May they feel the warmth of Christ in our Parish Community.

To our parishioners and visitors, our friends, neighbors, Catholics and non-Catholics: We're so glad you are here! If you have any questions about the Mass, church membership, or want to speak with a priest, please call one of the parish offices.

Please join us this morning in Capistran Hall for donuts, coffee, and fellowship after both the 9:00am and 11:00am Masses at St. John Capistran Church!

You will also have an opportunity to complete the parish survey on discipleship that is being conducted by Catholic Leadership Institute if you have not already done so.

The next Donut Sunday will be at St. Thomas More Church on May 1.

2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." - Jn 20:27

"Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last, the one who lives." Rev 1:17-18, today's second reading)

The saying of Jesus echoes through the centuries: "blest are they who have not seen and have believed." Blest are those prophetic voices raised in anticipation of a new day, a new world of justice and peace. They "no longer look for Jesus among the dead," but find him instead in life and in the fullness of life. They base their lives on their total faith that we "have become a new creation."

"Will the world ever succeed in changing that selfish and bellicose mentality which, up to now, has been interwoven in so much of its history? It is hard to foresee; but it is easy to affirm that it is toward that new history, a peaceful, truly human history, as promised by God to men of good will, that we must resolutely march. (Pope Paul VI, Address to the United Nations 1965; paragraph 22)

REFLECTION

Pastor's Letter

ark, My Words:

Today's gospel seems so familiar, maybe because most of us have been Doubting Thomas at some time in our lives. We haven't seen the physical body of Jesus, yet, we want to believe in the Jesus who said, "I am the Living One. I was dead, and now I am to live forever and ever." We try, we pray, "Lord, I believe--help my unbelief," we read inspiring books. Still, our desire to "place my fingers into the holes in His hands and feet and side" never goes away.

Why is this? Because faith is always a process of coming to know and love God. "The desire for God is written in the human heart..." because we are "created by God and for God."

Think about the profound intimacy this conveys: from the first moment of life, we are living our lives in communion with God. In the trials and noise of life, we do not always feel the beat of God's heart, God's arms around us, God calling our name tenderly. So, how do we believe and respond to God while we live in this body, and in this world that our great-grandparents used to call "the valley of tears"?

Jesus said, "Happy are those who have NOT seen and yet believe."

Faith waxes and wanes, and demands "Every effort of intellect, a sound will, 'an upright heart,' as well as the witness of others who teach (us) to seek God." (Cath. Catech., Sec. 30)

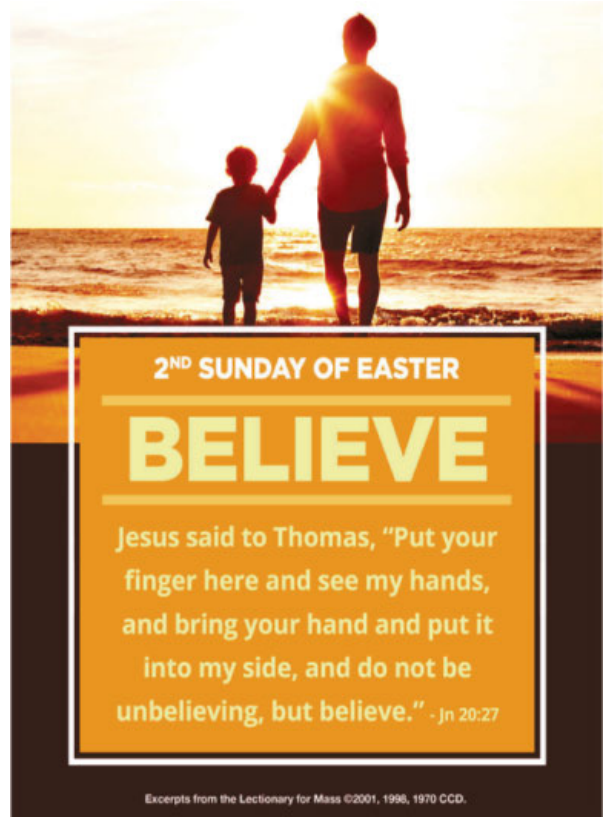

This means reading, thinking, showing up for some faith formation nights at church, talking with your family about deep questions. It also means making decisions by what is fair, moral, and good. This Easter season is a chance to stop, read, and pray more than usual.

