our own judgmental selves: ALL of us are sinners, and ALL of us require mercy from God. Jesus does not condemn us—he only advises the woman to go and sin no more—and isn't that what we all want to do anyway?

Today we welcome Bishop David Zubik who will celebrate the 11:30 a.m. Mass at St. Thomas More Church. Bishop Zubik is here to confer the Rite of Candidacy to Seminarian John Ferguson. Candidacy is a formal statement saying that John is intent on completing his desire to be ordained a priest through prayer and studies and that the Church recognizes John's discernment and desire for him to continue to prepare for priestly ordination. All are welcome to attend this Mass. Please continue to keep John and all seminarians in your prayers. A light reception will follow Mass in the Family Life Center.

Men's Fellowship Group meets on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month from 7:00-8:30pm in Capistran Hall. Men, come explore the truth of your Catholic Faith using the best available books and videos from recognized authors in the field. The evening consists of an hour and a half of hymns, scripture, videos and guided discussion. Outside activities, including an annual Catholic men's gathering, an annual retreat at St. Paul's Monastery, and other projects, are also held throughout the year.

Men's Fellowship Mission:

- To raise awareness among Catholic men of their need to re-experience the spiritual awakening they originally received at their baptism. (Conversion)
- To encourage men to seek opportunities for faith formation. (Formation)
- To affirm and encourage our clergy while enthusiastically teaching men how to pro-actively support their Catholic faith at the family, parish and community levels. (Mobilization)
- To be open and frank . . . with a large dose of charity.

Prayer Shawl Ministry members crochet or knit prayer shawls which range in size from ones you can keep in your pocket, lay across your lap, or large enough to wrap around your shoulders and arms. These shawls can be used during illness, recovery, comfort after a loss, or in celebration of happy occasions...there are endless possibilities! We also knit bibs which are handed out at baptisms. A miraculous medal or cross, prayer card, and rosary are attached to each prayer shawl or bib after which each item is blessed and the recipient's name is entered into a prayer book and prayed for at each meeting.

We gather together the 1st & 3rd Thursday of every month from 10:00-11:15am in the Rooney room at St. Thomas More. Please call the Parish Offices if you or someone you know would like a prayer shawl, or if you would like to get involved with this special ministry.

The Holy Hour and Authentic Prayer

Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen prayed for an hour every day in front of the Blessed Sacrament. He writes:

The holy hour in our modern rat race is necessary for authentic prayer. Our world is one of speed in which intensity of movement is a substitute for lack of purpose; where noise is invoked to drown out the whisperings of conscience; where talk, talk, talk gives the impression that we are doing something when really we are not; where activity kills the self-knowledge won by contemplation...

There seems to be so little in common between our involvement with the news of the world and the Stranger in whose Presence we find ourselves. The hour means giving up a golf game or a cocktail party, or a nap...

The best time to make a holy hour is in the morning, early, before the day sets traps for us... We are not called to great penances, and many would interfere with our duty, but the hour is our daily sacrifice in union with Christ.

You are invited to come and spend some time with Jesus.

Come and visit, or sign up for your own weekly hour or substitute hour:

Forms and schedules are outside the chapel.

The following hours will come open again after Easter Sunday:

and Fridays 11AM.
Currently open: Thursdays noon during recitation of the Rosary.

WEEK IN REVIEW

AMA is blessed to receive a $750 grant from Kids of Steel, a training program that helps motivate kids and their families to get moving together. The grant will be used for pickle ball equipment and gym scooters for both campuses. Our students will also be preparing for the Pittsburgh Kids Marathon on April 30th with Kids of Steel!

The world is in need of our prayers. Fifth graders are doing their small part by saying a prayer of peace for Ukraine and Russia every school day. They gather around a small tree in their classroom covered in peace doves with their own personal prayers during this time of war. Our school family will continue to pray for peace.

KNIGHT'S PILGRIMAGE TO BYZANTINE CHURCHES Did you know the Pittsburgh region has the country's highest concentration of Byzantine (Eastern) Catholic churches, and is the home of the Byzantine Archdiocese of Pittsburgh? Most of us attend the Latin, or Western, Rite, but the Eastern Catholics have always been very important in the life of the Church. Pope St. John Paul II wrote that "the Church must breathe with her two lungs," referring to West and East. Many of these churches have breathtaking icons and mosaics covering the walls of their churches. The South Hills Knights of Columbus Council invite you to come on a journey in the Mon Valley during the Pittsburgh Byzantine Church

Tour! The trip will include visits to St. John Chrysostom Church in Pittsburgh, Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Braddock, and Ascension Church in Clairton. The event is scheduled for Saturday, April 23. The bus leaves the parking lot of St. Thomas More Church at 9:00 AM and returns approximately 2:45 PM, and lunch is included. There is no cost for the bus or lunch but everyone is encouraged to make a donation to the churches and provide gratuity for the bus driver.

Please contact Matthew Hoffman at matthewhoffman421@gmail.com or 412-576-0396 to make a reservation. Everyone is invited. Deadline for reservations is April 18th. Note that the entrances to some of these churches involve steps and some light outdoor walking will be required.
