THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." - Mk 1:7-8

From our Clergy Team

Since before we rang in the new year of 2021, I've had a song stuck in my head. It's called "1921" and it's from The Who's 1969 rock opera "Tommy." While the musical is pretty strange overall, this particular song has lyrics that I find quite hopeful and thoughtful as we begin this new year. The lyrics state:

*I've got a feeling twenty-one is going to be a good year.
Especially if you and me
see it in together.*

I don't think The Who had a religious context in mind when writing these words, nor could they ever have imagined that in the year 2021 people throughout the world would be looking for a reason to hope and a fresh start after a challenging year gone by. Nonetheless, the lyrics provide for us some inspiration as we set out to make the most of the next 51 or so weeks.

First, as we read the words, "I've got a feeling twenty-one is going to be a good year," we are reminded that an optimistic attitude goes a long way. It doesn't mean that we are naïve to the difficulties that we may face, nor does it mean that we always see the glass as half full or look through rose-colored glasses. An optimistic outlook, however, does lighten our minds and hearts and assists us as we trust in God and his will for us. With optimism we are more often than not hopeful that God is in control and that he will lead us forward in life and closer to him in love.

Second, the words, "especially if you and me see it in together," are a reminder of the importance of the support of a community in helping to make our life's journey fruitful. One thing the year gone by has consistently reminded us is that we live not only for ourselves and our own well-being, but for the well-being of those around us, both neighbor and stranger alike. This helps to give purpose to our actions as we work to build up the Body of Christ in the Church.

And this community of faith doesn't solely exist among our brothers and sisters, but together with Christ our Lord, as well. We come to realize that we can do nothing without Jesus and together with him all things are possible. As we celebrate Jesus' baptism in the Jordan this weekend, we reflect upon the fact that our own baptism gives us a share in his life so that we never walk our journey alone. With this knowledge, I have a feeling that 2021 is going to be a very good year as you and I, together with Christ our Lord, encounter the joys and challenges of life and grow in faith and trust each day.

God bless!
Fr. Nick

March 2021 Lottery Tickets on Sale Now!

2021 lottery tickets are on sale in the back of church before and after the weekend masses. Ticket price is $5 for your chance at winning a cash prize each day in March. Only 1,000 tickets are available. Winning numbers are determined by the first official number drawn at 7:00 p.m. on the PA Pick 3 lottery game. Ticket sales will continue through the end of February. All proceeds benefit Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

The words in today's gospel, "This is my beloved, with Him I am pleased," are words every child needs to hear often. Affirmation is important to raise happy and confident children.

The Baptism of the Lord + January 10, 2021

PROCESSIONAL

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING—Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:

Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting, not making his voice heard in the street. A bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth; the coastlands will wait for his teaching. I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

RESPONSORIAL— Psalm 29: 1-2, 3-4, 3, 9-10

R. (11b) The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Give to the LORD, you sons of God,
give to the LORD glory and praise,
Give to the LORD the glory due his name;
adore the LORD in holy attire.

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

The voice of the LORD is over the waters,
the LORD, over vast waters.

The voice of the LORD is mighty;
the voice of the LORD is majestic.

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

The God of glory thunders,
and in his temple all say, "Glory!"
The LORD is enthroned above the flood;
the LORD is enthroned as king forever.

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

SECOND READING— Acts 10: 34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying:
“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

ALLELUIA

GOSPEL— Mark 1: 7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed:
“One mightier than I is coming after me.
I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals.
I have baptized you with water;
he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”
It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.
On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him.
And a voice came from the heavens,
“You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

We carry a greater depth of self-confidence and chance of succeeding when we have affirmation, a sense of direction and clear purpose in life. Each of these serve to provide our lives with meaning, allowing us to clearly establish priorities and goals. They also are necessary for integrity, which is the conviction and single mindedness that keeps us grounded in the truth of who we are. "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." Jesus' baptism provides him with exactly what he needs to get about the business of his mission as the Son of God. He is given what he needs to be successful in fulfilling the purpose for which he was sent. Our baptisms give us these same gifts. We receive the affirmation we need from God, knowing that we are one of his beloved daughters and sons. We are gifted with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Are we ready and willing to answer the call?

St. Patrick - St. Stanislaus Parish: 57 21st Street Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Sacraments and Prayers

BAPTISM: Please contact the particular parish you intend to have your child baptized at for information on scheduling. Baptism Seminars are held quarterly on the second Sunday of the month at 3:00 p.m. at Most Holy Name School.

MATRIMONY: Arrangements are to be made with a member of the clergy team six months in advance of the wedding date.

SICK AND SHUT-INS: The Sacraments are available to those who are unable to celebrate Mass due to sickness or age. To make arrangements for visitation to your home call the parish office.

SACRAMENTAL SPONSOR: To be a Sacramental sponsor one must be a practicing Catholic and a registered member of a parish.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: CCD instruction is provided for kindergarten through 8th grade.

PLEASE PRAY FOR all of the sick of our parish, the homebound, those in nursing homes, those who care for them, and those in the military.

NEW MEMBERS: We welcome those who are interested in joining our parish family. We invite new members to complete a registration form, which can be obtained from the parish office, or use the communication form at the end of this bulletin.

FOR PARISH CEMETERY INQUIRIES: Please contact the Catholic Parish Cemeteries Association at (412) 256-9370 or via e-mail cpca@cpca-pgh.org.

BULLETIN DEADLINE: Noon on Friday, seven days prior to publication date.

EXCHANGE OF PARISH ENVELOPES: Please note that all envelopes that we take in that belong to another parish will be mailed back to that parish. This is a policy of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.