Finally, we need the community of good friends in faith, mentors, wiser souls to help us seek wisdom and faith. St. Paul says faith is the "substance of things hoped for"—so watch carefully what you are hoping for!

WELCOME SEMINARIAN MATT SELZER – Recently we have been informed that the diocese is sending us Seminarian Matt Selzer to be with us for the summer. Matt has completed his first year of theological formation at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore and will be with us from May 31st until July 31st. Matt will assist at daily and Sunday liturgies, as well as funerals, weddings, blessing services, communion calls, etc. He will get here just in time to participate in SummerFest as well as the Appalachian Mission Trip. Matt will introduce himself after his arrival.

Thank You!

A note of thanks to all who made the Easter liturgies so beautiful. To those who decorated the churches, the choirs and musicians, those who ministered around the altar and to those who worked behind the scenes in so many ways. The liturgies were an opportunity for us to deepen our relationship with the Lord and to give praise to God.

Resurrection Parish is participating in a parish-wide survey!

Resurrection Parish is participating in a parish survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! The survey will also be used to guide the Pastoral Plan for Resurrection Parish.

We need everyone's help!

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link from Sunday, April 17th through Sunday, May 8th and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole. The online link is available now through May 8th at <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/yccyay>. You may also scan this QR code to go directly to the survey:

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to Bishop Mark, the staff, parish leaders and our various ministries as we plan and strive to be the best disciples and best Resurrection Parish we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy, you may pick one up after daily and Sunday Masses. They will be located in the vestibules or in both Parish offices. To submit the completed paper survey, please drop off in the Parish office or to an usher at weekend masses. To make special arrangements for getting a paper copy, please contact Colleen Pauley at 412-833-0031.

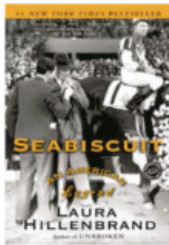

Thank you for helping with this important project!

Meetings are the second Monday of the month from 10 A.M. until noon in the Family Life Center of St. Thomas More Church. All are welcome.

Liturgy of the Hours Morning Prayer This beautiful liturgical prayer finds its source in the Eucharist and is truly both ancient and ever new. Please join us for Morning Prayer on Thursdays at 8:00 AM before the 8:30 AM Mass at SJC. Easy to follow booklets are provided.

A Poem by St. Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament

*Be adored, O God, in the work of Your mercy,
Be blessed by all faithful hearts
On whom Your gaze rests,
In whom dwells Your immortal life...*

*In Your inconceivable love,
You allowed Your most holy side to be opened,
And streams of Blood and Water
gushed forth from Your Heart.
Here is the living fountain of Your mercy,
Here souls receive consolation and refreshment.*

*In the Blessed Sacrament, You left us Your mercy;
Your love deigned to arrange it so,
That, going through life, suffering and toil,
I might never doubt of Your goodness and mercy...*

In the chapel you will find a copy of St. Faustina's diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul, as well as pamphlets containing the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Chapel openings: Tuesdays 1AM, Wednesdays 2AM, Thursdays 6AM and Fridays 11AM. Thursdays noon and Mondays 11AM need a second adorer. Or choose any hour that works in your schedule 24/6.

a non-confrontational, joyous way? St. Paul Street Evangelization has mobilized evangelist. The workshop focuses on basic methods for evangelization that anyone can use.

With that in mind, Diocese of Pittsburgh - Office for Evangelization has invited St. Paul Street Evangelization to lead their one-day workshop for all active parishioners on Saturday, May 28, 2022, 8:00am–4:00pm, at Assumption Parish Hall in Bellevue. The cost of the workshop is $25, which includes both lunch and materials.

WEEK IN REVIEW

We hope you enjoyed a beautiful Easter Sunday with those you love. Our students spent Holy Week taking part in several special activities. Our fifth graders remembered The Last Supper with a traditional Christian Seder meal as a class. They had the chance to learn about the tastes and traditions that are part of the meal.

Students also made and wore symbolic Lenten bracelets throughout Lent. Each color serves as a reminder. Black represents sin, red is the blood of Christ, blue is for baptismal water, white is for purity, green is for growing in faith, and yellow represents eternal life. They took them off and rejoiced on Easter Sunday.
